

In The Valley

Edited by MIKE FORBES

Donald

Donald — Mrs. Gale Bare gave a birthday party honoring her husband Sunday. Attending the party were Alvin Peterson and Mrs. Lila Peterson of Hubbard, and afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Lin Cromwell of Donald.

School will start in Donald Sept. 15 and parents of first graders are reminded that these children should have a dental examination and physical examination before they enter school. There is a form "Oregon Pupil Medical Record" which should be given to the teacher, properly filled out by the children's doctor, when he enters school.

If the child is six before Nov. 15, he may enter first grade, otherwise he must wait another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Peterson had supper Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph "Duke" Stulaf of Lafayette. The men were classmates in North Dakota.

Clarice Hiken of Portland is a visitor in the Barney Felser home.

Mrs. Walter Aldridge and children have been visiting her relatives at Vader, Wash., the past week and a half. While there, Mrs. Aldridge took her aunt and grandmother to the beach at Capalis, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Blake have returned from a week's vacation to Sacramento, Calif., and now Mr. Blake is scheduled to go to Seaside for a month's work. He is with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

The hop picking machines are working night and day in the Donald area. There is quite a bit of loss because of wet weather and rotting.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mayes and two children were weekend visitors in the home of his sister, Mrs. Norman Yergen. They arrived Friday, and left early Sunday morning.

Mrs. Ida M. Black had a demonstration party, Friday, Aug. 28 at the home of Mrs. Phil Hathaway. Mrs. Hathaway gave a series of parties at her home on Friday with various hostesses and their guests.

Harmon Yeary, who has spent the past eight weeks in and out of the Veterans hospital in Portland and who underwent major surgery, is now doing very well, and will be able to accompany his wife, by train, back to Iowa where they will visit relatives. Mrs. Grace Bishop, mother of Mrs. Yeary has been spending the summer in Iowa and will return with her daughter and son-in-law. En route home they will buy a new car and drive it back.

Jerry Yergen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yergen is on board the U.S.S. Essex, which put out to sea on Wednesday of last week. He has been stationed at Bremerton, Wash., sometime waiting until the ship was ready. Young Yergen was home for the past week-end before shipping out.

Mrs. Ralph Bair and Mrs. Ray Glatt of Woodburn acted as student judges in the floral department of the Washington county fair at Hillsboro, Ore., on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Yergen of Donald have been busy entertaining guests during the past week or so. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Broyles and son, Johnny, of El Centro, Calif., a nephew, Mrs. Clarence Hanson of Monitor, and Mrs. A. B. Pennebaker of Woodburn, spent several days and were dinner guests. Other dinner guests during the week were

Grand patriarch, George Naderman, Salem, gave special instruction to patriarchs and L. E. A. auxiliaries.

Mrs. N. E. Swanson and children of San Diego, Calif., have been visitors with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Loop and brother, Tillman Loop, west of Amity, and her sister, Audrey and family at Bellevue.

Macley — Members of the Grange Agricultural committee with Albert Mader, as chairman, will have charge of the lecturer's program at the grange meeting Friday night, Sept. 4.

This is the annual "Melon night." The grange bachelors will be in charge of serving.

Marilyn Martin has returned from Washington where she was the guest of her cousin, Pvt. and Mrs. Montie Wells.

DANCE TONIGHT
Crystal Gardens
Old Time and Modern
Music by "Pop" Edwards

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Carlson of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bailey, Norman and Marilyn, Miss Gladys Yergen and Fred Mayer, Clarence Burnett, of Scio, Ore., was also a guest during the week.

Gervais

Gervais — The Sacred Heart Parish dinner held Sunday was a success. A large crowd enjoyed the chicken dinner served by the ladies with Mrs. Frank Nosack in charge.

The small son of Joe Schindler won the bedspread prize. Bruce Frederick is the name given the new son of Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson, baptized in church at St. Louis on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kirk of St. Paul were God-parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Steger visited friends in Longview, Wash., over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Vaughn of San Pedro, Calif., visited his aunt, Mrs. B. B. Barner last week.

