Seller AWOL—Milton C. Edwards, SK3, USN, turned himself into a city police officer in a downtown restaurant Friday night as being absent without leave from Bremerton Naval hospital, Washington. He was booked at the station and held for Bremerton officials after a phone call there checked his story. He said he was due to return to the hospital on Monday but is broke and can't get back.

Brothers Lose Bikes—Bicycles belonging to his two sons were taken from the front yard of his home Thursday night, Richard McGee, 1020 Trade street, reported to city police Friday. One of the bikes was recovered by police where it was abandoned in the 1100 block of Mill street. The other is still missing.

Ex-Con Held—Kenneth Lawrence Simon, 461 North High street, a parolee of the state penitentiary, was arrested by city detectives Friday on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. Police said he had a loaded .32 caliber pistol under the seat of his car. Simon, who is on parole from a burglary conviction from Lane county, was picked up in West Salem and is now being held in the Polk county jail at Dallas.

3596 Americans

The communists turned over a record 275 Americans yesterday, more than they have freed in any one day. After the completion of the exchange, about 20 Americans, 400 other U.N. prisoners, 14,000 anticommunist Chinese and 6,000 anticommunist Koreans who refuse repatriation will be put into the custody of a neutral commission. Indoctrination officers will be permitted to try to get them to change their minds.

Ike Grants Gift

Last Tuesday Eisenhower made public a reply assuring Zuhedi the United States would give "sympathetic consideration" to his appeal.

Today the summer White House issued this statement: "In response to a request for urgent assistance from the new government of Iran, the President has made available on an emergency basis 45 million dollars which will be used for the immediate economic assistance of Iran in accordance with the procedures of the Foreign Operations Administration under the Mutual Security Act.

"This amount is in addition to existing United States technical assistance and military programs in Iran.
"To Restore Stability
"There is great need for immediate assistance to restore a measure of stability and establish a foundation for greater economic development and improvement in the living standards for all the people of Iran.
"It is hoped that, with our assistance, there will be an increase in the internal stability of Iran which will allow the development of a healthy economy to which an early effective use of Iran's rich resources will contribute."

Tension Grows

The Adriatic frontier region, long disputed between Italy and Yugoslavia, is now an international free territory divided into two zones pending a settlement of its future. British and U.S. troops occupy one section, including the port, and Yugoslavia's administrators the other.

Exchanges between Italy and Yugoslavia over the issue have grown more bitter in the last few days despite expressions of confidence by leaders of both countries that the new flare-up need not lead to anything critical. Western diplomats have urged a policy of calm.

Former State Official Dies
Willis S. Moore, 83, who was for 27 years Oregon's first assistant attorney general and for 15 years a member of the faculty of Willamette Law College, died Friday night in a Salem hospital.
Moore and Mrs. Moore had continued to live in Salem after his retirement July 1, 1947, and their late home was in the Lee Apartments, 585 North Winter. He had been in declining health for several years.
Funeral services will be Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. at the Clough-Barrick chapel, with a private service at a Portland mausoleum.
Moore's service in the office of the attorney general began November 1, 1920. He was graduated in 1906 from the Law College of Northwestern University and was admitted to the bar in Illinois and then in Oregon. He practiced in Portland from 1908 to 1920.
Before coming to Oregon he taught school in Illinois for a number of years and for 15 years was with the United States railway mail service.
While in the office of the attorney general he represented Oregon in several cases before the United States Supreme Court in which constitutional questions of wide interest were involved.
On October 21, 1896, he was married to Edith E. Krause at Troy Grove, Ill.
He was a member of Troy Grove Lodge, AF & AM, Salem Lodge 336, BPO Elks, Chadwick Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and member and past elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Salem.
He is survived by his widow; and the following nieces and nephews: Lois E. Moore of Chicago, Mrs. Helen Ford of Minneapolis, Mrs. Charles Mercer, Mrs. Helen Sigel, Raymond Wright and Rudolph Krause, all of Portland. Six brothers, including the late Dr. Ralph V. Moore of Portland, and three sisters are not now living.

