Lot of the bowlers down at Duane Cushman's Ferry street house have been clamoring for a faster bowling league for this city, one that will really be extra special. Now it looks like the league may be getting underway sometime in the near future. Plans are for a Premier league to bowl every other Saturday afternoon during the winter with about six or eight teams of four men each. It will be a restricted league composed of all the top bowlers in the city and none can enter who do not average over 170 with a good chance that the low man in the league to start with may have to average 175 to win a position. League will be experimental this year with the good possibility that it will grow into the city's finest. At any rate, it will give the younger and newer bowlers something to shoot for.

Quick run-down on the leagues at the U-Bowl show that there may be a few less teams shooting this year than last. The Classic league will be reduced to eight or possibly ten teams shooting at the same time as last year. The Mercantile league will again be a twelve team wheel but not returning are the champion Don's Automotive bunch from Turner. The two state house leagues on Wednesday night are all set and will be twelve team leagues again. Both of the Commercial leagues on Thursday night will be down to 10 team leagues this year instead of 12 as in other years. The Friday night's men's city league will go with the same line-up as last year.

The Classic league will go with eight or ten teams but will be a much stronger league than last year when there were a couple of teams that needed a little strengthening. Back to defend, and a good bet to do just that, will be Cupboard Cafe team.

The ladies will have three leagues at the U-Bowl again this year in contrast to the two going at the Capitol. On Monday night, the beginners league will precede the Classic league again and will bowl at 6:30. Then the ladies Classic league will bowl at 6:30 on Tuesday night with probably the same number of teams as last year. On Friday night there will be another beginners league for those gals who didn't get enough bowling on Monday. All in all, a good week of bowling for the fair sex.

This and that... Tom Brennan, captain of the defending city and major league champions looking frantically for a new sponsor and unable to find one so far... John Glodt shooting one big game after another in pot games including 269, 268, 297, etc. Could be the big man's year... Bob Haugen at the U-Bowl unlimbering an arm that hasn't seen much use the last couple of years due to ill health... Many new faces in the Capitol major, guys who went big in the minors and up for a shot at a steady job in the faster loop, guys like Keith Hayes, John Willet, Gene Braucht and Wall "169" average Cline... Many different opinions over the new four game series to go into effect in the majors this year, all agree it may prove to be a lot of fun but how about the guys like me, I always shoot my big game first and then get progressively worse the balance of the evening. That fourth game could molder me... Plans already underway for the city tournament to be held in November this year instead of the usual spring dates... back from the east where he spent the summer attending school in New York and going to baseball games is Larry "I'm really going to settle down and bowl next year" Oslund... The Trailways Cafe already finalizing plans to go to Seattle for the big ABC meet. I understand, tho, that the boys are making reservations to go by Greyhound. That right, Floyd?

First annual Bowling Yearbook out now and contains all the records in the long history of bowling, last year's 200 average club, pictures of all the local, regional and national stars, line-ups of Seattle, etc. They cost one peso and would make a good file for those who are always wanting to know who did what, when and where.

Castellani 5-2 Favorite Over Lombardo

Chicago (AP)—Rocky Castellani, a Cleveland battler who has lost only five of 50 fights while earning the rating of fifth best welterweight in the world, was a 5 to 2 favorite today to whip Johnny Lombardo in the weekly television scrap tonight. Castellani won a split decision over Lombardo in their first battle Sept. 1, 1952, but the Mount Carmel, Pa., fighter put Castellani on the canvas for the first time in his career.

USC Defense Looks Ragged

Los Angeles (AP)—"Ragged" was the description Saturday of Southern California's defense against an offense patterned after Washington State's style. But coach Jess Hill noted that he is still ironing out wrinkles in this department and he said he is not discouraged. One of the best performances was made by an erstwhile offensive player, Harold Han, at the linebacking position.

