St. Paul Schools Prepare To Open Classes Sept. 14

St. Paul—All three of the St. Paul schools will open the 1953-54 school year Monday, Sept. 14. The St. Paul Union High School will start at 8:45 a. m., the same as in previous years and all students are urged to be present at that time for registration. The faculty will have just one change from last year, that being a home economics teacher to replace Mrs. Sue Glatt. Mrs. Jennie June Magnuson of Woodburn, a graduate of Oregon State College, will teach home economics and be in charge of the library and girls' physical education.

Woodburn

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Julius Peet of Salem have purchased the Poorman residence at 199 Settlemier Ave. in Woodburn and moved into their new home last week. Mr. Peet is employed at the MacLaren School for Boys. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ahre and children have left for Idaho where they will spend a week's vacation visiting friends.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lamb during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKellip of Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Peyton have returned from a vacation trip of almost 1500 miles in their car. They first visited Detroit Dam and then went on to Burns where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Woolley, formerly of Woodburn. Other places visited were Owyee Dam, Couer d'Alene, Idaho, Spokane, Grand Coulee Dam, Umatilla Dam, the dam near The Dalles and Celilo Falls. They were absent a week.

Recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. K. Sanderson were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Peters of Portland. Peters recently returned from an extensive trip through Canada, along with about 85 members of the Columbia Aviation country club of which he is a member. Also a guest was Miss Bonnie Way of Portland, granddaughter of the Sandersons.

Guests at the A. P. Zuber home recently were Mr. and Mrs. John Welles of Alpha, Minn. Mrs. Welles and Mrs. Zuber, who are double cousins, had not seen each other for over 30 years. The Welles had been visiting their son, stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash. Other visitors in the Zuber home were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Workman of Tacoma, Wash.

Charles Sheron, former coach at Woodburn high school, is attending a special insurance course at the home office of the Acme Casualty and Surety Co., at Hartford, Conn.

EXHIBIT JERSEYS

Grand Island—Frank Finnium and son, Ronald Finnium, dairymen of Grand Island district, have taken some of their registered Jersey cattle to Salem to the Oregon State Fair grounds for exhibition during the annual fair.

Dayton—Mrs. Gordon Cook and baby of Wenatchee, Wash., visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Veach recently.

Also recent visitors in the Veach home were his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Berggren of Sheridan and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Freshour of Beatrice, Neb.

Mrs. Charles Jaquish and family of Cottage place, Wash., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Timm, last week.

Mrs. Joe Dreher returned home Saturday, August 25, from Bozeman, Mont., where she has been visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buckley, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Olson have as houseguests her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rinke of Britton, S.D. They plan to locate in Oregon.

The Christian Woman's Fellowship of the Christian church is sponsoring a "Luncheon Is Served" program Saturday, September 19, at the Dayton grade school cafeteria, with Ruby Smith Willis of Portland in charge.

A program for homemakers has been arranged and many prizes will be given. Also a home cooked sale will be held following the program. A nursery room with baby sitters in charge will be convenient for those who have small children.

Mrs. Ralph Timm and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Grover visited Theola Grover at the T.B. Sanatorium in Salem Thursday. They found Theola improving and able to be up and around part of the time. Theola has been confined in Salem for the past year.

Miss Lois Rockhill, daughter of Mrs. Lulu Rockhill, left August 29 for Wilmore, Ky., where she plans to stay indefinitely. She will visit her sister and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Lamb, and will be employed as a nurse in a Lexington, Ky., hospital. She is a graduate nurse and has been employed in the General hospital in McMinnville.

Miss Jane Mills left Tuesday by plane for Lincoln, Neb., having been called there by the serious illness of her father, F. R. Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson returned Friday from a two-weeks' vacation at the Harrison Hot Spring in Canada and with her mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Youngs in Seattle.

Miss Patricia Huffman returned last week from Alaska, where she had been employed by the government as a nurse at Edgewood, Alaska, in native service since last April.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crane and daughters visited her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hunter, at Astoria, Sunday.

The Harry Wilson family has rented the Dewey Williamson house and moved Tuesday.

Mrs. June Harvey and two children have moved into the James Parkey residence. They are former residents of Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Clare and family recently spent their vacation in Idaho visiting relatives. They went to Lake McCall while there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Petre of Myrtle Point spent a weekend here with his sister, Mrs. Cleto Gell. Their two children have been spending the summer in the Gell home.

The first fall meeting of Electa Chapter No. 29 will be on Tuesday, September 8, with Sheridan and Amy chapters as guests.

Dinner guests of Mrs. Vedah Wilard and Sylvia on Tuesday were Mrs. Marian Edwards and children of Yawima, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Masy and children; Miss Elsie Herring; Miss Annabelle Nelson; Mrs. Carolyn Smith. Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kraus and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Krest and daughter of Cambridge, Neb. The Dale Masy's entertained at dinner Wednesday, with a few friends in. Mrs. Kraus will be remembered as Gladys Herring, niece of Miss Elsie Herring of McMinnville.

Woodburn Boys Enroll at WU

Woodburn—Graduates of Woodburn high school planning to enter Willamette University this fall include L. Duane Baird, Robert D. Baumann, Paul E. Edwards, Willard L. Thompson and Robert L. Withers.

