Navajo Boys Pick 27,000 Pounds Beans

Fourth and fifth year boys enrolled in the special Nava-jo program at Chemawa In-dian School answered the call to pick beans to the tune of about 27,000 pounds, and with considerable profit to themselves. themselves.

By arrangement with the superintendent of the Indian school, 43 of the boys, attend-ing the school here from their ing the school here from their reservation in New Mexico and Arizona, were transported to the Werline ranch and Mission Bottom area this week by bus. Supervision of the boys during working hours was by Ora Moore, of the special Navajo vocational staff.

Miss Winifred Kiske, lead-

er of the special Navajo pro-gram, has pointed out that many of the boys have had no opportunity to earn money for themselves during the summer, and that this activity has provided the boys with money to meet personal needs. Further, such partici-pation in a community emer-gency fits well with the overall aims and objectives of the Navajo program.
