Sampling of press box opinion we took the other day would indicate that the older horse, Tom Fool, will command heavier backing than Native Dancer in their dream race, notwithstanding the latter's tremendous two-season record and the fact he will have a pull in the weights. Some who picked the Fool said they would switch their choice if the race were to be at a mile and a half. They think the Dancer needs a lot of running room. The Yankees broke every rull of baseball superstition by holding their "victory" celebration on the train coming home from the West the other day. The thought of throwing a winging before the flag is clinched sends shudders down many spines, but the Bombers feel they are above such childish fantasies, and maybe they are. Perhaps more significant in any preview of the big play-off is the fact that Billy Loes, the younger and most unpredictable of the Brooklyn pitchers, turned in a four-hitter against the Phils on Labor day. This was indeed something, because Billy had not gone the route in two months and Manager Charlie Dressen was beginning to wonder if he ever would again. If Billy has come out of his trance it is important series news, for there had been a question of which Dodger hurler outside Carl Erskine, Prescher Roe and Russ Meyer might be risked a start against the Yanks. A Loes at his best could make a great difference.

'WHERE'S MINE?'

In bear language, that is what the cub on the left could be saying as his six-month-old brother bruin finishes off a soft drink at National airport after their arrival in Washington, D.C. The bears, captured by South Korean soldiers, are gifts of Syngman Rhee to President Eisenhower who plans to turn them over to the zoo—the White House grounds not being equipped as a bear sanctuary. The friendly critters practically beamed as children petted them at the airport. (AP Wirephoto)

New York (AP)—The Dodgers can clinch a tie for their seventh and most easily attained pennant today and if that doesn't make the Yankees sit up and take notice, wait until they hear about Bob Milliken.

Krupicka, Other Stars Return to Molalla Team

(This is one of a series of articles on the prospects of high school football teams in this area. Watch for the story on your favorite team.) By KRIS KOWITZ, JR. (Capital Journal Sports Editor) Bolstered by 13 returning lettermen, including left half George Krupicka, one of the top athletes in the Willamette Valley league last year, the Molalla high school Indians are set to open their 1953 season at Resurrection field in Molalla September 19 against Sweet Home. Last season Molalla wound up in third place in the Willamette Valley league. Molalla's overall record last year was four wins, three losses and one tie. Coach Marvin Hiebert has a total of five backfielders returning. In addition to Krupicka, they are quarterbacks Stan Childers and Tim Brownhill; and halfbacks John Dittick and Leonard Feyrer. Although there is no returning fullback the Indians are blessed by a transfer, Roy Howell, who lettered at the fullback slot in a California school last year. Another transfer coming to Molalla this year is Jim Hemphill, a guard from Maupin. Linemen-lettermen coming back at Molalla include ends Kenneth Naylor and Duane Vetter; tackles Jim Alexander, J. B. Massey and Mark Maber; guards David DeFrates and Norman Kemper; and center Roger Phelps. Other prospects for the 1953 Indians include ends Jim Reed and Charles Sarty; tackle Duena Felix; guards Jim Dresszen, Jim Corkcett and Daryl Barbee; and center Bill Maben. Ralph Capasso is assisting Hiebert in coaching the Indians. Al Grove is the Molalla junior varsity coach.

Sacred Heart Opens Grid Season at Mt. Angel Friday

Sacred Heart's Cardinals open their 1953 grid campaign in a night contest opposite the Mt. Angel Preps Friday, with kickoff time set for 8 o'clock at the Mt. Angel field. The Cards have finished up two weeks of extensive drills and will now start to taper off prior to the Mt. Angel contest. Sacred Heart will probably start a backfield consisting of Vince Matt at quarterback, Clyde Fladwood, a converted tackle at halfback slot, with either Don Endres or Don Lucero at the other halfback post. Endres might possibly see little action as a hip injury has kept him sidelined for a week. Clell Ewing rounds out the backfield at fullback. Coach Leo Grosjacques will go along with letter winners Jim Borsverry at center and Jim Moriarity at an end. The remainder of the forward wall is pretty much undecided, with sophomores and juniors due to see plenty of action. The Cardinals will field a fast backfield and a light forward wall this year. Weight may be a handicap to the Cards' grid fortunes during this season. In contrast to the Sacred Heart team, Mt. Angel is expected to send a big, veteran lineup with many returning lettermen from last year's Willamette Valley league champions onto the field in an effort to avenge a defeat handed them by Sacred Heart two years ago on the Mt. Angel field.
