

Miss Fried Bride on Thursday

Miss Allagene Fried, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fried, and James A. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Brown of Beaverton, were married Thursday evening at a service in the Seventh Day Adventist church, the pastor, Calvin Hartnell, officiating.

White and orchid colored gladioluses decorated the church for the service. For the music, Miss Kathy Shuman sang and William Fawk played the organ. Lighting the candles preceding the ceremony were Dean Kuebler and Eugene Mitchell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white satin fashioned with net yoke, long sleeves and a train, and worn with a fingertip veil. For her flowers, the bride carried a bouquet of pink roses with lilies in the center.

Miss Dorothy Fried was honor attendant. She wore a gold satin dress and carried a bouquet of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Marjorie Johnson, wearing a Nile green satin dress, and Miss Minnie Page, in orchid satin, were the bridesmaids. Both carried bouquets of white gladioluses.

Harry Elliott was best man. Ushers were Bill Hill, Earl Martin, Henry Fischer and Lloyd Hickether.

The two mothers both wore navy blue attire with red rose corsages.

The reception following was in Mayflower hall. Cutting the cake was Mrs. E. J. Kortzborn and pouring was Mrs. Harry Mitchell. Assisting were Mrs. O. Wolcott, Mrs. Don Worden, Mrs. Meredith Holbrook, Miss Leota Nuttbrock, Miss Eleanor Berndt, Miss Hertha Long, Mrs. David Wright, Miss Vera Wolcott.

For going away, the bride wore a red knit suit with gray coat, hat and accessories, and a corsage of lilies.

Following a trip to northern California the couple will be at home in College Place, Wash.