Harvey Storey To Be Released As Cap Manager

Vancouver, B. C. (AP)—Harvey Storey, manager of the Vancouver Caplans, will be released when his contract expires at the end of this season, General Manager Dewey Soriano said Friday. Soriano said he was "disappointed" by the showing of his club in the second half of the Western International league baseball season. "Harvey and I had a talk," Soriano said, "and we agreed there were no excuses if we weren't in the fight. So then we hit that eight-game losing streak..." Storey, one of the top hitters in the league, said he had an "in case" job lined up when the announcement came, and said he would like to go to Salem Senators as manager. Unofficially suggested as likely to succeed Storey here was Eddie Malone, catcher with Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast league, who Soriano tried to sign last spring.

Fishing on Section of Rogue Halted

Portland (AP)—The State Game Commission Friday ordered fishing halted temporarily in the Rogue River below the California-Oregon Power Co. dam at Winchester. The commission said it was issuing the order to protect fish which would congregate at the base of the dam while fish ladders are closed for repairs. The repairs are to be completed in about two weeks. Mike DeCicco of Portland appeared before the commission, asking that regulations detail a more specific definition of "chumming." He was fined $100 in Roseburg district court recently for throwing bait into a lake from his fishing boat. He denied that he was attempting to attract fish to his fishing site. He said he was merely throwing away old bait. The commission refused his request, saying the regulation was clear.

Warriors Down Dallas, 15-6

Dallas—Lebanon defeated Dallas 15-6 in a high school football game here Friday night. Lebanon got a safety and touchdown in the first period, and another TD in the second stanza. The touchdowns were scored by Malcolm McBride and Dixon. Dallas' lone touchdown was registered in the fourth period, with Davis tossing to Rex Domaschofsky for eight yards and the score.

Assassin Fails To Kill Sultan

Rabat, Morocco (AP)—An unidentified Arab tried to run down the Sultan of Morocco with an ancient automobile Friday as the ruler rode his white horse to the mosque for traditional Friday prayers. The would-be assassin was quickly killed by the guns of the imperial guard. Sultan Mouley Mohammed Ben Arafa escaped injury and continued to the mosque for the regular Moslem Sabbath prayers. The Sultan was approaching the Touqara mosque surrounded by his mounted palace guard when the car creened down the road toward the party at high speed. The crowd of curious quickly to see the Sultan, gathered scattered and the car broke through the guard ranks and bumped the Sultan's horse. An off-duty member of the guard jumped on the running board of the car and saw a butcher knife in the driver's hand. The guards' guns quickly cut the Arab down.

HORSES AT FAIR

No Major Upsets Recorded In Prep Football Openers

By JIM COUR (AP News Service Sports Writer) No major upsets were recorded the first Friday night of the long Oregon high school football season, but some of the highly rated teams were involved in surprising scores. North Bends veteran squad, one of the favorites for the District 5 championship, was hard pressed to beat Couille, 26-18. Marshfield, which lost most of its 1952 district title team, had an easy time with Myrtle Point, 32-0. Eugene, another leading contender in the district, battered Roseburg, 33-0.

Grants Pass, which represented District 6 in the 1952 Class A playoffs, showed strength in defeating Roosevelt, one of the Portland city league favorites, 26-13. Medford whipped Ashland, 20-6. Klamath Falls, the other District 6 team, plays Grant of Portland Saturday. Central Catholic of Portland, the defending state champion, lambasted a highly regarded Albany team, 18-0. Salem, Corvallis and Bend, favored with Albany in District 8, each turned in victories.

Salem impressed by routing Cleveland of Portland, 21-0. Corvallis blanked Newberg, 20-0. Bend, 1952 district champion, edged Madras, 6-0. The Dalles, District 7 titlist, downed Battle Ground, Wash., 26-0. Pendleton lost to Prineville, state A-2 champion, 12-7. La Grande crushed Union, 33-0, and Hermiston shaded Kennewick, Wash., 12-6. Milwaukie, which will challenge Central Catholic for the district 3 title, battered Hillsboro, District 4 champion, 25-7. McMinnville established itself as a formidable District 4 contender by routing Washington of Portland, 32-0. Oregon City, a favorite in the district, was nosed out by Gresham of District 3, 15-12. Jefferson, 1952 Portland league champion, downed Vancouver, Wash., 13-0. Benson, runner-up and state finalist last year, meets Kelso Saturday. In other games Astoria fell before Longview, Wash., 25-0; Lebanon beat Dallas, 15-6; Redmond defeated Sweet Home, 14-6; Tigard beat St. Helens, 13-6; Springfield downed Cottage Grove, 12-6; Silverton whipped Clatskanie, 33-6; Beaverton beat Lincoln of Portland, 13-7; Rainier shaded Food River, 7-6; and Vernonia won by the same score from Forest Grove.

