

Art Fair Plans Completed

Both amateur and professional artists will be represented at the annual Art fair to be held by the Salem Art association at Wilson park August 28 from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Some out of town artists, as well as local artists, will exhibit their works. Craftsmen will demonstrate their methods of work.

Types of work to be shown are: Paintings, oil, water, color; drawings, pencil, pen and ink, and charcoal; weaving, metal crafts, ceramics, figurines, dolls, and other items.

Mrs. Clifford Taylor and Mrs. Ida Nestell are co-chairmen of the activities committee of the Salem art association. Registration of exhibitors is to be made through these co-chairmen.

Each exhibitor is asked to furnish his own equipment for display purposes such as card tables and screens.

A table of art objects will be offered for sale by the association.

State Fair Reserved Seat Sale Will Open

Downtown Salem advance box office sale of reserved tickets for Oregon State fair events will open Wednesday in the state fair ticket wagon at State and Liberty streets. The sale will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily except Sunday, it is reported by Joe Simeral, ticket manager.

On sale will be tickets for three of the fair's major attractions—the Christensen Brothers rodeo, the Helen Hughes full-length stage revue and the horse racing. Both the revue and the rodeo will start at 8 o'clock all eight nights of the fair. In addition, rodeo matinees will start at 2:30 p.m. Sunday and Labor day. Racing will start at 1:15 p.m. every day except Sunday.

The fair opens Saturday, September 5, and continues through Saturday, September 12.

Sodaville Garage Damaged by Fire

Lebanon — A fire sweeping through the Tony Sedivy garage in Sodaville Thursday morning did approximately $1,000 damage. The Lebanon fire department arrived in time to prevent additional loss.

Fire Chief Vern Reeves said the building contained a car, a deep freeze, power mower, work shop, electrical motors, tools and paint. Damage to the car slight, the chief said, for it was driven from the building after being burned on one side. Building damage was placed at about $300, the remaining loss being equipment.

NEW RECORDER

Albany — William F. Bollman, 36, city manager at Sutherlin for the past year and a half, will be officially appointed new Albany city recorder Monday, replacing Edwin F. Fortmiller, City Manager C. R. Reiter revealed today. Fortmiller resigned June 6 because of illness. The new recorder held a similar post at Roseburg from 1948 to 1950 and was municipal judge at Springfield from 1950 to 1952.

New power developments at Niagara Falls will operate at night and in the off season to cut the flow over the falls to about one fourth of the normal volume, but will permit almost full flow when sightseers are likely to be present.

Everitt Resigns Turkey Position

William F. Everitt, for the past five years manager of the killing and eviscerating department of the Oregon Turkey Growers association of West Salem, has resigned from the position.

Well known throughout the coast for his affiliation with the turkey industry, Everitt said Friday that while his plans were fairly well developed, he was not yet in a position to make an announcement. "I will remain with the turkey industry, that much is definite," Everitt said. He added that he would retain his home in Salem.

Everitt will take a brief vacation and then will devote himself to his new enterprise.

The Oregon Turkey Growers association will hold their annual meeting at the West Salem city hall, Sept. 15.

Free Entertainment At Shopping Center

Free entertainment will be offered by the Capitol Shopping Center at 9 p.m., August 24 by the Wilder Brothers, a three man comedy team now playing at the Clover club in Portland. This event will be in conjunction with the school days promotion now in progress.

The Wilder brothers are all in their twenties and have already made an enviable reputation with unique comedy routines that include songs and saxophone artistry. Before going to Portland the trio appeared at the Mapes hotel in Reno and before that at the Flamingo hotel in Las Vegas. They have also been at the Palladium in London and have made many recordings.

The Capitol Shopping Center will also award a T-V set and numerous other prizes to winning holders of free tickets in the school days contest. Similar drawings with entertainment will be held Aug. 31, Sept. 14 and a grand drawing Sept. 19 of a Hillman Minx automobile.

The school days promotion started August 16 and will continue through Sept. 19.

Map Just Out Shows All City Bus Routes

Through the courtesy of Stevens & Son, the City Transit Lines has printed 10,000 copies of a map showing all bus routes in Salem, with departure times from 11 important points.

The map is the first of its kind ever put out here. Carl J. Wendt, general manager of the bus line, said today, and he believes it is extremely unusual for a city of any size.

Bus patrons will be able to get them on request and will find them helpful to keep for frequent reference, Wendt said.
