Detroit—Former Detroit residents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Henderson, have been visiting friends in the Detroit-Idanha area. The Hendersons now live near San Francisco, Calif.

Recent guests of the Gordon Browns were Estelene Holburn and sons, Johnny Lee and Butch, of Lowell.

Rodney Moore, who sustained a back injury last week in a logging accident, is in the Langkamp hospital at Sweet Home for several days of treatment. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Moore, of Detroit.

There are nine players on a baseball team. And so efforts to organize a team from the Detroit-Idanha area have been abandoned. Average attendance at the practices, held two nights a week at the Detroit school baseball field, was six.

The Bradford Humphrey family has returned to Detroit following a week's vacation spent at Newport, where they were guests at the home of Mr. Humphrey's mother, Mrs. H. T. Humphrey.

Mrs. Lela Christenson of McMinnville was a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ray Johnson, on Wednesday night of last week. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Christenson spent a day visiting Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Jennie Thompson at Boyce Home in Salem.

Mrs. Marion Kite has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Keubler, of Canby, followed by a short stay at the Portland home of her brother, Mr. C. L. Hubbard.

Sunday dinner guests of the Frances Kettlesons were Mrs. Kettleson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beard of Salem, and her brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beard, John, Raymond, Cynthia, Emily, and Spencer Beard.

Mrs. Kettleson and her two children, Patty and Michael, spent a few days visiting the Floyd Beards last week.

A beach vacation at Nesko-win, to begin this week end, is on the Kettleson family's summer schedule, also.

Mrs. Alfred Cokenour and children, William, Robert, and Dorothy, of Idanha, plan to move soon to their home at Nesco-win, on the coast, where they will live this winter. The children will attend school at Taft, Ore. Mr. Cokenour, who will maintain the Idanha residence, will continue with his work at the Idanha Lumber Company.

Construction will begin this fall on a small log lumber mill to be built by the Termite Lumber Company on the site of the old Idanha Shingle Mill, which was destroyed by fire in the late spring. Principles of the company are Bernard Zuber and Bob Stuckart, of Sublimity, and Jim Healy, of Bend.

BIG CAT
Falls City, Neb. (U.P.)—When Dick King couldn't land a big fish he hooked, he jumped into the Nemaha river and "rode" it to shore. The fish, a yellow catfish, weighed 35 1/2 pounds.
