

Fair at Champoeg Success

Daughters of American Revolution second annual country fair at Champoeg park was last Saturday, August 22, with all chapters in Oregon represented.

All proceeds go to the expenses of the new caretaker's cabin which has been built in the past year. The new building is close to the DAR pioneer Cabin built by the organization 20 years ago. The new building was designed by Petro Belusch.

At the fair were tables containing all kinds of ware for sale, including knickknacks, foods, etc. set up about the lawn at the cabin. The program of dedication of the building was at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. Allen C. McLean, state regent, was in charge. The Rev. Mr. Stoeker, of Newberg led the invocation. Mrs. McLean reviewed the national and state projects of the organization.

Guests introduced were Rufus Holman, former U. S. Senator, Burt Brown Barker, president of Oregon Sons of the Revolution, Alden Miller, president of the McLoughlin association, and Joseph Stern, president of Sons and Daughters of Pioneers. Relatives of former governors introduced included Mrs. Walter Pierce, Mrs. Earl Snell, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. Lee Patterson. Mrs. Paul L. Patterson represented her husband, the governor, in extending greetings to the group.

After introductions of guests, the speaker of the day C. H. Armstrong, of the State Highway commission gave a renewal of early Oregon history and especially on the significance of Champoeg. He also mentioned how the state highway department had co-operated with the DAR in the building of the state park at Champoeg. Mrs. John Y. Richardson, chairman of the building committee announced many memorial gifts for the new building.

During the program Miss Jeannette Dentler, vice president general of the national organization, sang songs accompanied on the accordion by Mrs. Ivan Hadley, of Albany. Don Smith of Hubbard gave several interpretive Indian dances. Maypole dance was given by children of American Revolution. Two Salem girls in the dance were Joanne and Charlene Taggart, daughters of the Edward Taggart.

Members of the Chemeketa chapter appearing in costume were Mrs. E. T. Hanson, Mrs. Herbert J. Ostlund, Mrs. M. A. Pekar, Miss Ruth Rulison.

Miss Wakeman Bride Recently

Amity — The First Baptist church of McMinnville was the setting for a wedding Sunday afternoon, August 23, at 5 o'clock, when Miss Alice Virginia Wakeman, daughter of Mrs. Andrew Wakeman, McMinnville, was wed to Clarence E. Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bishop of Forest Grove.

Dr. Gordon Frazie, assistant professor of religion at Linfield Baptist college, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Harold Pickett of Amity sang, and organist was Mrs. Amy L. Arney, associate professor of music, Linfield college. The altar was banked with candelabras and baskets of white gladioluses. Large floor baskets contained pink and white gladioluses. The pews down the aisle were marked with small sprays of pink gladioluses and white satin bows.

Robert R. Ward, of Texarkana, Arkansas, gave his cousin in marriage. The bride wore a floor length embroidered organdy dress over white satin. Her fingertip nylon net veil was held in place by a crown of plastic orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis, white roses and net centered with a gardenia corsage.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Wendell Martin of McCoy, sister of the bride. She wore a floor length yellow organdy frock and a satin crown to match. She carried a bouquet of deep rose pink gladioluses. Miss Lydia Wakeman of Mc-

Bride Last Sunday — Mrs. Merrill Hayden Newman (Elizabeth Ann Waddell), above, was married last Sunday afternoon in Lebanon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Douglas Waddell of Lebanon and Mr. Newman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Newman of Portland. (Dalton's studio, Lebanon)

Minnville, sister of the bride, Miss Elaine Roddy, Kelo, Wash., and Miss Ethelmae Walter, McMinnville, were bridesmaids. Their floor length dresses were made the same as that of the honor attendant's, in pastel blue, pink and orchid organdy. They each wore crowns of satin to match their dresses, and carried bouquets of yellow gladioluses.

James Moberg of Astoria was best man, and ushers were Fred Leslie, Swenson, Ore., Dave Sanford, Portland, Wendell T. Martin of McCoy, brother-in-law of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wakeman chose a floor length rose crepe and lace dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a light green formal. Both mothers wore floral headresses.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple greeted the guests in the fireplace room. The reception table was arranged with a lace cloth, centered with the three tier wedding cake and white candles.

Mrs. John King of Eugene, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Leon Beal cut the cake. Miss Sarah Watts of Portland presided at the punch bowl. Assisting were Mrs. Harold Lehman, Amity, and Miss Evelyn Roddy of Kelo, Wash. Mrs. Frank Grundhauser was in charge of the reception. Mrs. Lee King and Mrs. Leon Beal were in charge of the

Miss Roland Wed Recently

Albany — At a quiet home wedding with 30 close friends and relatives in attendance, Miss Agnes Arietta Roland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roland of Albany, was married to Lester Neil Burkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burkey of Shedd. The ceremony was Sunday afternoon, August 16, at the bride's home.

The Rev. Paul Yoder read the vows for the 2:30 o'clock ceremony. The concluding prayer was offered by Rev. M. E. Roland, brother of the bride.

The vows were exchanged before the fireplace in the Roland home, the bride coming down the stairway to meet the bridegroom before a floral background of pink and white gladioluses flanked by candelabras with tall white tapers.

The bride wore a blue crepe dress with three-quarter length sleeves. Her accessories were white and she carried a white Bible and white orchid.

Miss Nancy Roland, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Her dress was blue and gray with blue accessories. Alfred Burkey was the best man. Record music was played during the ceremony.

The mother of the bride wore a blue dress with a white gladiolus corsage and white accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore green with brown accessories and a white corsage.

After the exchange of vows the bride cut the three-tier wedding cake, which was served by Mrs. Willard Burkey, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Mrs. Wesley McNeill, sister of the bride, poured.

During the reception background music was played.

For going away the bride wore her wedding dress with a large white orchid corsage. The newlyweds left for a short trip to the Oregon beaches. They will be at home in Portland where Mr. Burkey is employed.

Hospital Fixes Visiting Hours

Stayton—Since the average number of patients at Santiam Memorial hospital has increased greatly since its April opening, the board of directors agreed on a visiting hour schedule at its August meeting.

Heretofore, visitors have been allowed to visit at any time. Mrs. Louise Will, hospital superintendent, stated that persons who were unable to attend the opening were also allowed to view the hospital. However, with an average of 20 patients per day in August it became necessary to arrange a schedule of visiting hours to become effective Sept. 1. Hours will be from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the afternoon and from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the evening.

During July, the hospital reported a profit of $677.67, the first profit since opening, but unexpected before November. Twenty-eight full-time employees, three part-time employees and a dietician one day a week keep the hospital in operation.

Upon recommendation of the medical staff, Dr. Raymond Bungard, Dr. Stanley Bungard, Dr. E. F. Fortner, and Dr. Lucille Fortner were accepted for practice at the hospital.

Belgium reports 92,724 traffic accidents in 1952.

More Doctors for S. Santiam Canyon

Lebanon — The state's medical profession has been increased by 96 physicians and surgeons, including two at Lebanon, two in Sweet Home, and one at Stayton, according to listed new licenses released by the state board of medical examiners. Of the total, 50 were based upon reciprocity and 46 upon written examination.

W. H. Lohr, Lebanon, received a license based on reciprocity, and John A. Rennebohm, who will also practice in Lebanon, successfully wrote the state board examination.

Volunteers Called In Search for Day

Portland (AP) — A call went out Friday for more volunteers to search for a 60-year-old man missing five days on the slopes of Mt. Hood.

Parties beat through the rugged country southwest of Government Camp until a late hour Thursday night but failed to find a trace of Ralph Day, Portland business man.
