Miss Guggisberg Is Married on Sunday

Lebanon—Baskets of white gladioluses and lighted candles were at the altar of the First Christian church for the August 23 wedding of Miss Evelyn Elaine Guggisberg and Gene Arthur Beck. The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Guggisberg and Mr. and Mrs. Art Beck, all of Lebanon.

The Rev. Arlo Bristow, pastor of the church, performed the 3 p.m. nuptials. Mrs. Lawrence Page played the wedding marches and accompanied Harold Reeves, soloist.

Miss Guggisberg was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin and lace dress with shoulder veil and carried white rosebuds and stephanotis.

Bridal attendants were Miss Janice Addison of Eureka, Calif., and Miss Joan Davis. The former wore a gown of pink lace and net. Miss Davis was similarly dressed in blue. Both carried sweet pea nosegays.

Misses Janette and Willette Weller, twin sisters, were candlelighters.

Best man was Bob Hinman, and ushers were Bob Guggisberg, Bob Christenson and Dick Brannon.

The reception was in the fellowship room of the church.

When they left for their wedding trip to Carmel, Calif., the bride wore a yellow linen suit with brown accessories.
