and by-laws of the organization.

The Salem Federation of Patriotic Orders was organized in 1930 and its membership consists of 28 veterans, auxiliary and patriotic groups. Since 1930 the federation has assumed the responsibility of promoting the Armistice, Memorial and other patriotic parades and memorial ceremonies. In the past it has performed an important function in the sponsorship and assistance in prometing programs and banquets for citizens.

"Purpose, to organize all patriotic orders in Salem in a patriotic fellowship and good will service. To promote greater love of patriotism and loyal service to our country. To promote the maintenance of unqualified American citizenship with respect for and honor to the flag."

That is from the original bylaws of the Salem Federation of Patriotic Orders written and approved by the federation just 23 years ago.

James Callaway, president of the federation, found some interesting facts recently while looking over the constitution and by-laws of the organization.

Early records of the organ-ization do not designate the neral chairmon of Armistice Day and special programs. It is assumed that a number of the past presidents served in that capacity during their term of office. Brig. Gen. Carle Abrams possibly has been called upon to perform the duties of general chairman, master of ceremon-ies, grand marshal, etc., more than any other ex-veteran or Salem citizen. Others who have served in recent years as gen-eral chairman for Armistice Day parade and program are Dougles Parks, O. E. Palmateer, Walter Kirk, Robert Powlell, John Teselle, A. D.