Hundreds Attend Strain Reception
A farewell reception for Rev. and Mrs. Dudley Strain Friday night at the First Christian church, drew hundreds of communicants and friends who wished them success in their new location—Lubbock, Tex.
Well wishers began congregating at the church well in advance of the time fixed for the reception line. The foyer of the modern structure as well as the large room in which the reception was held were decorated with a profusion of flowers.
Rev. Strain and family will leave Monday for the Lubbock pastorate. There he will have a million dollar plant, completely paid for and a large staff of associates.
Lubbock, in the western central portion of Texas, is in the heart of the cotton growing section.
Rev. Strain has been in Salem for 11 years, during which time a modern church building costing approximately $400,000 has been constructed.

McCarthy Asks Army to Explain
Washington (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) today asked Secretary of the Army Stevens to tell Senate investigators why the Army won't provide names of military personnel who cleared civilians suspected of Communist activities.
Declaring it was just as important to find out who gave clearance to a Communist as it was to locate a Red, McCarthy had said earlier he would appeal to Secretary of Defense Wilson or even to President Eisenhower for the information, if necessary.
But he told a news conference today he hopes "we don't have to go any higher than Stevens."
"Stevens had nothing to do with that order," McCarthy added. "But we would like to have him come in Tuesday, if that is convenient with him, to testify in a closed session of the committee about the situation."

Max Conrad Arrives 26 Hours Late, No Reception
By DAVE CROWWELL
Well, Max Conrad finally made it—26 hours late. And what had been planned as a bang-up reception turned into a decided fizzle.
Thursday was the day the flying Paul Revere, who is flying to all 48 state capitals with words of greeting from various national leaders in aviation in celebration of the "50 Years of Powered Flight," was supposed to have landed at the Salem naval air facility. To be greeted was the governor, civil air patrol representatives, director of the state board of aeronautics, and Junior Chamber of Commerce representatives.
So at the appointed time of 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon all the "brass" was there to greet the aviator. A flight of CAP members was lined up neatly as an honor guard for the Paul Revere. In short, everyone was there but Conrad.
After much waiting, it was finally learned that Paul Revere's "horse" had stubbed its toe, and would have to be taken to the smithy's shop. Conrad had been forced down in Cle Elum, Wash.
So, all at the airport departed, most of which decided to get some of that "boughien and paid for" food at the Senator which had been prepared as a banquet to honor Conrad. So the banquet was held, speakers and all; that is all except Conrad, of course.
Well, by 6:15 Friday evening, Paul Revere finally came galloping in. He hastily dismounted and greeted his wellcomers. There were only 10.
Long gone were the brass bands, the police escort, the crowds awaiting his presentation at the capitol building. Paul had to settle for some hot broth at a local hotel and then bed down for the night. Bright and early this morning he saddled up and galloped off.

H. F. Warren Dies in Calif.
Albany—Word was received here from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher of Albany who are at Paradise, Calif., that Mrs. Fisher's father, H. F. Warren, 81, one-time Linn county commissioner and retired Linn county farmer, died Wednesday at Paradise, where he and Mrs. Warren had lived the past several years.
Mr. Warren was a native of Cherokee county, Ia., but had lived in Linn county for nearly half a century. He farmed near Scio for many years and was elected county commissioner in November, 1928, and retired in 1938.
The Warrens also lived in the Millersburg and Shedd districts and had also lived in Albany.
They moved to Yakima from here where they lived until moving to Paradise.
Surviving are the widow, a son, Oscar C. Colahoo, Alberta, Canada and five daughters, Mrs. Guy Wallace, Montevideo, Minn.; Mrs. Edna Marquart, Portland; Mrs. May S. Scholz, Longview, Wash.; Mrs. Isabella Fisher, Roseburg and Mrs. Harold Fisher, Albany, four brothers and a sister. The funeral was held in Paradise, Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Dudley Strain (center) were greeted by hundreds of First Christian church members and friends Friday night. The Strains are leaving for Lubbock, Texas, after being affiliated with the local church for 11 years.

Newest Motorcycles Showing at Fair
The first showing of the new 1954 Golden Anniversary model Harley-Davidson motorcycles will be at the Oregon State Fair this week.
They represent the culmination of all the work and effort of 50 years of building quality motorcycles, a tribute to an epoch in American industry and to a company that has done its part in making America great.
The new models have more horsepower than ever before, but with improved brakes and several new safety features, they are safer than ever, too.
After the State Fair closes these new Harley-Davidsons will be on display at Scott's Motorcycle Center at 315 Mission street.
New Elks Night—The first in a new series of "Elk Party Nights" will be held at the temple at 8 p. m. September 12.
