Gates

Gates — Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pennick from Cottage Grove were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Anderson, former California friends of the Pennick family. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Willis observed their eighth wedding anniversary at their home Sunday, Nov. 8. Those present for the occasion were Mr. Willis' mother, Mrs. Margaret Willis of Salem, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mrs. and Mrs. Harold Schmidt of Vancouver, Wash.

Pupils of the sixth grade in the Gates school surprised their teacher, Mrs. Margie Anderson Friday afternoon with a party. They presented her with a wedding gift and assisted by Mrs. Elmer Klutke served cake and punch. Mrs. Anderson was to be married the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mulligan visited in Klamath Falls on Wednesday through Saturday at the home of Mulligan's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mulligan. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Newberg cared for their business, The Chili Bowl, during their absence.

Mayor and Mrs. W. R. Hutchison attended the wedding of their son, Richard Parker and Mrs. Margie Anderson, in Vancouver, Wash., Saturday, Nov. 1. Also present were the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Major and Mrs. Jack Brown.

Don Miley, superintendent of the Gates schools, announces the following students who made the honor roll for the first six weeks period of the junior-senior high school.

Seventh grade—Susan Gordon, Ronnie Kuhlman and Jim White.

Eighth—Margaret Palmer.

Ninth — Ellen Chance and Donalee Oliver.

Tenth—Lois Evans and May Hayward.

Eleventh — John Barnhardt and Loretta Stahlman.

At the city election held on Tuesday, Nov. 3, A. T. Barnhardt and Ray Lord were elected to serve on the city council. Both men have served in that capacity before, Lord having served as mayor for some time, following Jerry Lyons. Percy Mulligan, who was not a candidate, received a number of write-in votes.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brisbin had as their guests the first of the week Mr. Brisbin's two sisters, Mrs. Rose Henning from Houston, Texas, and Mrs. Onna Williams of Roseburg. Mrs. Henning and Mr. Brisbin had not seen each other for 32 years.

The Gates Parent-Teacher association met last week in the auditorium of the high school. The president, Mrs. William Pennick, presided at the business session. It was announced that the pupils of the sixth grade were winners in the recent membership drive, bringing the numbers of the P.T.A. to 55. That room also was awarded the banner which they will hold for a month, for having the largest number of parents present at meetings of the association during the month of October.

The banner was made and presented to the school by Mrs. Kenneth Martig and Mrs. Elmer Klutke.

It was decided to sponsor a dance, to be held in the school gymnasium, Friday evening, Nov. 13. The "Stubby" Mills five-piece orchestra has been engaged to furnish dance music.

Following adjournment the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Edward Chance, chairman of the program committee, who introduced W. S. Wharlow, of Salem, director of Marion county civil defense, speaker of the evening.

Bob Geddes of Salem, representing the Ground Operations Corps, was present and announced he will bring a speaker and films from the air force to be shown at the school Monday evening, Nov. 16. He will endeavor to organize a G.O.C. in this locality.

At the close of the meeting a piano duet was played by Mrs. George Clise and Mrs. Albert Millisp. The next regular meeting of the P.T.A. will be held Thursday evening, Dec. 3. A safety program under the direction of Capt. Walter Lansing of the state police, will be presented.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of the first and second grades, Mrs. Oswald Hirtle, Mrs. Oliver Willis and Mrs. Rose.

Jo Joaquin and daughter, Darlene, had as weekend guests his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Layton Gossnell and son from Roseburg.

Talbot

Talbot — Mrs. Eva Wintermantel, Mrs. Verna Wash, Earl and Evarmie Wash, of Canby, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Blinston.

Mrs. Gilbert Belknap met with an unusual and painful accident while she was transferring potted plants from her yard to a store room.

She had a bamboo stake in one pot of fuschias.

As she stooped over to pick up the flower pot she hit her cheek on the sharp stake, severed the nerve in the cheek, and caused her eye to turn black.

It has required medical attention.

YULETIDERS MEET

Albany — The Yuletiders' steering committee held its first meeting Tuesday morning in the organization's new quarters at 233 Third Ave. Organized to coordinate community effort to make sure that no family in the Albany area need sit in a bleak home without a Christmas basket, the Yuletiders have buckled down to the work of seeking where the need is, and of supplying it effectively.
