

Angus Sale Nets $129,700

Baker (AP)—The second annual Angus sale here set a record this week for the highest prices for any sale in the Northwest this fall.

Arnold Weed, sales manager, reported the Baker sale topped two recent sales of commercial Angus in Montana. The top prices there were $23.50 for individual steers and 18 cents for pen lots.

Sold here were 1,487 head of commercial cattle for $129,700. Thirty-two head of range bulls were sold, with the champion going for $680. Top price for an individual steer was $27.50 per hundred weight.

Keizer

Keizer—The executive meeting of the Keizer PTA will be held Thursday, at 8 o'clock at the new Cummings school.

The grange will hold a rummage sale in the store next to Fitts Market on Nov. 13.

The Keizer Garden club members and their families will meet for their customary Thanksgiving dinner at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 17. Each member is asked to bring his own table service. This year the dinner will be held at the grange hall. The club will have as its guests all those who have been guest speakers on the year's program. Mrs. W. E. Savage, phone 37460, may be contacted for reservations.

The grange hall boasts a new coat of paint.

Officers of the grange elected at the last meeting are master, Ernest Savage; overseer, Clifford Orey; secretary, Kenneth Hutchins; treasurer, Alvin Fleming; chaplain, Lena Eitner; lecturer, Ruby Girod; steward, John Johnson; lady steward, Agnes Lutz; assistant steward, Floyd Lutz; gatekeeper, Fred Wolf; Pamona, Wilda Savage; Ceres, Thelma Evans; Flora, Mildred Johnson; and pianist, Elsa Black.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson have just returned from a trip to California. They spent a month visiting their son, and various relatives and friends.

Explorer post 41 received a new member, Deloss Friesen. This makes about 20 members. The majority of the troop went to Portland to see the show "The Robe." They will have their annual inspection of the troop next Monday, Nov. 16, in full uniform.

Allen Lightner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Lightner, celebrated his 8th birthday with a party at his home at 630 Manbrin Drive, on Nov. 10. His guests included Dick Breedlove, David Wagner, Eddie Gabriel, Carl Meyers, Steven Sullivan, Jimmy Sheldon, Tommy Ewing, Jim Hoxey, Barbara Hoxey, Wayne Bressler and Clair Mumau.

REBELS HIDE

La Paz, Bolivia (AP)—Bolivian officials say the leader of Monday's abortive coup and 13 other political revolutionists have taken refuge in the Uruguayan legation to avoid arrest. Two others are reported holding out in the Venezuelan embassy.

The body of a typical adult man contains a little over five quarts of blood.