Mrs. F. Seguin went to Portland Monday where she underwent surgery Tuesday.

Joseph Kuhn and Mrs. M. Lucas are both convalescing in Woodburn hospital.

Bethel Park

Bethel Park — Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Richards and family of Sweet Home, Ore., visited at the home of his mother, Mrs. Alice Richards and his grandmother, Mrs. Kate Smith.

Rev. Reina Bullock is building a cabin on his lot.

Rev. and Mrs. George Bacon have returned from Cathlamet, Wash., where they visited in the homes of their grandsons, Oliver and Bob Bacon.

Recent guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Swope were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mahon of Estacada, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. C. Hamilton and family of Chula Vista, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barkart and family of Spokane, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clevinger, Gary and Aleta Clevinger, Astoria, Ore., were weekend guests in the home of Mrs. Nellie Stanley.

Amity

Amity — About 60 persons attended the no-host dinner honoring Rev. and Mrs. William P. Bray at the Baptist church Sunday following the morning worship service.

Other special guests were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nollinger of Dallas, and Rev. Richard Ice, former pastor from Centralia, Wash.

Following the dinner, G. E. Gillaspie presented Mr. Bray with a book on behalf of the church.

The primary department of the Sunday school presented Mrs. Bray with a pink corsage.

Mr. Bray preached his farewell sermon at 8 p.m. Special music by Otto Nollinger, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Bray.

Paul Gillaspie read the scripture. At the close of the service all bade farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Bray who left immediately for Dallas with her parents, where they spent the night, and left early Monday for Modesto and Berkeley, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbs and Mrs. Cora Newman drove to Klamath Falls Saturday, Aug. 29, where they attended festivities for the patriarchal rendezvous.

Grand patriarch, George Naderman, Salem, gave special instruction to patriarchs and L. E. A. auxiliaries.

Mrs. N. E. Swanson and children of San Diego, Calif., have been visitors with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Loop and brother, Tillman Loop, west of Amity, and her sister, Audrey and family at Bellevue.

Macley

Macley — Members of the Grange Agricultural committee with Albert Mader, as chairman, will have charge of the lecturer's program at the grange meeting Friday night, Sept. 4.

This is the annual "Melon night." The grange bachelors will be in charge of serving.

Marilyn Martin has returned from Washington where she was the guest of her cousin, Pvt. and Mrs. Montie Wells.

DANCE TONIGHT
Crystal Gardens
Old Time and Modern
Music by "Pop" Edwards

Jefferson

Jefferson — Don Gilmour met with an accident last week when the tractor he was using turned over on him and a sharp object pierced the calf of his leg. Men working near by removed him from under the tractor and he finished his day's work before seeing a doctor.

Fred Barna and sister, Miss Clara Barna, returned Thursday from a three months vacation trip, travelling over 12,000 miles. They had one accident during their stay in Florida, damaging the side and back fender on the car, but no one in the car was hurt.

Leaving Jefferson their first stop was with relatives in San Francisco, and San Jose, Calif. Leaving California they went to Yosemite, Death Valley, Bryce Canyon, Zion National Park, Red Canyon, San Antonio, Texas and at Tampa, Fla., a niece, Bonnie Nipp, accompanied them the remainder of the trip.

They visited Miami and Key West, Fla., and at Asheville, N. C., they visited relatives, traveling to Hartford, Ind., Minnesota, Canada, back to North Dakota visiting a sister-in-law, then on to the Bad Lands and Black Hills, to Yellowstone National park, through Idaho, Washington and back to Jefferson.

C. H. Quesseth and Thomas C. Enright are opening a branch law office in the Jones building in Jefferson, starting Sept. 1, they plan to be in Jefferson Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and Saturday mornings.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Hood and daughters were weekend guests of Mrs. Hoods parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Jones in Jefferson.

Eddie Sterns has brought the Neal residence in north Jefferson and Mr. and Mrs. Sterns and son, Albert, will move there this weekend.

