Peg in Washington

BY ALENE (PEG) PHILLIPS

Washington, D.C., August 29. Dear Marian:

A last minute addition to Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay's schedule this week is a trip to the national convention of the American Legion in St. Louis. Secretary McKay was invited by Vice-President Nixon to join him in the plane trip leaving tomorrow morning and returning Tuesday evening. The vice-president will march with the California Legionnaires and the Secretary with the Oregon delegation. They will attend the National Commander's dinner Monday evening prior to the next day's parade. Dallas Nellach, the State Commander of the Oregon Department of the Legion, and Salem members joined in urging the Secretary to join the Oregon delegation.

Two Oregonians who are enjoying a year in Washington are Sister Caroline Anne and Sister Marian Frances of Maryhurst College and St. Mary's Academy, in Portland, who have friends in Marion county. The Sisters are attending Catholic University here for advanced work, having come east in June. They called at our office this week during a sightseeing trip and reported their enthusiasm for the opportunity to live in the national capital while continuing their training.

Other visitors were Miss Maurine Mattson, secretary to William W. Knight, publisher of the Oregon Journal, and Miss Molly Erdman of the Portland Blue Cross office.

Mrs. Leah Sherman, chairman of the committee for the observance of National Poetry Day in Oregon, announces from Portland that three cash prizes will be awarded, and prize-winning poems read, at the Poetry Day banquet at Congress hotel in Portland on the evening of October 15.

Poems will be judged for quality, with no limitation as to subject matter. Contest rules limit entries to one poem of no more than 20 lines, to be submitted in three typed copies, with author's name, address, and poem title enclosed in accompanying sealed envelope. Entries must be mailed by closing date, September 15, to Mrs. Leah Sherman, 3801 S. E. Morrison St., Portland.

It is hoped by the committee that this year's observance of National Poetry Day designated October 15, may be widely carried out across Oregon, with writers' clubs and other groups interested, churches, civic organizations and libraries arranging for speakers who will talk about Oregon's poets, national poets and poetry; that book stores will arrange displays suitable to the week, October 8 to 15.

Clubs, organizations and individuals may get in touch with the committee through its corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harvard C. Moore, 134 Regal Court, Eugene.
