

FIRST FAMILY MOVES INTO HOME

The Allen R. Crosley family moves furniture into their new home at Flint, Mich., while workmen still were putting the finishing touches on. The workers are part of several thousand who pitched in to rebuild 186 homes destroyed by tornado, in "Operation Tornado." (AP Wirephoto)

Oregon Road Report Made

The State Highway Department issued the following road report late Monday. Corvallis-Hesperia Highway—Between Hesperia and Toledo, construction, possible delay. South Santiam Highway—Noble South-Poole, construction, minor delay. John Day-Mt. Vernon Highway—Construction, no delay. Columbia River Highway—Kovena-The Dalles, construction, no delay; Arlington-Hesperia Junction, contractor working, possible minor delay. The Dalles-California Highway—Springs Creek Hill-Lober, eight miles construction, minor delay. Pacific—Yoncalla south, two and a half miles construction to Rice Hill, minor delay. Tule—Tualatin River, construction, no delay. Coast—Three miles north of Gardiner, construction, possible minor delay; Winchester Bay south three miles, grading, minor delay; Lakeside Junction to Hesperia, construction, possible minor delay; Fort Orford-Gold Beach, construction from 8 to 14 miles south of Fort Orford, possible delay. Enterprise-Lewiston—Construction, possible minor delay. Willamette Highway—Five miles west of Oakridge, construction, minor delay; short sections of rough road; Deser-Lewell, grading short sections rough road, possible delay. Roma-Princeton Highway—Princeton-Pollock farm section, construction possible minor delay. Territorial—Benton County line-Chesham, construction, possible minor delay. Service Creek-Michael, John Day River bridge, 21-ton load limit; Hermiton Highway-Umatilla River bridge, four miles south of Hermiston, 20-lb. load limit.

JUVENILE OFFICER

James H. Ashbaugh, formerly of Corvallis, who took over the duties of Marion county juvenile officer Tuesday morning. He succeeds Nona White, who retired a few months ago after many years of service.

'Skinny' Has Second Stroke

San Antonio, (AP)—Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, 70, hero of Corregidor, has suffered a second stroke and is in critical condition, Brooke Army Hospital announced Tuesday. The announcement by the full hospital staff said "grave concern" was felt for the recovery of the heroic "skinny," who commanded the U. S. Army in its last stand before the Philippines fell to the Japanese in World War II. Wainwright was 70 years old on August 23. Wainwright was first hospitalized on July 6. On August 13 he suffered a cerebral thrombosis, the medical term for what is generally known as a stroke, but had shown marked improvement.

(Advertisement) Druggists' Prescription For Relief of Itch When your skin is irritated with pimples, red blotches and other skin blemishes from external causes, you're crazy with itching torture, try Santalene Ointment. Itching stops promptly. Smari'g disappears immediately. Santalene Ointment is also wonderful for itching feet, cracks between toes and Athlete's foot. For Sale CAPITAL DRUG STORE State at Liberty Phone 3-3118

Smith Held As Witness

From a hospital to the Marion County jail was the move Monday of 52-year-old Julius Smith, victim of a shotgun blast reportedly fired by Edmund Kizer. Kizer had accused Smith of mistreating a woman, who reportedly was Smith's common-law wife. Kizer, who was arrested shortly after the shot was fired that seriously wounded Smith in the stomach, is also being held as a Marion county prisoner while awaiting trial on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. The trial is set for October 8 in Marion County Circuit court.

Coat Hanger Used to Hook Two Sweaters

A thief put a lowly coat hanger to use over the weekend in the theft of a pair of sweaters from Salem clothing store, city police reported. The thief bent the coat hook so that it could be inserted through the mail slot in the door of Shryock's Men's Wear store, 484 North Capitol street, and hooked two sweaters from a display rack near the door. The two sweaters—one red and one white—were valued at $7 each.

13 Tracts in Timber Offer

Portland (AP)—Timber located on 13 tracts in northwestern Oregon and appraised at nearly half a million dollars will be offered for bids Sept. 4, the Bureau of Land Management announced today. Four of the tracts to be offered for bids are located in Linn county, four in Polk county, two in Clackamas county and one each in Yamhill, Lane and Tillamook counties. Details regarding the timber to be offered may be obtained from the Salem Forest District office, Bureau of Land Management, Salem, Ore. Bids will be received in that office at 9 a.m., PST, Sept. 4.

Six PUDs to File for Dam

Portland (AP)—James T. Marr, president of the National Hell's Canyon Association, reported Monday six Washington Public Utility Districts soon will file an application to build a dam at Hell's Canyon on the Snake River. The Hell's Canyon site is in the area Idaho Power company plans one of a series of low dams on the Snake. Hearings before the Federal Power Commission on the Idaho Power application now are in recess. The Hell's Canyon Association favors a high, multi-purpose dam at the site. Marr, who also is state secretary of the AFL, told the Portland Central Labor Council Monday night that the association, soon will launch a drive for $75,000 to support the PUD proposal. He said $13,000 already has been collected.

Post Office Has Receipts Increase

Receipts of the Salem post office during August were about 12 1/2 per cent above a similar month in 1952, according to a report issued Tuesday by Postmaster Albert C. Gragg. During the month the office had receipts of $77,025.25 as against $64,866.35 or a gain of $8,168.90. An increase of about 3.6 per cent is shown for the first eight months of the year. Receipts during that period last year were $595,307.41 as compared with $616,813.11 in 1953. If the same proportion of gain continues during the balance of 1953, it is probable the Salem post office will top the million dollar mark.

Klippert Returns From IGA Meeting

Ed Klippert, director of IGA Stores operations in Oregon has just returned from a three-day International Food-drama of IGA wholesalers and their supervisors held at the Palmer House in Chicago. Theme of the conference was a program of 10,000 IGA stores in 10 years doing $10,000 per week. Highlights were: A coast-to-coast, to the consumer, broadcast on NBC by Don R. Grimes, president to IGA, on "Food Trends and Forecasts" preview of the next 90 days IGA promotions by Orval Jöhler, director of advertising which included another consumer IGA Brands sweepstakes contest. Announcement of an IGA Premium Club for the consumer, awarding of the prize of the IGA Summer Bargain Stampede contest, an all-expense-paid trip for two to London and Paris which was won by a northwest retailer of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Virgil McEwen. More than a fifth of all light-houses in the United States are on the Great Lakes.

PLEASANT DEATH

Portland (AP)—The sheriff's office said today that a 60-year-old Portland man, Wallace Gildmeister, died yesterday just after landing a 35-pound salmon while fishing in the Columbia river near Government Island. Federal and state governments own about 43 percent of U. S. raw timber.

INITIAL SPANISH-VATICAN CONCORDAT

Spanish Foreign Affairs Minister Alberto Martin Artajo, seated at left, watches as a new treaty government, first since the Spanish civil war, is signed, in Rome's Vatican City. Monsignor Domenico Tardini, center, Pre-Secretary of State for Vatican ecclesiastical affairs, and Fernando Maria Castiella, Spanish Ambassador to the Holy See, sign the Concordat, as other unidentified dignitaries look on. (AP Wirephoto)

Man Drown in Kellogg Lake

Milwaukie, Ore., (AP)—A young man drowned after his car plunged off the highway into Kellogg lake here about 2:15 a.m. today, state police reported. The victim was identified as Arthur B. Kilpatrick, Jr., 25, Portland. Officers said they believed he was alone. State Policeman Henry Miller said a southbound motorist witnessed the accident. He said the witness told him Kilpatrick got out of the car, which floated briefly before it sank, and stood on top of it. As it began sinking, however, he apparently became panicky, Miller said, and tried to reach shore. The car sank in about 9 or 10 feet of water. Miller said the motorist tried to shove a limb towards Kilpatrick but was unable to reach him. The body was recovered about 3:05 a.m.

2 Portlanders Still Missing

Portland (AP)—Search for two missing Portland men continues today with no clues to the whereabouts of either man. Second man from the Rose city to vanish in the last 10 days was Albert T. Evans Jr., 23, who failed to return to his home Sunday from a fishing trip to the Clackamas river near Carver. Clackamas county Deputy Sheriff Fred Abelle toured side roads leading into the area yesterday in an effort to locate Evans' car, but found nothing. Ralph Day, 60, disappeared a week ago Sunday in the Wolf Camp butte area south of Government Camp. Organized search for Day ended on Sunday and only a few persons went into the area yesterday.

Advertisement for Olympia Beer. It features a large glass of beer with a head of foam, a bottle of Olympia Beer, and a can of Olympia Beer. The text reads: 'Famous waters make famous beers'. Below that, it says 'Enjoy OLYMPIA "It's the Water"'. At the bottom, it says 'Visitors always welcome between 9:30 and 4:30 every day. Olympia Brewing Company, Olympia, Washington, U. S. A.' There are also some smaller text elements like 'Trade Marks Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.' and '© 1953 Olympia Brewing Co.'.

Advertisement for Montgomery Ward Tire Store. It features a large image of a tire. The text reads: 'Montgomery Ward TIRE STORE Trade & High Sts. Phone 3-3191'. Below that, it says '25% Off List ON DELUXE PASSENGER TIRES'. It then lists 'WARDS DELUXE—Strictly an extra-quality first-line tire. Extra-strong carcass, extra-long-mileage multi-row tread for extra safety, extra "Stop-Ability"; Buy WHITEWALLS at same reduction: 12.70 14.20'. At the bottom, it says 'WARDS RIVERSIDE—Full size, full non-skid depth, full tread-width. Every ounce first quality! Fully warranted to give satisfactory service. Buy WARDS Riversides NOW AND SAVE SAFELY: 10.95* 12.55*'. There is also a small note: '*Plus Fed. Tax and a tire from your car'.

Advertisement for KAY Typewriter Co. It says 'TYPEWRITERS RENTED All Makes LOWEST RATES KAY TYPEWRITER CO. 223 N. High St., Salem'.