Paul Benninghoff of Portland has been the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McKee the past week.

Miss Marge Paulus of Ketchikan, Alaska, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zemlicka Wednesday.

Mrs. Zemlicka and Miss Paulus met two years ago when both were on a trip up the inland passage. Miss Paulus is a guest of her brother, John Paulus, in Salem.

Joseph Rowe, grade school principal, has been attending summer session at Oregon College of Education, working toward his master's degree. He received his bachelor of science degree from Eastern Oregon College of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Higgins moved to Albany Wednesday, to be nearer his work as he is employed in a plywood mill.

Mrs. Calvin Hughes will be manager of the new beauty shop opening Thursday, Sept. 10 in the Sutton building on Main St. Mrs. Hughes formerly operated a beauty shop in Jefferson.

The parlor is being redecorated and new equipment will be installed this week.

Unionvale

Unionvale — Mrs. Adolph Hrade, Carol, Dorothy and Bruce, and Mrs. Lloyd Zentner of Unionvale assisting in collecting 16 bushels of Gravenstein apples and delivering them to the Mione Canning company at McMinnville early Monday morning, and were all through by 11 a.m.

The apples are for the Dayton Union grade school cafeteria's winter lunches. They were put in one-gallon cans and made about 75 gallons. The same amount of each peaches and pears and 150 gallons each of beans, corn and tomatoes will be canned.

The women prepared the apples and the fruit was then run through a sieve to remove the peelings.

The fruit is donated from surplus or second grade by growers.

Sugar is furnished by the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Polachek and son, Roger, of Rose Lodge were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Church.

Silverton Park Reunion Slowed by Wet Weather

Silverton — Only a few groups and members of individual families were at the Silverton city park Sunday, though the weather was ideal for outdoor affairs and the park was dry in spite of the heavy rains for six days of the past week.

In observance of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Victor Sather, friends and relatives enjoyed a picnic dinner and an hour of visiting.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKibben and Jim and Kenneth of the Hazel Green district; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ball of Burbank, Calif., and Mrs. Ball's mother of Salem, Mrs. Henry Key; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sather and sons, Marvin and Edwin, Mrs. Nellie Ball and Mrs. Ed Holden, all of Silverton.

McKibben and Ball were grade and high school classmates and McKibben was a college classmate of Sather at Oregon State college, Corvallis.

The Albert and George Vachter families of Woodburn and Silverton met for an afternoon at the Silverton park with a dinner and visiting and games for the children.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. George Vachter and Robert, Mary Louise, Patricia Ann, Linda Lou and Joseph Paul, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vachter and Margaret and Charles.

Margaret Vachter was honor guest on the occasion of the eighth anniversary of her birth. The group served the decorated birthday cake at the Woodburn home of the Albert Vachters at the supper hour, Sunday evening.

Thirteen were among the four generation descendants of Mrs. Phil Wagner of Sublimity in the reunion Sunday at Silverton park.

These were Mrs. Wagner, her daughter Mrs. Urban Weis, granddaughter Mrs. Ruby Juchem and Billy and Terry Juchem, and Mrs. Wagner, her daughter Mrs. Matt Wolf, granddaughter Mrs. John Kirtz and Karen, and a second granddaughter and five children, Mrs. Gilbert Lindemann and Connie, Shirley, Frank, Roger and Sandy.

Complimented guests at the dinner and social afternoon were from Phoenix, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Urban Weis; and from Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Juchem and children.

Guests present from Silverton were Kay Wolf and Barbara Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Wolf; from Sublimity, the family of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kubel, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lindemann and children, and Mr. and Mrs. John Kirtz and Karen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kirvin and foster children, Esther, Katherine, Clarke, Frances and Carol, Oregon City, enjoyed late afternoon dinner and games at Silverton park Sunday.

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Meeting in reunion Sunday

Hopewell

Hopewell — A reception for Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Harris, newly appointed pastor of the Hopewell E.U.B. church, will be held Friday evening, September 4, at 8 p.m. at the church.