Compromise in Columbia Pact

Yakima (AP)—The Columbia River Interstate Compact Commission sought Friday to compromise on the touchy and controversial question of hydroelectric power allocation. Members of the commission, representatives of power commissions of six Northwest states agreed that the compact which they are setting up should include decisions on power allocations. But the upstream and the downstream states split on the question of how much authority over power allocation the compact should have. The only action taken during Friday's session was to appoint a subcommittee which will have the job of bringing together the views of the various states on the power phase of the compact. This followed Montana's statement for the upstream states that they should be assured the right to power generated within their borders and a share of power from downstream plants fed by storage dams at the headquarters.

Brand Hits at Bricker's Bill

Portland (AP)—Justice James T. Brand of the Oregon Supreme Court said Friday that if the so-called Bricker amendment had been in force, the Korean armistice would not have been possible. Brand, speaking at the Portland City Club, criticized the constitutional amendment proposed by Sen. Bricker (R., Ohio) which would restrict the President's treaty-making power. Under the Berlin airlift would not have been possible and 12 of the 23 treaties approved by the last Senate would have been unconstitutional, he said. "It would make practically impossible any trade agreements abroad... would commit mayhem on the treaty making power clearly provided by the Constitution... emasculate the power of the President and hamstring the Senate," Brand declared.

Safeway Stores Biggest Buyer at Fat Stock Sale

Safeway Stores was the biggest buyer at the State Fair 4-H and FFA fat stock auction yesterday. They bought 61 animals, more than twice as many as any other purchaser. Included were 24 steers, 20 pigs and 17 lambs. Thirty animals went to Swift & Co., the same number to Valley Packing company, Marion Hotel bought 20, Farm Bureau Federation 20, Armour & Co., six lambs. There were only 20 buyers in all. Prices paid for pigs held up well, being less than one-half cent per pound below the 1952 average price of 29.86 cents per pound. Average prices for lambs was practically 10 cents per pound less than last year but ran between five and six cents above present stockyards market quotations. But it was different on steers, one pen went through the ring at five and one-half cents per pound less than the stockyards market price for that grade posted at the sale. Junior steer feeders took quite a pocketbook beating and it was a discouraged lot of youngsters who gathered in the barn after the sale. Average on their 66 steers was 25.50 cents per pound, last year the average was 37.46. From the grand champion which brought 42 cents per pound to the final pen of three which went at 17 1/2 cents, the steers were said to have lost their owners between $20 and $54 per head. This loss includes only original cost of the animal and feed outlay not counting the time necessary for care, fitting and feeding the animal. To secure the high quality animals desirable for show purposes, some of the youngsters paid as high as $150 for feeder calves a year ago. One lad paid $125 for his calf at six months of age, fed him $125 worth of feed, still owes $30 for plus fed during the winter, plus $10 expense coming to and during the fair. He received $240 for the

Post Office at Crabtree Robbed

Albany, Ore. (AP)—The burglary of a post office in a store at Crabtree, 10 miles east of here, was reported to Sheriff George Miller and state police Thursday. Before leaving to investigate they said the combination of the safe was knocked off but that it was not known whether anything had been taken. Postal inspectors from Eugene arrived to join in the investigation. Although the porcupine usually is silent, it is capable of making a number of sounds.

Housewife Burned

Four Corners—Mrs. Ernest Walker, 4035 Mahrt Ave., suffered first and second degree burns on her left arm and hand Wednesday. The accident occurred when Mrs. Walker spilled boiling paraffin over her arm while making jelly. She received first aid treatment but did not go to the hospital. There is no clergy among the Moslems.
