

Solons Play 8 Games in 5 Days

Several Special Nights At Waters Park This Week

By CHRIS KOWITZ, JR.
The Salem Senators, rained out of their scheduled doubleheader with Edmonton last night, face eight games in five days at Waters park, beginning with a doubleheader tonight at 7 o'clock.

Ray McNulty, who won 19 games for Salem last season, and John Conant, who has won 22 games for Edmonton this year, will pitch for Edmonton in tonight's games.

They will be opposed by Gene Roenspie (16-3) and Dave Dahle (5-8).

Tonight is ladies' night at Waters park, with all ladies admitted to the grandstand for 60 cents.

The remainder of the home stand (the last home stand for Salem this season) sees a number of special nights.

Tomorrow will be radio appreciation night. By obtaining tickets from one of the sponsors of Salem Senator broadcasts, a fan may gain admission to the game for 50 cents. There will be no broadcast of the game tomorrow night.

Vancouver comes to town for a five-day series, beginning with a single game Friday. The most popular player award will be presented Friday. The player will be selected by a vote of the fans, who have been casting ballots all season.

A home freezer, courtesy of Smilin' Jack's Service Station and Dickson's Market, will be given away to some lucky fan attending Saturday night's game.

Sunday's doubleheader, slated for 2 p.m., will be the last regular-season appearance of the Senators this season. Sunday is Moose lodge day, and members of that lodge are now conducting a ticket-selling campaign.

over Yakima. Bill Franks gave up seven hits, including a double and a single that accounted for Yakima's only run in the fifth.

Don Bricker's three-run homer in the top of the 10th inning provided Calgary's winning margin in a 10-9 victory at Tri-City. The hometown Braves tied the game with a single run in the bottom of the eighth and the two teams added a pair of tallies apiece in the ninth. Tri-City chased in two runs in the lower half of the tenth and threatened to tie the game again but pinch-hitter Ernie Hockaday went down swinging with the equalizing run on second.

Victoria shut out Vancouver on both ends of a twin bill, winning the opener, which went eight innings, 2-0 and the nightcap, 6-0.

Lebanon Swim Team Defeats Albany Group
Lebanon — Lebanon swimmers and divers edged the Albany swim team here Sunday, taking the swimming events 98 to 92, and the diving division, 18 to 24. Lebanon paddlers captured first places in 14 of the 20 swim events, but the Albany people came up with enough second and third places to keep the point system even.

Albany was trailing by only one point when going into the final event, the boys' relay, which Lebanon captured. Swimming on the winning quartet were Vic Dixon, Darrell Bishop, Virgil Russell, and Ed Nelson.

In diving, Albany failed to enter contestants in the senior division which gave the Lebanon club a 12 to 0 lead. The visiting club picked up 14 points in the junior division to Lebanon's six.

A crowd of more than 300 spectators was on hand to see the events.

The Lebanon group are coached by George Van Pelt and Tom Van Etten.

Yakima Leads Sectional Play
Hastings, Neb. (AP)—The Yakima, Wash., American Legion junior baseball team is a single victory away from the Western sectional championship.

Yakima, the Washington State and Pacific Northwest regional titlist, posted the initial victory in the championship bracket of the double elimination tournament here Tuesday night, taking a 5-2 thriller from Richmond, Calif.

The teams meet again Wednesday night and a Yakima victory would clinch the sectional crown for the visitors from the Northwest apple country. If Richmond wins, the final showdown will be Thursday.

Tom Gibson allowed three hits and struck out 13 in Tuesday night's contest.

Kowitz' KRISS KROSS Korner

A proposed post-season series between the state champion Salem American Legion junior baseball team and the semipro Bend Loggers has been called off. The reason: Too many Legion players out for football. . . . Paul Beck, Mike Campbell and Tom Pickens at Salem high and Howard Speer and Jerry Waldrop at Cascade.

Only one of the 15 members of the state champion Legion team will be eligible for competition next season. He is Curt Jantze, catcher. The other 14 will be too old for Legion play next season, though they all will be playing high school ball next year.

Lee Cameron, Dale Wattenbarger and Glen Hart, Jefferson high school football players who were to have played in the East-West class B Shrine all-star game at Pendleton Saturday, did not report for practice with the West team. Wedding bells are to blame. Cameron and Wattenbarger were recently married, while Hart expects to take the big step soon. Three alternates, from other schools, replace the Jefferson trio on the West lineup. So Fred Graham, coach of the Jefferson Lions last season (he's moved to Stayton high school now) won't have any of his own players on the West team. Graham is one of the West coaches.