During high school Baird earned three letters in baseball and two in basketball. Baumann, who plans to major in voice, was vice president of the senior class, a member of the Lettermen's club and DeMolay and president of the Woodburn high school chorus. Edwards, winner of the outstanding band member award of 1952, was on the student council and chairman of the 1953-54 handbook. He is a member of DeMolay and Boy Scouts.

Thompson, former vice president of the student body, will enroll as a pre-medicine student. He was a member of the student council, chorus and DeMolay, annual and paper staffs and dramatics.

Withers, student body president for 1953, plans to major in business administration. He won letters in basketball, baseball and football at high school and was a member of the chorus and DeMolay.

Lebanon Reports Population Gain
Lebanon—Latest estimates of the Chamber of Commerce places city population at 6,300. In 1950 the official census placed population at 5,800.

Commenting on the growth, Mel Baker, president of the chamber, stated the recent growth was slower than that immediately following the close of the war, but that it has been a more permanent type of growth.

"With business and industry becoming stabilized, people are now looking for a permanent place to live and work. Lebanon has certainly been getting its share of this new population," he pointed out.

Mother Arrested Along With Her Son
Albany, Ore. (AP)—Louis E. Stogsdill, 23, of Shedd, jailed Friday on a charge of assault and armed robbery, was joined Saturday by his mother.

The mother, Mrs. Lottie Stogsdill, 40, was charged with being an accessory.

In district court for arraignment Saturday, they were given until Wednesday to plead. The charge against the mother is that she waited in her son's car outside a grocery store at Peoria, 15 miles south of here, while he held up the proprietor and made off with $20.

Bond of $2,000 was set for each.

Bus Service for Victor Point Students
Silverton—Bus service for the young folk attending Victor Point school will be available for transporting them from their homes, Monday morning, Sept. 14, between 7:30 and 8:30 o'clock, and will return them to their homes by noon, as only registration for class work will be done on that day.

Youngsters are to bring their birth certificates and to have had physical examinations. Serving of hot lunches and regular class work will begin Tuesday, Sept. 15, according to the principal, Mrs. Larry Carpenter.

Monmouth—All students new to Central high school this year are to register as soon as possible. The school area includes Monmouth, Independence and surrounding areas. The school office is open daily except Saturday afternoon, Sundays and Labor Day from 9 to 12 noon and from 1 to 5 p. m. Working students may register on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Only new students are to register now. Returning students will be notified if there are conflicts in their class schedules and they should report at once to clear their schedules. All students entering Central high school for the first time must have a physical examination and physicians in the school district have been supplied the forms to be brought on opening day.

The class of 1943 of the Monmouth high school held a reunion at the Clarence Grund farm with 11 of the class of 21 attending, with eight husbands or wives and 11 children also present. Clarence Grund, Jr., came the farthest, from Birmingham, Ala.; second farthest was Jane Miller Armstrong and husband, Rev. Ray Armstrong, coming from Eureka, Kan. Matthew Thompson, principal of the high school from 1937 to 1943 was present. All men of the class were in the service in World War II, and two were in active duty in the Korean conflict. Mrs. William Leber, Jr. (Ruth Groves), South Bend, Wash., will send to members absent an account of the gathering and activities of the class members during the past ten years.

Hans Riepe, a 16-year-old German exchange student, will enter Central high school this fall as a senior. He will live with Mr. and Mrs. John McRae in the Oak Grove district for a year. His home is at Enger, in the Hereford district in western Germany. He is interested in farming and engineering and also sports.

Joan and Wayne Robison of Terrebonne are visiting their grandmothers, Mrs. Sylvia Robison. Wayne, age 11, is recovering from a badly burned left leg. He was burning out and hills the last of June with gasoline and the can tipped over and he received the burns while putting it out. Skin was grafted on his leg and it was put in a cast on the third degree burns and after a month in hospital and convalescent home it is healing nicely.

Mrs. James Gentle left by train Monday to visit relatives and friends in Wisconsin and plans to be gone a month.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hassler of Phillipsburg, Kan., are visiting their son, C. A. Hassler and family. The two families went to Roseburg Thursday to visit a son and brother, Clifford Hassler and will go on to San Luis Obispo, Calif., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hassler.

A "Care" food package to be sent now and a textile package to be sent later was voted by the Monmouth Thimble club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ivy Hamar. Scrap books for the Shrine hospital in Portland will be made at the next meeting to be held with Mrs. W. J. Stockholm, Sept. 23.

Matthew Thompson is now at home after a trip as a navigator with the navy on a routine weather flight over the north pole. They went from Point Barrow, Alaska, north to the pole and along the north border.

Silverton

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Borte and children are spending the week-end in Washington, attending the old-time harvest festival near Chasals, where an early-day steam engine and early-day threshing machine are operating.

The Maurice Bensons are having "double trouble" that has been serious worry. Their 6-year-old son, Victor, is recovering from a bad case of blood poisoning, due to an unexplained injury to his foot, requiring surgery and hospitalization. A younger sister of Victor is a patient in a Portland hospital under treatment for a burn in the palm of her hand, resulting in the need of skin grafting to insure proper healing.

The Bensons are residents of the Silverton Hills.

Fairview—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews of Fairview returned home Thursday after Farnam, Neb., with cousins and friends. Their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burchett, and family, took them by car but returned in a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Applebury and family of Salem had charge of the home during the Andrews absence.
