San Diego Sweeps Pair From Bevos; Hollies Lose, 5-2

Portland U.B. — San Diego swept a doubleheader from Portland last night, 6-1 and 7-4; as Tom Alston hit a two-run homer in the 10th inning of the nightcap before 1524 PCL fans.

Alston's homer broke a ninth inning tie brought on by a home run off the bat of Eddie Basinski. Dick Faber followed up the Alston clout with a double and raced home on Walt crief, the last to toil for the Seals, got his ninth victory.

Portland's Bob Marquis hit homer in the sixth.

Bob Kerrigan was credited with the win and Jehosie Heard

Pocekay also hit a home run. In the opener, San Diego hitting steadily, came out shead easily.

The Padres opened up with a pair of runs in the first and duplicated their tally in the second. Dick Waibel, who subbed for Red Adams in the sec-ond, had little more luck than als predecessor as the Padres scored two more in the fifth. Aaron Robinson reached first

San Francisco (U.D.—Heroest came by the bushel and the pack in the Pacific C oast League today and the fans loved them all.

In Sacramento, bespectacled Bob Dillinger became the first player in the league to get 200 hits this season as he sparked his oft-vetoed Senators to a 5-4 thriller over Seattle. The Glendale express went three for five against the Suds for a season total of 201 bingles.

with a six hitter, 5-2.

San Francisco beat Oakland 8-6, thanks to ancient Bob Muncrief who turned off an Acorn batting assault in the sixth inning and pitched hitless ball for the rest of the game after giving up a single. George Vico banged five hits in five trips as he also made like a hero for the Seals.

As a result of the night's activity, Hollywood retained its 9½ game lead over the Suds. San Francisco, with a mighty assist from the Padres, bounced back into fourth place ahead of the Beavers by a game and a half. And the Sacs left the Oaks behind in the cellar a full game.

Dillinger was on third base in the ninth inning when Eddie Bockman hoisted a fly to deep right to bring him in with the winning Sacramento run.

Hatten recorded his 13th win while Red Munger, who started against him for the Thespians, lost his 10th. A two run double by Les Peden highlighted a Los Angeles explosion in the second that was good for four markers.

Bob Kerrigan rode to his 14th victory on Alston's blast against Portland although the Padres scored one more run just to make the triumph sure.

Bill Thomason cruised to win number nine in the first game as Red Adams was routed in the second inning for his ninth loss.
