

Miss Howard Wed Recently

Miss Velma Lou Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Howard of St. Helens, and Charles N. Isaak, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Isaak of Salem, were married at the First Methodist church at 8 o'clock on July 25.

The Rev. George Trobough performed the service. The altar was decorated with pink and white gladioluses and blue and pink daisies. Miss Betty Waters, Grants Pass, and Miss Jeanne Wilson, Portland, lighted candles. Miss Margy Atwood of Salem sang, and was accompanied by Miss Connie Corra, of St. Helens.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin dress with a full length train, net yoke and full length sleeves with points at the wrists. The dress was trimmed with lace on the sleeves, bodice and down the front and sides of the skirt. The illusion net fingertip veil and shorter over-veil extended from a crown trimmed in a double row of seed pearls. The bride's bouquet was of white roses with a white orchid center.

Miss Alice Johnson of Welser, Idaho, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Nadine Mickelson of Eugene, Miss Edwina Douglas of Salem, a cousin of the bride, Miss Marilyn Isaak of Salem, cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Connie Becker of St. Helens and Mrs. Nathan Waldrin of St. Helens. Flower girl was Miss Pamela Howard, of Sacramento, Calif., niece of the bride.

Best man was Dick Isaak of Salem, cousin of the bridegroom. Ushers were Eugene Gallant of Pawtucket, R. I., Dick Rampant of Newberg, John Howard of Sacramento, Calif., brother of the bride, Art Johnson of Eugene, Don Ford of Virginia.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Elmer Johnson of St. Helens cut the cake, assisted by Miss Helen Park of Portland, cousin of the bridegroom. Miss Vivian Johnson of Portland, and Miss Helen Bennett of St. Helens served the punch. Miss Ilene Hoppins of Nampa, Idaho, had charge of the guest book and Miss Louise Knight of St. Helens and Miss Sue Anderton of Portland were in charge of the gift table. Barbara Isaak, and Nita Bentz of Salem passed the bridegroom's cake. Miss Arlene Klinger of St. Helens was in charge of the flowers.

For traveling, Mrs. Isaak wore a navy blue faille dress with French jacket, a light blue feather hat and a white orchid corsage. The couple left for a wedding trip to Vancouver, B. C., and are now at home in Salem. In September they will go east, where Mr. Isaak will continue his studies at Harvard law school.

Harvick-Gibbins

Keizer—On Tuesday, August 11, Miss Betty Gibbins and Joe Clyde Harvick, both temporarily residents of Stayton, were united in marriage in Faith Lutheran chapel by the pastor, Rev. George L. Holmquist. Floyd Davis and Mrs. Lois Jones were their attendants.

Miss McKenzie Is Wed at McMinnville

Sheridan—Miss Alvina Mae McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rod McKenzie, was wed to Larry C. Ritland of McMinnville, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Ritland of Lafayette, July 24 at the First Baptist church in McMinnville. The Rev. S. James Osborne read the double ring ceremony before 200 guests.

Clifford Elliott of McMinnville sang before the ceremony and Harold Elkington accompanied and played the wedding marches on the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of traditional white satin with a bodice of antique lace over satin and a lace paneled skirt. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl studded tulle coronet. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, miniature white Calla lilies and white satin leaves centered with a gold throated white orchid.

Mrs. Maxine McKenzie of Oswego, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Joan Zimmerman and Miss Delores Grzbowski of McMinnville.

Flower girls were Robin Wohlgemuth of Newberg, and Carol Shipley of Sheridan. Best man was W. L. Mekkers of McMinnville. Earl Plumeau and Don Jernstedt of McMinnville were ushers. Billy Vinton, McMinnville, was ring bearer.

A reception was in the fireplace rooms of the church after the ceremony. Mrs. Eugene Schulte of Portland, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake. Serving the punch was Mrs. A. F. Wohlgemuth of Newberg, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Eugene Hanson, McMinnville, poured. Miss Charlene Scott of Willamina passed the guest book, and Mrs. Marian Montoy of Arlington, Va., and Miss Elsie Jenne of McMinnville were in charge of gifts.

For their wedding trip to Canada, the bride wore a pale blue suit with beige accessories and an orchid corsage. They are now at home in McMinnville.
