

MARILYN MAXWELL

It's time to revise Dorothy Parker's old couplet that "men seldom make passes at girls who wear glasses." Marilyn Maxwell, the well-built blonde film actress, has to wear glasses all the time because she's "blind as a bat" without them, she says. What's more, they don't seem to keep off the wolves. "I wear glasses wherever I go," she remarked, "and they've never seemed to stop men from making passes." She takes them off when doing a stage show but as long as she can hear the laughter and applause, she knows she's doing okay. (AP Wirephoto)

44 Enlistees During Month

Fourteen men and one woman from this area were enlisted in the Navy by the local recruiting office during the month of August and the Army and Air Force recruiting office here during the same period signed one woman and 29 men for duty with those branches of the service.

The lone woman enlistee in the Navy was Darlene Marie Anderson of Silverton. Shirley Straley of Rickreall was the woman enlisted by the Army.

One of the Navy enlistees was John Garber, GMI, 1140 Spruce street, Salem, who re-enlisted for six years and another Gail Clinton Wood, FN, of Dallas, re-enlisted for four years.

The other Navy enlistees were Gary William Forgey of 1230 Peace Street, Salem; William Edward Davis of Dallas; William Dixon Rowan and Dale Everett Oakerman of Corvallis; Bobbie Gordon Burling Sweet Home; Nelson Eugene Stewart, Lebanon; Dan Leroy Bradley, Philomath; Paul Laurence Thomas, Turner; Karl Richard Carter, Independence; Keith Edward Wilber, Yamhill; Gene Alan Mollenhauer, McMinnville; and Gerald Isaac Tatom, Newport.

Of those enlisted by the Army eight were signed for specific Army Schools which means that they may sign for the schools before enlisting. These men, all of whom were from Salem, were John B. Thiessen, James W. Prugh, Robert E. Noteboom, John Conder, David Quinn, Earl L. McIntosh, John R. Nelson and Robert B. McGowan.

Eight other men were enlisted for the Army Airborne. Four of these were from Salem and were Vernon L. Ruch, Loren J. White, Eugene M. Johnson and George A. Wilson. The four other Airborne enlistees were Danny F. Bowers and Lloyd J. Bowers of Idanha and Jerry N. Broadbent and Paul C. Scheele of Turner.

Those enlisting with the regular army were James B. Anderson, Richard F. Maddux and Donald E. Blankenship of Salem; Albert W. Nixon, Aumsville; Bill R. Hazzelton, Dayton; LeRoy Meadows, Gervais; Albert S. Lloyd and Arthur Baker of Monmouth; and Franklin D. Sullivan of Marion.

The four men enlisted in the Air Force were Charles V. Benner and Darwyn G. Hiebert of Salem; Gerald L. Jones of Dallas and Luther E. Loe of McMinnville.
