

'Hall of Fame' Games Slated Across Country

New Brunswick, N.Y. (AP)—A nationwide series of "Hall of Fame award games" will be held this fall to honor intercollegiate football greats elected to the national football Hall of Fame. It was announced Thursday.

A preliminary schedule of 16 award games was listed by George Little, executive secretary of the Hall of Fame here on the Rutgers University campus.

At each award game, Little said, a plaque duplicating one hung in the Hall of Fame will be presented to electees or their kin by a member of the honors court, which has elevated 32 players and 22 coaches to the hall.

The 16 games involve 26 college teams. Additional games are under discussion for the 1953 season.

The award games are part of a nationwide effort to raise funds to erect a building for the grid shrine established here in 1949. Rutgers was the site of America's first intercollegiate football game, played against Princeton, in 1869.

Each home team for an award game has agreed to make a financial grant to the football Hall of Fame.

The schedule of games and the men to be honored were announced as follows:

Sept. 16: Oregon at Nebraska (Ed Weir); Kansas at Texas Christian (Sammy Baugh).

Sept. 18: Vanderbilt at Pennsylvania (Cotton Hare and Bill Hollenback).

Oct. 2: Mississippi at Auburn (Coach Mike Donohue); Holy Cross at Colgate (Coach Andy Kerr); Southern Methodist at Georgia Tech (Coach Bill Alexander); Alabama at Vanderbilt (Coach Dan McCarroll); Pittsburgh at Notre Dame (Coach Knute Rockne, George Gipp and Elmer Leden).

Oct. 24: Mississippi State at Alabama (Coach Frank Thomas and Don Hutson); Ohio at Washington and Jefferson (Willbur F. Henry).

Oct. 31: Colgate at Rutgers (Homer Hazel).

Nov. 1: Michigan State at Ohio State (Chick Harter).

Gavilan Scores Victory Over Tiger Jones

New York (AP)—Welterweight champion Kid Gavilan was so delighted with his victory over middleweight contender Ralph (Tiger) Jones that he declared positively today, "I will win the middleweight championship!"

The speedy Cuban "Keed," who won a unanimous 10-round decision over Jones of Yonkers, N. Y., last night, said he would challenge the winner of the middleweight title fight between Bobo Olso and Randy Turpin on Oct. 21.

"All I want to know is who is middleweight champion; then I will beat him," he explained with a happy grin.

Gavilan had reason to be happy. He won impressively last night over dangerous Jones in a thrilling television fight before 5063 at Madison Square Garden. It was the same Jones who had given a thorough licking to Johnny Bratton, top welterweight contender, last Dec. 5. Jones was unbeaten in seven previous fights.

Gavilan scaled 154 pounds the heaviest of his career. Jones registered 152.

Their fight was a thriller, and it appeared that either might win until the eighth round, when Gavilan took command.

Jones kept the crowd on its feet in the early rounds as he threatened to beat the champion.

The game Cuban "Keed" tried to out-slug Jones in the early rounds, and their fighting was terrific. But in the fourth session, Gavilan began to call upon his ring savvy, gained in 111 professional fights.

There were no knockdowns, and no bloodshed.

Rams Should Be In Mid-Season Form Sept. 7

Portland—The Los Angeles Rams, off to a rousing start with a 20 to 7 victory over the Washington Redskins, will be near mid-season form when they meet the Chicago Cardinals at Mullinohm Stadium Monday night (Labor Day), September 7.

It was primarily the efforts of two former University of Oregon stars which gave the Rams their win in the annual Times Charities game, which attracted a crowd of 83,000.

Norm Van Brocklin, recently featured in a story in Collier's, set up a Ram touchdown with his passing and Woodley Lewis came through with one of his patented and spectacular punt returns, going 73 yards to score.

The Rams meet the Cleveland Browns in Los Angeles Friday night and the San Francisco Forty-Niners next week before heading for Portland and their rematch with the Cardinals.

Chicago heads for the Northwest this week, meeting the Green Bay Packers at Spokane Saturday night. Then the Cards will come to Portland for a week of practice prior to the clash with the Rams.

Tickets are now on sale here at J. K. Gill's and by mail through Oregon Sports Attractions in the Dekum Building. They're moving fast and a crowd in the vicinity of 30,000 is forecast.

Eight Veterans On North Marion Football Roster

North Marion High School, Hubbard — Eight lettermen and 23 other boys turned out for football at North Marion Monday afternoon with more expected later.

The lettermen include Geo. Sanders, Louis Richter, Harold Erland, Keith Driver, Merle McLaren, Jim Alberts, Merlin Kliever and James Petrovich (a transfer from Canby).

The others reporting for the beginning of workouts were Melvin Schmidt, Larry Cole, Kenny Spence, Kenny Rose, John Sanders, Ralph Merrill, Eldred Trout, Wendell McLin, Wayne Lowrie, Gordon Alnsworth, Robert Hill, Jack Berkey, Dale Callaway, John Friend, Roy Hill, Robert Rapp, Don Hooley, Lyle Kliever, Clifford Chulos, Roger Moore, Kenneth Richter, Doug Anderson and Ross Lemen. Argil Shrock reported for manager.

With the first game scheduled for September 11 the Huskies have two weeks to get ready for play. According to Coach Walter Aldridge, the first week will be spent in conditioning and calisthenics followed with preparation for the game. Don Reed is assistant coach.

