Mr., Mrs. Groth Anniversary Feted

Dayton — Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Carl Groth of Dayton were entertained on their golden wedding anniversary with a family dinner at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Holmeyer of Dundee, on Sunday, August 23.

Miss Inez Broadwell and Frederick Carl Groth were married August 23, 1903. To them were born 10 children. They have 14 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Present for the family dinner were the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Groth, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford F. Orey and children, Alice and Frank, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Groth of Newberg; Mrs. Vernie Bell and son, Dennis, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Groth, Susan and Larry of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Prater, Kathy, Dick and Linda of Dallas; John Groth of Dayton; and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Holmeyer and daughters, Joan and Florence of Dundee. Children unable to attend the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Groth and Jacqueline of San Diego, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Noel Scott, John and Carl of Tucson, Arizona.

The table decorations included a centerpiece of yellow roses. A three-tier golden wedding cake, with golden bell placecards and golden table favors, completed the color scheme.

Mrs. Groth was presented with a corsage of yellow roses and her husband was given a yellow rose boutonniere.

Club Nets $654 From Style Show

A sum of $654 was cleared on the recent style show sponsored by Salem club of Zonta International, it was reported at the meeting of the group last evening. The style show was given last Friday evening at American Legion club, Esther Foster's shop presenting the fashions.

The show was staged as a benefit for the YWCA building fund, the Zontians making the YWCA their service project this year.

Near the end of last year's activities the club donated $500 to the YWCA, and the returns from the style show and another project later this year will complete the goal of $1500 for the YW.

The Thursday meeting was the annual gathering for the dinner for which Miss Mabel Savage is hostess to the group in the gardens at her home. Forty-one attended the dinner. Miss Betty Tsai, graduate student in this country from China, was a guest. Miss Tsai will continue her work at Oregon State college this fall following a year's illness.

Following the dinner, reports on the style show were given by Miss Echo Yeater, general chairman for the event, and Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson, president.

Because of State Fair, the next meeting, September 10, will be a luncheon, the evening meeting to be on the fourth Thursday.

Miss Tartar Retires After 36 Years in Music Here; Going to Corvallis

By MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

Many Salem friends opening their mail this morning read one announcement with regret and a bit of sadness, a card from Miss Lena Belle Tartar stating she is retiring from her Salem studio permanently, and will be moving to Corvallis to make her home as soon as her property here is disposed of. Corvallis is her "old home town."

Miss Tartar has been active in her profession for 36 years in Salem. Many friends here will be wishing her well in her retirement, although they are regretting she leaves Salem.

Following her graduation from Oregon State college, she went to the American Conservatory in Chicago for her graduate work. Completing her work there she came to Salem.

For 31 years she was on the faculty of Salem high school, heading the voice work and directing all the choral organizations.

"It has been a wonderful 36 years in Salem, a life filled with interesting experiences in my work because of the fine people here," Miss Tartar said in looking back on her years in Salem.

Many who were students of Miss Tartar have gone on to national fame in the musical world.

For many years, Miss Tartar also directed church choirs in Salem, having served at

This is the measure of richness in richer Lucerne Milk

19% cream* in every drop That means every single quart is always richer than our State law requires

And yet you pay no more for this extra richness!

You pay exactly the same price for Lucerne as for milks that aren't as rich. So why not get richer Lucerne? It costs no more than the less-rich milks in town.

Remember, too, that every quart of richer Lucerne also has 400 added units of vitamin D for extra health protection.

To buy better, buy richer...
