

CALF BUYS at SAFEWAY

WHAT IS CALF? . . . so that you will know exactly what you are getting when you buy meat at Safeway, we offer the following description:

Meat sold at Safeway that is labeled "calf" is from beef-type Hereford and Angus calves weighing between 200 and 250 pounds and ranging in age from 5 to 7 months. The texture of this meat is, in most cases, very similar to veal. In the more mature calves the coloring of the meat may be slightly brighter than veal. The meat is well marbled. You will enjoy its tenderness and fine flavor. And like the beef and lamb sold at Safeway, it is cut from only the top U. S. Government grades of calf.