Kross-Kuts through the state: Gene Fox, who pitched for Albany's junior Legion team during the state tournament in Salem, joined the Albany Athletics, a semipro team, after the Legion season. Fox was beaten by the Roseburg Chiefs, 7-3, in a game at Roseburg Sunday. . . . another Albany semipro team, the Alcos, closed out their season with a trip to Reno, Nev., where they lost two games to the Reno-Sparks Pioneers, 10-3 and 3-1. . . . Herb Snider and Neil Honka were injured in a spectacular six-car smashup in hard top races at McMinnville Saturday night. . . . The race was halted for a full hour because of the accident. . . . on the same night, there was a four-car crack-up at the Ashland track. . . . Eugene and Salem tracks also ran races that night, which means that auto racing was being conducted on four Oregon tracks on a single night.

More prizes for the Salem Senators to shoot at. . . . Joe Josephson, proprietor of the J and J Clothes Shop, is offering a $50 suit of clothes to the Senator player who hits the most home runs between now and the end of the second half. . . . a $35 sport coat to the player with the most runs batted in during the remainder of regular season play. . . . and an $18.50 pair of slacks to the Senator with the most hits in that time.

Gavilan 13-5 Favorite Over Tiger Jones
New York (AP)—Welterweight champion Kid Gavilan was favored 13-5 to beat middleweight Ralph (Tiger) Jones tonight and thereby earn consideration as challenger for the middleweight crown.

Gracie Wins Match
Barrington, R. I. (AP)—Mrs. Howard Smith, formerly Gracie DeMoas, defeated Mrs. J. J. Mason, Ridgewood, N. J., 4 and 2 in the Women's amateur golf tournament here yesterday. Edean Anderson of Helena, Mont., lost to Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Tex., 6 and 4.

Four Teams Still Remain in State Softball Tourney

Mill City (Special)—Rain forced postponement of last night's Oregon state softball tournament schedule at Allen field here, and the tourney slate has been set back one day.

Games which were to have been played last night will be played tonight. The Eugene Rubenstein Furniture team plays Corvallis Nored Builders at 7 o'clock, with the winner of the game facing Grants Pass in tonight's second game.

Bob Willis, with a 1-1 tournament record, will likely pitch for Eugene in the first game, with Hal Wehmeier (0-1) chucking for Grants Pass.

Corvallis goes into tonight's game with a .256 team batting average in three state tournament games. Third-baseman Allen Anderson is the leading tournament hitter on the team, with three hits in nine times.

The Rubes carry a .209 tournament swat mark into tonight's action. Bill Hutchison, second baseman, tops Eugene tournament batters with three for six.

Vern Collins, Grants Pass ironman who has now had two days rest, thanks to the rain, will pitch in the second game tonight. He has a 2-1 tournament record, and has been practically a member of the infield, with 13 assists from his pitching position. Manager Sim Chapman leads Grants Pass' tournament hitting column with a .500 average.

The survivor of tonight's action plays Kelly Lumber of Mill City in the state finals tomorrow night. If Mill City wins the first game tomorrow, the Kelly crew will have won the state championship and the right to enter regional play at Pendleton early next month. If Mill City loses the first game tomorrow, a second game, to follow immediately, will be necessary to decide a winner in the double-elimination state tournament.

Attendance at tournament games has been up to expectations, in spite of the weather, and with Mill City in the finals, a full house is expected tomorrow night.

End of the Line Snagging a pass good for 12-yards and a first down, Cleveland Brown's Horace Gillem is brought down by 48er Don Zimmerman during second quarter of game in San Francisco. Cleveland won, 20-7. (UP Telephoto)

Six Teams Qualified for World Tourney

Portland (AP)—Entries in the National Softball Congress Girls' world tournament which opens here September 4 rose to six today.

Tournament Director Ray Brooks said he has received word that an all-colored girls' all-star squad from Cincinnati will be here for title action. He said also he expects an entry from Wisconsin as soon as the state champion is determined.

Brooks said a 12-team bracket is certain with a possibility of 16 teams.

Already entered are Evy Lind's Florists of Portland, the Phoenix Queens of Arizona and the Crowhurst Motors and the Vancouver All-Stars from British Columbia.

Yesterday's Stars
(By The Associated Press)
HAYING—Gus Kernal, Philadelphia Athletics, hit two home runs and drove in three runs as Philadelphia best Chicago 4-2.
FITTING—Ruben Gomez, New York Giants, gave up only four singles in winning his 15th game and third shutout, 3-0, over St. Louis.