Gracie DeMoss Smith Drops Out Of Tournament

Providence, R.I. (AP)—Patricia Lesser of Seattle eliminated Mrs. Grace DeMoss Smith of Corvallis, Ore., Thursday to become a quarter finalist in the U. S. Women's Amateur golf tournament.

Miss Lesser, a teen-ager who plays on the Seattle University men's golf team, beat Mrs. Smith 4 and 3. The Corvallis woman is a former Curtis Cup player.

Another member of the 1952 Curtis Cup team went out when Mrs. John Hulteng of Warwick, R.I., the former Betty Jean Rucker of Spokane, Wash., trounced Mrs. Marjorie Lindsay McMillen of Decatur, Ill., 4 and 3.

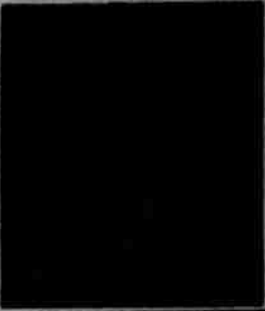

In the quarter finals, Mrs. Hulteng will oppose Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., who won the easiest victory of the fifth round. Miss Faulk breezed to a 6 and 5 victory over youthful Virginia Denney of Lake Forest, Ill.

Carol Dinger of Tiffin, O., turned back Grace Lenczyk of Newington, Conn., the 1948 champion, 3 and 2.

Polly Riley of Fort Worth, and Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, a pair of old rivals, also became quarter finalists.

Miss Riley had a 3 and 1 victory over Pat O'Sullivan of Orange, Conn., and Miss Kirby, the 1951 women's champion, turned back Ellen Gery of Barrington, R.I., 3 and 2.

White Sox Ask For Waivers On Joe Dobson

Chicago (AP)—The Chicago White Sox today asked waivers for 36-year-old pitcher Joe Dobson in order to make room on the squad for infielder Connie Ryan, who was purchased from the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Sox said they were asking waivers on Dobson, who has a record of five wins and five losses this season, for the purpose of giving him an unconditional release.

Ryan has been batting .296 for the Phillies, but had been seldom used since rookie Ted Kazanski was called up from the minors several weeks ago.

Bond Issue for Portland Sports Center Proposed

Portland (AP)—A special election on an eight million dollar bond issue to finance a Portland sports and exposition center was asked here Wednesday by a 16-member advisory group appointed by the mayor.

Portland (AP)—A special election on an eight million dollar bond issue to finance a Portland sports and exposition center was asked here Wednesday by a 16-member advisory group appointed by the mayor.

And at an evening meeting, some 300 civic leaders voted enlargement of the plan.

The committee said the project should be financed by revenue from its operations, contributions, and the bond issue which would be retired with a one mill tax levy for 20 years.

No location was suggested by the group. But plans have been drafted by architects for a center at the site of Vanport, which was swept by floodwaters five years ago.

The committee asked that the special election be held this year.

Two Coaches Ask for Change in PCC Ruling

Spokane (AP)—Two Northern Division football coaches called Tuesday for revision of new Pacific Coast Conference gridiron practice regulations scheduled to become effective in 1956.

If the proposed limitations are not relaxed, Al Kircher of Washington State College told the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, the PCC will become a minor league.

Idaho Coach Babe Curfman, who also attended the luncheon, said he agreed with Kircher.

New PCC practice rules will eliminate spring training after 1956, limit fall practice to 18 days after the 1953 season, and allow freshmen only two competitive games a year.

Kircher said the rules will keep coaches from doing their job.

"You can't play Texas Christian or Iowa on a hoped-for even basis if the period for developing players is cut to the bone—or worse," he said.

Yakima Gains Berth in Little World Series

Hastings, Neb. (AP)—Yakima, Wash., defeated Richmond, Calif., 5-4 Wednesday night and gained a berth in the American Legion Little World Series.

Yakima, the Washington State and Pacific Northwest regional champion, and three other winners in sectional tournaments will fight it out for the national championship at Miami, Fla., Sept. 1-5.

Yakima scored three times in the sixth inning to pull days after the Richmond, then nipped an eighth inning rally after the Californians had loaded the bases.

Joe Hollingsworth, the third of five pitchers used by Yakima, took credit for the win.

Yakima 620 003 000-5 T O
Richmond 381 000 000-4 S S

Oregon National Guard Rifle Team Departs

Portland, (AP)—Five top riflemen of the Oregon National Guard leave by plane today to compete in the National Rifle association matches at Camp Perry, O.

Adjutant Gen. Thomas E. Rilea said the Oregon team will be led by Cpl. Glen L. Brown Corvallis, who paced the field in competition last week-end at Camp Withycombe in Clackamas.

Other team members include Warrant Officer Gene L. Sundin, Forest Grove; M-Sgt. Theodore E. Cosby, Portland; Cpl. Robert E. Knotts, Milton-Freewater; and team Captain Lt. William Benton, Portland.

Writers Name Jackie Tobin

San Francisco (AP)—Seattle outfielder Jackie Tobin is the choice of the San Francisco-Oakland chapter of the Pacific Baseball Writers association for the Pacific Coast League's most valuable player award for 1953.

The writers Wednesday named Tommy Heath of the San Francisco Seals for the most valuable manager award, and Oakland first baseman Jim Marshall as PCL rookie of the year.

The outstanding individual performance, the writers said, was by Ted Beard of Hollywood. Beard hit four successive home runs and connected on 12 consecutive base hits.
