

OLD TRESTLE SITE FILLED BY S. P. & S.

When Oregon Electric railroad had a passenger depot in Salem electric trains to Albany and Eugene travelled over a trestle spanning Pringle creek between Commercial street and the depot. Today this is a spur from the front street route of the S. P. & S. and is being filled for a distance of 210 feet with 8,000 yards of earth to save reconstruction of the trestle.

Hold Child Clinic At Silverton

Silverton — Pamphlets describing signs of eye trouble were on display at the Tuesday's well child clinic at the Eugene Field Health rooms. Dr. W. J. Stone and his assisting nurse, Miss Viola Eisenbach, directed the clinic activities.

Silverton volunteers were Mrs. K. A. Diggins, Mrs. Mildred O'Brien, Mrs. Mike Hannan and Mrs. Ernest Star, who assisted.

The total number of young folk receiving service was 41, coming from all sections of the Silverton area.

Looking forward to the October meeting, the regular first Tuesday of the month, educational pamphlets on various aspects of nutrition will be available.

The next nursing clinic is the nursing conference and immunization clinic, Tuesday, Sept. 22, 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Eugene Field health rooms, no appointments are necessary, but for the October meeting of the well child clinic, contact Mrs. John Middlemiss.

Mrs. M. B. Ford has given two years of service to this activity in connection with Silverton's benefits from the Marion County Health Department, and has asked to be relieved this September.

Food Prices Drop To 9 Weeks Low

New York (AP)—Wholesale food prices as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet index declined this week to the lowest point in nine weeks.

The index registered $6.61, lowest since the $6.54 recorded on June 30. A week ago the index stood at $6.73 and a year ago at $6.70. Meats and livestock contributed most of the downturn.

Commodities going lower during the week were flour, rye, oats, beef, hams, jellies, sugar, cocoa, potatoes, rice, steers, hogs and lambs. Higher were wheat, corn, barley, lamb, milk and cotton-seed oil.

VOYAGE TO COME
Toledo, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Roscoe H. Snyder is in no hurry. It was back in 1941 that he began building a 36-foot yawl as a hobby. Some time around 1954 or 1955 he may get the vessel finished, and start thinking about a sailing trip.

The English "pounds," "shillings" and "pence" derive from Norman French, Danish and Roman coins respectively.

Scholarship Awarded 4-H Girl For Summer Project

Woodburn — Miss Charlene Shaner, who will be in the eighth grade at the McKee school this year, has been busy completing her four 4-H projects that she exhibited at the county 4-H fall show at the State Fair grounds last week. She was surprised Friday evening when she was awarded a scholarship to the 4-H summer school for 1954 by the Valley Tractor company for having the outstanding poultry project for the 1953 club year.

Charlene received first or blue ribbon awards for a pen of white leghorn pullets, a pen of two pullets and a cockerel, a dozen brown eggs, a garden display of five varieties of vegetables, her canning exhibit and her frozen food exhibit. She received a red award or second for a dozen white eggs, a pen of six roosters, a flower exhibit and poultry showmanship.

Nut Harvester Also Duster

Aurora — H. L. Niles, Rt. 1, Box 161, Mulino, recently invented and built a dual purpose machine that not only will harvest nuts but can be converted readily into an efficient duster. The machine was demonstrated in Canby during the past week when the Oregon-Washington Nut Growers association Willamette valley tour stopped at the Gordon Weygant nut drying plant.

Mr. Niles has applied for a patent on the machine, Leon Garolan, Clackamas county horticultural specialist, is arranging a field demonstration to be held at the Niles place early in September.

Meador Moves To New Post

Sweet Home — Dean Meador, who for the past three years has held the position of retail department manager of the Willamette National Lumber company, has been transferred to Corvallis where he will serve in a similar capacity at a branch of the Willamette Valley Lumber company.

Meador's replacement effective September 1, will be Jim Mitchell, who has worked in the retail department here for the past five years and has served as an assistant to Meador for the past three years.

Meador, who has been active in civic organizations, is currently serving as president of the Sweet Home Junior Chamber of Commerce and first vice-president of the local Kiwanis club. Mrs. Meador, who also was active in community projects, served as this year's Jaycette president.

Accused POW Back in Tokyo

Tokyo (AP)—"Slick" a former prisoner of the Reds hated by some fellow U. S. POWs who said he "ratted" on them to win communist favors, is back in a Tokyo Army hospital after being AWOL about a week.

The corporal, who has been threatened with death by unforgetting ex-POWs, disappeared from the hospital August 28 and returned voluntarily late Wednesday, the Army said.

He was turned over to military police. Slick was freed by the Reds last month at Panmunjom. Fearing revenge by other repatriated American prisoners who reportedly threatened his life, Slick appealed to an Army chaplain for protection.

He was flown to Tokyo. He disappeared from the hospital shortly before he was due to fly back to the United States.

About 98 per cent of the population of Great Britain was born in the United Kingdom.
