Rawlinson-Moore Rites Saturday in Portland

A wedding of interest to many Salem friends took place Saturday evening in Portland when Miss Marian Lorraine Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton D. Moore of Portland, was married to Richard A. Rawlinson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Rawlinson of Salem.

The service was solemnized at 8 o'clock in the Calvary Presbyterian church, the Rev. Byron W. Travis officiating. White gladioluses and candles decorated the church.

Malcolm Campbell was soloist, Miss Delores Heacock, the organist.

Mr. Moore gave his daughter in marriage. She was attractive in a dress of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, made floor length with a slight train. The fingertip veil of tulle was arranged from a cap of lace and satin. For her flowers, the bride carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis with a white orchid in the center.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. John Williams of Portland as matron of honor, Miss Lois Powell of Eugene, Miss Beverly Kreick of Portland, Miss Sue Rawlinson, sister of the bridegroom, all as bridesmaids.

The four wore frocks alike, Wedgewood blue tulle over satin, worn with jackets and matching headresses.

The bouquets for the attendants were gladioluses in coral colors.

Marriage Solemnized Here Sunday

A pretty wedding of Sunday afternoon at the First Congregational church was that of Miss Marilyn Annette Quamme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Quamme, and D. Douglas McLeod, son of Mrs. Helen B. McLeod.

The Rev. Dudley Strain performed the service at 3 o'clock. Yellow gladioluses and yellow tapers decorated the church. Miss Janice Gladden of White Salmon sang and Jean Hobson Rich played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white ankle length dress of embroidered nylon over satin, designed with cap sleeves. The fingertip veil extended from a Juliet cap trimmed with four rows of seed pearls. The bride wore white mitts, and carried a bouquet of stephanotis and shower of ribbons centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert D. Singleton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a light toast colored, ankle length dress of net over taffeta.

Miss Carol McLeod, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and wore a dress similar to the honor attendant's but in a darker shade of toast. They both carried cascade bouquets of russet color gladioluses.

Kenneth Annala of Hood River was best man, and ushers were Dean Quamme, James Jaqua, and Donald Bish.

Mrs. Quamme attended her daughter's wedding in a dress of navy blue net over pink, with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of rubrum lilies.

Following the wedding was a reception in the church parlors. The bride's table was decorated with bouquets of white flowers on top of the wedding cake, and in cornucopias at either end of the table. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Carl Quistad and Mrs. Frank Meck. Pouring were Mrs. Arvi Annala and Mrs. Roy Van Ottingham, and assisting were Mrs. Warren Mulkey were Morris Hunsaker, Miss Mary Polales and Miss Sophia Polales.

When the couple left for a trip to the southern Oregon beaches, the bride wore a green dress trimmed in white and brown with brown accessories and white jacket, and the orchid from her bouquet. The couple will be at home in Salem.

Wed Recently—Mr. and Mrs. George Schlegel (Louise Feller) above, were married August 22. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Feller of Turner and Mr. Schlegel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Schlegel of Albany. (McEwan studio picture)

Another happy duo, Saturday, were Mrs. Claude A. Miller and Mrs. C. Kenneth Bell, who were hostesses for a large coffee party at the Shoreline Drive home of Mrs. Miller, Saturday, guests calling between 11 and 2 o'clock . . . The two "rated" as fortunate hostesses, several others having coffees during the week struggling with showers and cool temperatures

Miss Kuhlman Is Bride August 23

Mill City — The Mill City Presbyterian church was the setting Sunday afternoon, August 23, for the wedding of Miss Donna Arlene Kuhlman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kuhlman, and Marine Cpl. Marvin Bibler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bibler of Salem. The Rev. Noble Streeter officiated at the double ring ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of white gladioluses and blue asters arranged with fern. Mrs. Don Sheyts played the wedding music, and Raymond Thompson, aunt of the bride, sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length dress of Chantilly lace over nylon net and satin. Her fingertip veil was imported lace, falling from a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried a white lace covered Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Lela Mel Kelly was maid of honor. She wore a waltz length dress of pink lace, with a white carnation headband, and carried a small basket of white asters. Misses Almena Daly and Delores Poole were bridesmaids, wearing identical waltz length frocks of blue lace and nylon. They also wore headbands of white carnations and carried baskets of white asters.

Mary Susanne Heller was the flower girl, wearing a yellow ankle length dress of nylon and a white carnation headband. She carried a basket of yellow rose petals. Patrick LeRoy Thompson, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Vernon Bibler, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John Gabrielsen and Robert Nave, both of Scio. Candelighters were the bride's two brothers, Ronnie and Charles, and a cousin, John Thompson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kuhlman chose a suit of off-white faille, with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a black and white taffeta dress, with gray accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was at the home of the bride's grandfather, W. R. Greene, Mill City. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. W. W. Heller, aunt of the bride. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Ruth Witt, assisted by Mrs. Don Flatman. Mrs. Raymond Thompson served the bridal cake; Donna Cooke presided at the gift table and Vera Loucks passed the guest book.

When the young couple left for their trip, the bride wore a beige suit with cinnamon accessories and white orchid. They will be at home after August 29 at 108 N. Parton, Santa Ana, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed.
