Quincy Probst Dies at Albany

Albany—Quincy E. Probst, 92, one time Linn county sheriff and member of a prominent Linn county pioneer family, died at his home on Albany, RFD, 1, Tuesday.

Mr. Probst's father, John Wesley Probst, died in 1939 at the age of 102 years after having spent most of his life in Linn county.

Quincy Probst was born on the John Powell farm on the South Santiam river, and had spent his entire life in Linn county. He was graduated from Albany college in 1886.

He served as a deputy sheriff from 1894 to 1896 and from 1904 to 1906 but otherwise farmed all of his life.

Surviving are two children, Mrs. Charles B. Reynolds, Portland, and Elmer E. Probst, RFD 1, Albany; seven grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. The funeral will be held at the Fisher Funeral home Saturday at 2 p.m. with burial in the Central cemetery near Albany.

A porcupine may have as many as 30,000 quills.

Office open Saturday only 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. & 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Constipation, blood pressure and urine tests are free of charge. Practiced since 1917. Write for attractive gift. No advertising.
