

At Wednesday Races—Former Governor and Mrs. Oswald West are shown above in a box of the grandstands at the races, Wednesday, the couple coming from Portland especially for the day. The 8th race was for the Oswald West purse, and the former governor and his wife were introduced from the judges' stand. Many friends came to their box and greeted them in the grandstands. Mr. West showed effects of his recent illness, but he had the usual twinkle in his eye and his usual quick wit in his conversation.

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

A trek to the State Fair Wednesday afternoon, found a goodly number of Salem folk taking in events for "Salem Day."

On the steps of the administration building in the early afternoon Princess Luana and Elana, two of the principals in the night revue, were busy making leis from fresh orchids that just arrived by plane from Hawaii, several of the show east selling them on the grounds . . . Chattering with them a bit was Helene Hughes, producer of the show . . . Helene is to be hostess at a Hawaiian luau party at the close of the show Saturday evening, inviting some of the Salem friends who have worked with her during her stay at the Fair. . . . The suckling pig for the feast is to be cooked in the Hawaiian setting, in the floral display, starting about noon in order to have the meat thoroughly done and flavored with all the herbs and seasonings that go with it by the time the supper is to be eaten . . .

Among out-of-towners seen on the grounds Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bailey of Roseburg, greeting many Salem friends; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Stewart of Oswego; State Representative and Mrs. Earl Hill of Cushman; State Representative and Mrs. Robert Stewart of Baker . . . Spotted among Salem folk during the afternoon, some at the races, others on the grounds: The Rev. and Mrs. George H. Swift; the Carlton J. McLeods; Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Chambers; the Merrill D. Ohlings; Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson; Mrs. William Paulus; Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Boise; Mr. and Mrs. John Steelhammer; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Krueger; Mrs. Robert E. Joseph; Mrs. L. R. Burdette; Judge and Mrs. Joseph B. Felton; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Chambers, all together at the races; Mrs. Leon Perry; Mrs. Edward Roth; Mrs. Frank Myers and Mrs. Scott Page; Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wood; former Governor and Mrs. Oswald West and their nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Willis West, all of Portland, with Mrs. William H. A Tribute to... The Farmer!

From the soil comes the sustenance of the world. From the hard-working man who tills the soil comes the fruits of Nature in bountiful array. God loves the Farmer, someone has said, because he is in such close communion with the good earth. He plants it. He worries over it. And lo, then his smiling fields are lush and abundant with tassels, tomatoes and all the things we eat. Fat cows and porkers give us milk and meat. And Mrs. Farmer has chickens and turkeys for the market. Without the Farmer there would be no life or living. Let's salute his sun-up to sunset existence . . . and be grateful for his bounty!
