Aurora — Married Saturday morning, September 5, in Stevenson, Wash., Galyn (Skip) Leffler, U. S. navy, and his bride, the former Miss Annice Ballard of Manchester, Wash., were given an impromptu reception Saturday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leffler, at Lone Elder.

The newlyweds left for Long Beach, Calif., to make their home while his ship, the U. S. S. Stuckell, is in port there. His bride plans to return to Canby when he receives sea duty orders.

Welcoming the couple as they stopped briefly Saturday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Arden Harms, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stefani, Mrs. William Herkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leffler, Roger Harms, U.S.N., Or-lano Hanson, U.S.N., and Mrs. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hattan, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bolland, John Nordhausen, Mrs. H. H. Oakford, Miss Velma Leffler, Glen Harms, Deanna and Dennis Stefani, Karen Herkamp, Gregory and Gary Hattan.

Mrs. Heggie Home

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Mae Heggie, associate editor of the St. Joseph's magazine, returned home last week after spending the Labor Day holidays at the home of her son, Donald Heggie and family in Seattle.

Sunday afternoon she was called upon to be guest speaker at a luncheon arranged in her honor at the Meany hotel in Seattle by three writers' groups of that city. These included Culver Alumni Fictioneers, League of Western Writers and Writers' Forum. Among the group was Charles Bailey, former Mount Angel grade school teacher, who is breaking into the writers' field.

Mrs. Heggie was the luncheon guest of Mrs. H. Sherburn at the Camlin Cloud room in Seattle on Saturday. Mrs. Sherburn is a contributor to the St. Joseph magazine.

Miss Nelson Wed At Woodburn Aug. 30

Woodburn—A bride of August 30 was Miss Arlyss Nelson of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Nelson of Woodburn, who was wed to Dale Harris, also of Portland, at the Woodburn Immanuel Lutheran church in the afternoon in the presence of more than 100 guests. The Rev. J. William Carlson, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Harris is the son of Mrs. Vera Harris of Portland and Arthur J. Harris in Alaska.

Baskets of pink and white fall flowers and white candles decorated the church. Soloist was Mrs. Ted Landsem, accompanied by Mrs. Glen Ahre, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length strapless dress of white tissue taffeta with rhinestone trimmed bodice, a full bouffant skirt, and brief jacket fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves. The veil of illusion was shoulder length and was held in place by a pleated tiara. The bride carried a colonial bouquet centered with a gardenia corsage.

Miss Renee Weiss of Portland as maid of honor wore a deep fuchsia nylon net strapless dress, ballerina length, worn with a jacket. She wore a tiara of flowers in her hair, and carried a colonial bouquet, similar to that of the bride's.

Charles Esser of Camas, Wash., was best man for Mr. Harris. Ushers were David Cavett of Woodburn, brother-in-law of the bride, and Norman Domeris of Portland.

A reception in the parish hall followed the ceremony. Mrs. David Cavett, sister of the bride, cut the four-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with silver leaves and topped by a tiny bride and bridegroom. Pink and white flowers decorated the serving table. Mrs. Earl Brown of Albany, aunt of the bridegroom, poured coffee and Miss Jacque Berkeley of Salem passed the guest book, and Mrs. Bernard Seiler of Woodburn was at the gift table. Others assisting were Miss Betty Nelson of Portland, Mrs. Edwin Ostrom and Mrs. George Baglien both of Woodburn.

Mr., Mrs. Wells Anniversary Feted

Aurora — Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wells greeted friends and members of their family recently at an open house, observing their golden wedding anniversary. The affair was arranged by their seven children, at the home north of Aurora. The Oklahoma - wed couple have been residents of Oregon since 1944.

A centerpiece of gold and pink rosebuds centered the lace-covered table at which Mrs. George Traudt of Clackamas served the cake. Mrs. Veri O. Wells of Sellwood presided at the punch bowl, with Mrs. Oren H. Wells of Oregon City assisting. Both are daughter-in-laws of the honored pair.

Calling to extend good wishes were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harper, Mrs. Walter Weber, Mrs. O. W. Cripps, Miss Fern Porter, Miss Estelle Sheppard, Mrs. Lou Downen, Mrs. B. P. Plister and Miss Nancy Beck, Mrs. Doris Baker, Mrs. Fred Zachur, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Freese, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Bany, Miss Julia Ann Bany, Miss Kathleen Bany, Mr. and Mrs. George Irwin, Miss Judy Irwin, and Miss Judy Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gors, Miss Pamlee Gors, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Estes, Frances and Dixie Estes, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Traudt, Mr. and Mrs. Gebhardt Traudt, Donald Traudt, Miss Wanda Traudt, Mr. and Mrs. Oren H. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Phillips, Joe and Billy Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Veri O. Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Gors and son Jeffery.

For the wedding trip to the Oregon beaches and Spirit Lake in Washington the bride wore a pink suit with blue accessories and the gardenia corsage from her wedding bouquet. The couple will live in Portland, where they are both employed.
