Tentative WIL Playoff Schedule is Arranged

By CHRIS KOWITZ, Jr.

Tentative arrangements for the post-season Western International league playoffs have been arranged by Salem Senstor manager Hugh Luby and league officials.

Salem, champion of the first Manager Salem, champion seven series for the pennant, providing Salem doesn't win the second half title.

In the event the Senators win the second half title (they are two and a half games out of first with 10 games to go) there will be no playoffs. In that case, Salem would win the WIL pennant automatically.

If a playoff is necessary, it If a playoff is necessary, it will begin away from Salem, probably at Lewiston or Spokane, on Wednesday, September 9. Games will be played there Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The series moves to Salem Sunday, September 1, 200 13, with a single game at 2:30 pm. After that, there will be nightly games at 7:30 until one team has won four games in the playoffs. Luby points out that these arrangements nings.

Any hopes Seattle may have had of catching Holly-wood in the Pacific Coast League pennant race all but faded Sunday after the Bainiers lost a doubleheader to seventh-place Sacramente.

The Solons stopped Seattle 12-6 and 8-1, and the new week winds the Rainlers 10 games back of Hollywood with time running out.

Other clubs split their Suntwin bills.

Hollywood bowed 5-2 to Los Angeles in 12 innings, then won 5-0; Portland went 10 innings to edge San Diego 2-1, but lost the nightcap 5-4, and San Fran-cisco and Oakland divided 7-6 and 2-6.

Only game scheduled Monday is a makeup for San Diego at Portland where the teams were rained out a couple of times last week.

Nippy Jones hit three homers for Sacramento as the Solons grabbed the doubleheader from Seattle.