Delbert Smith, class leader, is in charge of the program, which is being prepared by Mrs. Howard Stephens and Mrs. Ross Rogers. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Art Reed, Mrs. John Kotka and Mrs. Earl Compton, committee.

A Youth Fellowship social will be held at the Hopewell E.U.B. church basement Thursday evening, September 3 at 8 p.m.

Rev. E. J. Schroeder of Fallon, Mont., was guest speaker at the Hopewell E.U.B. church Sunday, August 30, at the morning service. He is a cousin of Rev. Glenn Harris, and also attended the Jennings Lodge Ministerial Retreat this past week. Rev. and Mrs. Schroeder were Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. Harris in Hopewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnson and daughter, Donna Lee of Riddle, Ore., were Thursday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lafferty. Mrs. Lafferty is convalescing from recent surgery in General Hospital, McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Legg of Sioux Falls, S.D., are guests of his brother, Clarence Legg, this week, having arrived Sunday.

Mrs. John Geisler and Mrs. Eugene Wilson attended the project leader meeting in McMinnville at the 4-H building, Friday, August 28, for the lesson on corsage making which they will present to the Hopewell Home Extension Unit in November.

Miss Vera Keightley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keightley, will become the bride of Wendell Danielson, of Gaston, Thursday evening, September 3 at the Seventh Day Adventist church at 8 p.m. Elder G. E. Schaffner of Salem will officiate.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loop during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Clark of Lincoln on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Loop of Amity on Thursday evening, and Mrs. Milton Frink and Nancy Donahauer of Perrydale on Friday afternoon.

Little Carol Moddemeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Moddemeyer, Jr., of Portland, was a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Moddemeyer of Fairview for a few days, and her parents came after her Wednesday evening. Carol will start school this week.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Moddemeyer were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Waller of Fairview, Mrs. S. Van Staaveren, Mrs. A. Van Otten and Mrs. D. Strikwerda of McMinnville.

Those who attended the recital Saturday evening, August 28, given by Dr. Van Zanti at the Salem S.D.A. church from Hopewell were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warnock, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Syme and family, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Warnock and Stanley Warnock. Melvin Warnock played a trumpet solo and Stanley Warnock, a trombone solo preceding the recital.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warnock and Stanley Warnock, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Warnock, Mrs. V. V. Scoggan of Hopewell and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Warnock and family of Salem enjoyed a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnson at Twin Rocks, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Warnock, whose wedding was an event of August 24 at the Hopewell S.D.A. church. Mr. and Mrs. Warnock are leaving Wednesday, September 2, for Tacoma, Wash., on their way to their home at Walla Walla, Wash., where Mr. Warnock will enroll in his senior year at Walla Walla College.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Pearse and Robert were Sunday dinner guests of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Babcock of Albany. Mr. and Mrs. William Pearse and family and Dean Brown were Sunday evening guests at the Pearse home.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Milt Carson is on the sick list this week.

Calvert, Carol Bowser, Phyllis Barnes, Donna Smith and Wanda Galster.

The intermediate class of the Baptist Sunday school held a picnic in the park recently.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Shockey, Mrs. Sid Hankins, Mrs. Lee Wilborn, Mrs. Joe Fallon and Dwain Miller, Don Conrad, Eddie Smith, Douglas Ward, Wanda Coffman and Rita Kikel.

The first annual fire department picnic was held in the city park Sunday. Chairman for the event included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dockweiler and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reed.

Following the picnic horse-throw and tether ball games were played.

Those attending were Fire Chief and Mrs. Ivan Hoy and Bobby; assistant Fire Chief and Mrs. Don Surry and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Loring Johnson and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould and Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Yanke and Nonette, Johnnie Calvert and Charles N. and Eunice, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Woolley and Roger and Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gantenben and Binkie, Jim Jr., and Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dockweiler and Linda Patty and Susan, Mrs. Ron Fogle and Sandra, Diane and Karen, John Patterson, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reed, Conrad, Greg and Tom.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.

A well-fed riding camel can cover 60 to 70 miles in a day.