Too Portable — Someone entered his home last week and made off with a portable radio, Harvey Willard, 255 East Ewald avenue, reported to the Marion County Sheriff's office. Nothing else was believed disturbed, he said.

Art Fair Wednesday — The Salem Art Fair, postponed last week because of inclement weather, will be held Wednesday of this week in Willson Park from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. It will be on the Court Street side of the park.

Home Entered — A burglar tore the bathroom window screen to unlock it and enter the home of William Clark, 1504 Jefferson street Sunday evening and steal an electric toaster, city police said Monday. Nothing else appeared to be missing they reported.

Condition Poor — The condition of Mrs. Minnie Lauritsen, 75, 4140 East State street, was reported as still poor at Salem General hospital Tuesday although showing some improvement. She was struck by a car in front of her home Sunday night and suffered a compound fracture of the right leg, fractured pelvis, left hip, left leg and collar bone, concussion and possible internal injuries.

Few Communicable Diseases — During the week ending August 29, there were 3 cases of mumps, 2 German measles and 1 each of whooping cough, syphilis and virus pneumonia reported to the Marion county department of health.

Capitol Toastmasters — The Capitol Toastmasters club will meet at the Gold Arrow Thursday at 6:15. Speakers will be William Taw, Al Beckett, William Hall, Harry Ewing and Elmer Boyer.

Oil Land Issue

The Board declined to make the decision Thornton asked, saying: "We do not think this matter is properly within our province."

Said the Board members in their sharply phrased letter: "We also note that you comment upon three decisions of the United States Supreme Court, wherein the off-shore lands were held to belong to the federal government. You do not comment upon the great many previous decisions of the United States Supreme Court that held that the lands belonged to the states, nor do you comment upon the effect of the admission act of the state of Oregon, passed Feb. 14, 1859. You are the legal advisor of the various members of the Board of Control. Gov. Paterson, himself, is an attorney and there are some questions that your letter has brought forth in our minds:

"1. The Board of Control is the trustee of these lands lying under the sea and navigable waters for the common school fund of Oregon. Do you feel it proper for the trustee of these lands or a fund to be a party to a suit seeking to divest the trustee of title to the lands without the expressed consent of either the people that they represent or at least their Legislature?"

"2. Do you feel that the Board of Control, or your office, both of whom work under the Legislature of this state, would be justified in intervening in this action, when the last, and only, pronouncement of this Legislature was in 1949, as Senate joint memorial No. 3, wherein they requested Congress to pass the act which you now wish to overturn?"

State Plans

Allocation of funds for design of the capitol group of buildings also won tentative approval from the board. State Treasurer Sig Unander said he would confer with Architect Francis Kealy, designer of the capitol building, on plans and preparation of a plaster model of the capitol group on a visit to New York later this month.

In other action, the board: Approved conditionally revising the contract of Wilmsen and Endicott, Eugene architects, to cover the increased estimated cost of a new patient's cottage at Fairview Home to $250,000.

employees whom the U.N. secretary general could dismiss if he thought such action was in the interests of the international organization.

Ten of the 11 granted reinstatement or damages had so-called permanent contracts of employment.

Admitted Red — The 11th employe, Ruth Crawford, former information officer for the U.S. International Children's Emergency Fund, had admitted a year's membership in the Communist Party, terminating in 1936, but was fired by former Secretary General Trygve Lie because she refused to tell the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee who invited her to join the party in 1935.

The appeal of still another "permanent" employe, Eugene Wallach, a language services stenotypist, was referred back to the staff joint appeals board for another hearing. He had appeared before a federal grand jury investigating subversion. The U.N. in announcing his firing said he had not given a complete account of former employment as required by U.N. regulations.

Body of Gordineer Found at Coos Jetty

Coos Bay (AP)—The Coast Guard reported today the body of Roy Harley Gordineer, 24, Eugene, missing since August 9 in a boating mishap, has been found near North Coos Jetty, about three miles north of here.

Gordineer was one of three men who drowned when their boat capsized on the Umpqua river while they were salmon fishing.

Other victims, whose bodies were recovered a short time after the mishap, were William James Campbell, Willows, and Alfred Halvorsen, Cottage Grove.

Yreka Railroad President Killed

Klamath Falls (AP)—The president of an eight-mile railroad, the Yreka and Montague, was killed Monday when the gasoline-powered speeder he was riding was hit by a car near Yreka.

The victim was Walter L. Minor, 70, who took over the presidency of the Y & M, a freight and log-hauling feeder for the Southern Pacific, in 1927. He had been a railroad clerk at Dunsmuir, Calif., previously.

Mrs. Julia Clevenger, rancher's wife, was driver of the car. She was not hurt. She and Minor were alone in their vehicles.

Prizes Given At Shop Center

A crowd estimated at 2500 gathered at the Capitol Shopping Center's School Days drawing Monday evening when a ticket belonging to Bobbie Guenther, 543 East Clay street, Monmouth, was drawn to win the grand prize of four 600x16 tires and a car radio plus an orchid corsage.

The crowd saw something unusual also when tickets belonging to Davie Piper, Independence, were drawn twice in a row. Well mixed in a River Bend cement mixer, this was an oddity and about a million to one chance. However the second ticket was forfeited because contest rules do not permit the same person to win two prizes in the weekly drawings.

Other prize-winners Monday night included Mrs. Bud Craig, 1224 North 16th, a $30 boys' or girls' wardrobe; Vern Obert, 915 North 18th, a table model radio; M. E. Arn, Silverton, a steam iron; Dave Piper, Independence, English brogues; J. J. Mortensen, Aurora, a Lazy Susan; Mrs. Karl J. Barr, 274 North 20th, an electric percolator; and Mrs. Carl Rundhaug, 395 South 18th, a kitchen clock. Obert and Mrs. Rundhaug were present at the drawing to receive their prizes.

Entertainment was provided by the Shopping Center merchants prior to the drawing. Ford & Harris, a colored song and dance team, delighted everyone present with their comedy routines. Dave Moss acted as master of ceremonies.

This is the second drawing in a series presented by the Shopping Center in connection with their School Days promotion. The next drawing will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 8, at 5:30 p.m. and the grand drawing for a Hillman Minx automobile will be held on September 19 at 6 p.m.

U. S. Drafting Plan For Assisting Iran

Washington (AP)—The United States was reported to be drafting an emergency financial aid program for Iran to bolster the government led by Premier Zahedi.

No specific amount has yet been fixed but a sum of more than 30 million dollars in grants is being considered by top State Department and foreign aid officials.

Board Listens To Arguments

The Marion County District School Boundary board Tuesday forenoon heard a delegation of several persons from the Fairfield district in connection with the proposal that all pupils of that district be sent to Gervais.

Earlier a petition, signed by more than 50 persons asking that the pupils be sent to Gervais had been filed with the board. A petition, carrying a smaller number of signatures, requested that grade school pupils of the north portion of Fairfield be transported to St. Paul.

Fair Weather Forecast For Opening State Fair

Apparently the Oregon State Fair can open this week-end with little prospect there will be rain, says the five-day forecast out of the weather bureau. The prediction calls for mostly fair weather except for some morning cloudiness, with little or no rain during the period.

A new "weather year" began Tuesday, September 1, the weather bureau's year running from September to September. It was a fairly wet year, 44.94 inches being measured. In 1952 the precipitation for the weather year amounted to 42.72 inches; in 1951, 50.59 inches.

Backed by more than 100,000 regular police, the border force will remain in a state of alarm until the voting ends Sunday night, the ministry said.

Bridge Opens On Wednesday

The new concrete bridge across Pringle Creek on Mission Street is scheduled to open at 8 a.m. Wednesday. Picture shows the bridge 61 feet 4 inches long, with 36-foot roadway and five-foot sidewalks with railings.

Cost of the new bridge to the city was approximately $23,000. It is 61 feet and four inches long, and has a 36-foot roadway with five-foot sidewalk on each side and metal railings.

The contractor was Orlando Bernard of Portland. Mission street has been closed about 60 days while the construction was in progress.
