

Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—On the occasion of his birthday anniversary, Edward Schaecher was the guest of honor Thursday evening when Mrs. Schaecher entertained in their home. Those present included Henry Schaecher, Mr. and Mrs. William Schaecher, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Huffstutter, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. LeDoux, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond LeDoux and Sharon, George and Mary Lou of Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schaecher, Eddie, Diane and Jeanne Schaecher.

Grand opening of the new Bill's Mount Angel-Richfield station, operated by William Schaecher, was held Saturday, Sept. 5. Balloons for the children, orchids for the women and cigars or key rings for the men were given out during the day.

The new station is a modern structure and adds much to the appearance of the Mount Angel business district.

Mt. Angel—Jillene Ann, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Butsch (Robinette Aman) of Newport, Ore., was baptized Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's catholic church here. Rev. Matthew Butsch, of Pendleton, great uncle of the infant, officiated, and the sponsors were Janice Aman and Richard Zeis, cousins of the infant.

Following the ceremony, a supper was served out-of-doors at the A. J. Butsch home for the Rev. Butsch, the sponsors Janice Aman and Richard Zeis, and Rev. Cyril Lebold, OSB, Rev. Hildebrand Melchior, OSB, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Englehart, great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aman, maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Zeis, Diane Zeis, Mrs. Wilbert Aman and children, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Butsch, the paternal grandparents.

Mrs. John Nag has returned to her home from the Silverton hospital, where she was recovering from an automobile accident, when her car skidded off the highway at Bern's hill, south of town. She is spending part of the time with her daughter-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doran in Gervais.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Fleckenstein, born Aug. 24, was baptized in St. Mary's Catholic church, and given the name of Beverly Joan. Rev. Cyril Lebold, OSB, officiated. Godparents were Mardel Fleckenstein, older sister of the baby, and Ernest Gruber of Pierz, Minn., uncle of the infant. Cletus Duerr, a cousin, was proxy for Mr. Gruber.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shaffer and son Tommy of Duarte, Calif., returned to their home after a visit of several days at the home of Mrs. Schaffer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brockhaus. They were accompanied home by their other son, Matt, who had been visiting his grandparents here and other relatives in Portland for the past six weeks.

Miss Rose Brockhaus, sister of Joseph Brockhaus, returned to her home in Humphrey, Neb., after spending seven weeks on the west coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Brockhaus entertained with an outdoor supper at their home. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer, Matt and Tommy of Duarte, Calif., Miss Rose Brockhaus, Humphrey, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nelson and Douglas and Nancy Ann of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Obersinner had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nigro of Spokane, Wash., and their son, Armand Nigro, S. J., who recently returned from a two-year's stay at Holy Cross Mission at Holy Cross, Alaska. The Nigros showed colored slides of the activities at the Holy Cross Mission in which pictures of LeRoy Obersinner, S. J., who is stationed at the mission, were seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shirey of Eugene and her son, Joe Shirey, S. J., of Spokane, Wash., were additional guests of the Obersinners on Friday.

Mayor Jacob Berchtold has asked the citizens of Mt. Angel to assist in the "Aid to Korea Week" campaign, which is being observed throughout Oregon Sept. 7 to 13, by giving personal donations to offer immediate relief to millions of displaced, sick and wounded Koreans.

The mayor has made arrangements with the Rev. Cyril Lebold, O.S.B., pastor of St. Mary's parish, so that all donations for this cause may be left at or sent to the Parish House.

Mt. Angel Garden club will meet at the country home of Mrs. Marcus Wampach on Wednesday, Sept. 9, at 8 p.m. Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. John Drescher and Mrs. Wampach.
