

Miss Pharis Wed Sunday At Albany

Albany — One of the interesting weddings of the late summer was that of Miss Martha Anne Pharis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Pharis of Route No. 3, and Robert W. Warnke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Warnke on Sunday, August 30, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the United Presbyterian church. The double ring service was read by Dr. J. Boyd Patterson.

The church was decorated with baskets of yellow and white gladioluses and lighted candles in candelabras. Mrs. Gil Macke, cousin of the bridegroom, played the wedding marches and also accompanied Mrs. Ernest Wilde, a cousin of the bridegroom, who was the vocalist.

Mr. Pharis gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a wedding dress of white satin with lace panels. Her veil was held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid encircled by white carnations tied with long ribbon streamers.

Miss Janette Pharis, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a dress of yellow net over silk. She carried yellow chrysanthemums in a fan shape and wore a wreath of yellow chrysanthemums in her hair.

Miss Maryann Howard was bridesmaid, wearing a green net over silk dress and carrying matching flowers. Her dress was fashioned on lines similar to that of the maid of honor's dress.

Charles Metzger was best man and seating the more than 200 wedding guests were Dick Pharis, Darwin Dickson, Gil Macke and Gene Maier.

Lighting the candles preceding the ceremony were Mrs. Darwin Dickson and Mrs. Dick Pharis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pharis chose a blue suit with white accessories and a pink corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a purple costume with an orchid corsage.

After the ceremony the reception was in the church parlors. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake on a handmade lace cloth and decorated with ferns and lighted candles. Pouring were Mrs. Roy Parker, Corvallis, cousin of the bride; Mrs. W. B. Maier, Eugene, aunt of the bride; and at the punch bowl was Mrs. Russell Harrison. Cutting the bride's cake were Mrs. I. B. Halseth, assisted by Mrs. Fred

Mr., Mrs. deVries Anniversary Feted

Pratum — Mr. and Mrs. Harold deVries of Pratum were honored on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday, August 30. Friends were invited to call Miller. Those serving were Mrs. Morgan Harmon, Mrs. Alton Benedict, Mrs. Jack Parker and Mrs. James Maier. Mrs. Oscar Schlegel and Mrs. Myles Ludwig were in charge of the reception. Mrs. Henry Maier, Mrs. Edward Maier in charge of the gifts. Misses Carl Halseth and Bonny LaFond served the bridegroom's cake.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Canada. For going-away the bride wore a tan suit with matching accessories and pinned to her shoulder was the orchid from her bouquet. After September 20 the couple will be at home in Calapooia Acres.

between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.

Hostesses for the party were the Misses Doryce and Elsie deVries, daughters of the honored couple. Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Aleda Rehm, Maxine Hansen, Donna Meyer, Merlene Harding, Carolyn Meyers and Lois deVries. Miss Judy Gainer was in charge of the guest book.

Bouquets of summer flowers were used about the rooms, and a tiered wedding cake centered the serving table.

A short program was given at four o'clock consisting of several vocal numbers, and a talk by Dr. Bruce, pastor of the Pratum Methodist church.

Miss Hoelsing Wed At Lebanon Church

Lebanon — At a 9 o'clock nuptial ceremony in St. Edward's Catholic church Saturday morning, August 29, Miss Doris Ann Hoelsing was wed to Robert McGavern of Empire, Ore. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roesing of Lebanon, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGavern of Elizabeth, N. J.

Pink and white gladioluses decorated the altar where Father Pius Baur read the single ring service. Organ music was played by Mrs. John Ames.

The bride wore a white taffeta dress with lace bodice, and fingertip veil. Her flowers were white gladioluses.

Only attendant for her sister was Miss Jeanette Hoelsing, dressed in blue taffeta.

Leo Suing was best man. At the reception in the parish hall, Mrs. Ludwig Suing poured, Mrs. Robert Wendling cut the cake.

The bride attended Lebanon high school, and her husband, who was educated at Sacred Heart, Elizabeth, N. J., served three years in the marine corps. He is employed at the telephone office in Empire, and they will make their home in Coos Bay.

Miss Buschkowsky Wed at Vancouver

Woodburn — Miss Gail Buschkowsky, granddaughter of Mrs. Jessie Wageman of Woodburn, and David Nonneman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nonneman, also of Woodburn, were married Saturday, August 29, at nuptial mass in St. James Catholic church at Vancouver, Wash., at 9:30 a.m.

Attending the couple were Miss Katherine Nonneman, sister of the bridegroom, and Harold Hotchkiss, both of Woodburn. The bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a corsage of Tallman rosebuds.

A wedding breakfast at the Holland restaurant in Vancouver followed the ceremony.

The couple left immediately for Spokane, Wash., where Mr. Nonneman is employed and where they will make their home. Mr. Nonneman attended St. Luke's parochial school and Mt. Angel academy and he attended Woodburn high school.

TIMOTHY CROP OFF

The 1953 crop of timothy seed, forecast at 24,002,000 pounds of clean seed, is the smallest one since 1948. It is nearly a fourth smaller than last year's production of 31,260,000 pounds and less than half the 1942-51 average of 53,979,000 pounds.

Ninety-three percent of all Canadian forest land is publicly owned.

Turkey Industry Will Outline Its Problems

Rapid expansion of the turkey industry in the west as compared with the rest of the country will be discussed by Alex Gordeuk, editor of the Turkey World magazine, at the 14th annual meeting of the Oregon Turkey Improvement association at Oregon State college September 11.

Noel Bennion, OSC extension poultry specialist and secretary of the association, says Gordeuk will also outline present problems of the industry and indications for the future.

The current turkey fryer-roaster situation will be reviewed by H. L. Shrader, USDA extension poultry specialist from Washington, D.C. M. C. Small, executive secretary of the National Turkey federation, will explain what the national organizations are doing for the turkey industry, including the "National Eat-More Turkey" program.

Part of the afternoon session
