

AT WILLAMETTE

Students Active in Fund Event

By BARBARA JACKSON
(Capital Journal Correspondent)
Students began participating in the Willamette Challenge Fund drive this week as the student solicitors were appointed in the living organizations. Under the direction of Kent Holmes of San Carlos, Calif., the program is planned to have students give donations for the new building program. Tuesday during convocation, president of the student body, Jim Hitchman of Balboa Island, Calif., and other students presented a program to begin the drive.

Monday morning and afternoon will find Willamette students in the gymnasium participating in the blood drive. Gino Pieretti of Portland is in charge of the event.

"Hay Fever," a comedy by Noel Coward, will be the first presentation of the Willamette drama department of the season tonight, tomorrow, and Saturday. Curtain time for the play is 8 p.m., and in the cast will be Lollie Coffey of Portland as Judith Bliss; Dolores Gottfried of Salem as Myra; Jim Toozie of Salem as Richard; Bob Alfred of Portland as Sandy; Sue Sollie of Oakland, Calif., as Jackie; Bruce Fountain of Salem as David; Bob Kauffman of Forest Grove as Simon; Beth Church of Lake Grove as Sorel, and Judie Grant of Burlingame, Calif., as Clara.

Young Republicans will meet tonight in the Beta Theta Pi house to hear State Treasurer Sigfrid B. Unander at 7 o'clock.

New pledges for Alpha Chi Omega are Helen Taylor of Coquille and Anne Stoaks of Steilacoom, Wash. Pledged to Sigma Chi is Gerry Kelley of St. Helens, and Louise Delano of The Dalles pledged Chi Omega.

Tomorrow the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi will be crowned at the annual Sweetheart ball, to be 9 to 12 p.m. in the Crystal Gardens. Kay Kremer of Corvallis, Phyllis Gentry of Bend and Peggy Buckley of Portland have been selected for the court, and the Sweetheart will be announced during intermission by the chairman, Rich Butler of Portland.

Carol Emerson of Corbett was chosen by the Associated Women Students as the co-ed of the month, last week. She was selected for her outstanding work as chairman of the

To Attend Ball

Several from Salem will be in Portland Saturday evening for the first annual military ball of the Oregon National Guard association, the party to be at the Columbia Athletic club.

Among those to go from here will be State Treasurer and Mrs. Sigfrid B. Unander, Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newberry, Major General and Mrs. H. G. Maison, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ross.

The Newbrys and the Maisons will be among those attending a pre-dance dinner at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Edward Snow.

Doll Project for Junior Woman's Club

Lebanon — Plans for the annual Christmas doll project were started last week when the Junior Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Irene Taylor. Proceeds from the project go for relief for needy families and do other worthwhile programs during the year.

A gift of $25 was approved to the city library for purchase of children's books, and donations were made to the United Fund and the reforestation project in the Tillamook burn.

Speaking on behalf of the blood bank program was Mrs. John Hatfield. The Junior Women have pledged five donors at the next bloodmobile stop in Lebanon on November 17.

At the next meeting on November 19, the juniors will sponsor a card party at St. Martin's parish hall.

AWS convention held on the campus last week end. The November co-ed is a senior majoring in music education, and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

Dean Regina Ewalt was recently elected to the national council of Alpha Lambda Delta, national honorary for freshmen women. She will represent the far west region, and Willamette is the first small school to have representation on the national council.

Charles Paeth has recently returned after visiting Oregon and Washington high schools. He traveled in eastern Oregon, Portland, Tacoma, and Vancouver, Olympia and Walla Walla, Wash.

The fourth in a series of student recitals which the public is invited to hear will take place in the music hall tomorrow at 3 p.m. Winifred Waltz of Forest Grove will play the piano, Barbara Young of Lethbridge, Canada, will sing, and Marie Delarport of Portland will present flute selections.

Holiday Party Set

Mt. Angel — The annual Christmas party for members of Court Marion No. 718, Catholic Daughters of America, will be Monday evening, December 14, following the regular business session of the court. Plans were outlined and committees appointed for the event when the group met for their November meeting Monday evening in the St. Mary's school meeting room.

As in former years, the members will have a fifty cent gift exchange, and will also bring canned goods for the St. Mary's parish Christmas boxes for the needy. The committee named to assist the yearly social committee with the party are Mrs. L. W. McIntyre, Mrs. Alcui May, Mrs. Vincent Smith, Mrs. Joseph Schmitt, Mrs. William Fessler, Mrs. Henry Geck, Miss Margaret Tracer, Mrs. Ben Ackerman, Mrs. J. D. Hauth and Mrs. Ralph Stenger. The yearly social committee include Mrs. Alvin Saalfeld, Mrs. Carl Fessler, Mrs. Allie Kirsch, Mrs. Raymond Rothenfluch and Mrs. Andrew Wachter, Jr.

The court will sponsor a benefit showing of the film "We Heard the Angels Sing," together with a film "Don Bosco, the Apostle of Youth," Sunday afternoon and evening, December 6, in the auditorium of St. Mary's school, with the net proceeds for the Mt. Angel seminary building fund. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Travis and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tandy.

Those present at the shower included the honored guest's mother, Mrs. Larry Travis and her grandmother, Mrs. A. A. Carper; the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. C. W. Tandy and his grandmother, Mrs. Ora Pence; sisters of the couple, Miss Joan Travis and Mrs. Charles Metcalf; Mrs. Gerald Kendall, Mrs. Tony Biegler, Mrs. H. E. Melchior, Mrs. Jim Alderson, Mrs. C. A. Zielinski, Mrs. Ben Travis, Mrs. Dave Travis, Miss Marie Travis, Miss Billie Miller, Miss Marlene Prosser and Miss Sandra Prosser.

Mrs. Ernest Zielinski used an umbrella made of blue and white paper as a centerpiece for the gift table. The mantel was decorated with a large bridal doll to carry out the theme for the occasion. Games were played with Mrs. Alderson, Mrs. Melchior, Mrs. Biegler and Mrs. Pence taking the prizes.

Mrs. M. A. Beyer. A social hour followed the business session, with refreshments served by Mrs. Ivo Bauman and Mrs. Albert Uhing.

Is Bride-elect—The engagement of Miss Barbara Hopkins, above daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hopkins, to William Mayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Mayes, was announced recently.

Miss Travis Is Honored at Party

Hazel Green — Miss Joyce Travis, bride-elect of Dick Tandy, was honored with a bridal shower Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Ernest Zielinski. The couple plan to be wed on December 26th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Travis and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tandy.

Those present at the shower included the honored guest's mother, Mrs. Larry Travis and her grandmother, Mrs. A. A. Carper; the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. C. W. Tandy and his grandmother, Mrs. Ora Pence; sisters of the couple, Miss Joan Travis and Mrs. Charles Metcalf; Mrs. Gerald Kendall, Mrs. Tony Biegler, Mrs. H. E. Melchior, Mrs. Jim Alderson, Mrs. C. A. Zielinski, Mrs. Ben Travis, Mrs. Dave Travis, Miss Marie Travis, Miss Billie Miller, Miss Marlene Prosser and Miss Sandra Prosser.

Mrs. Warren to Head Mothers Club

Mt. Angel — Mrs. Myron Warren, Portland, will serve as president of the Mount Angel Seminary Mothers club during the coming year.

She was re-elected at the Sunday meeting of the group during the regular business session at the seminary. Other officers re-elected are: Mrs. A. N. to a Zastoupil, Silverton, vice president; Mrs. Henri Arala, Portland, secretary; and Mrs. Leo Plasker, Portland, treasurer.

Installation of officers will take place during the next scheduled meeting in January, at which time the area chairmen and yearly standing committees will be named.

The Very Rev. Martin Polard, O.S.B., prior of Mount Angel abbey, was guest speaker. Others giving talks included the Very Rev. Bernard Sander, O.S.B., rector of the seminary; the Rev. Louis Charvet, to G. Robert West, the ceremony being solemnized in Trinity Presbyterian church in Santa Cruz, Calif.

Mrs. Virginia E. Brown, Salem, daughter of the bride, and Roland E. West, son of Mr. West, stood with the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. West are at home at 4400 Bain avenue, Santa Cruz.

Mrs. Warren to Head Mothers Club

O.S.B., and the Rev. Ambrose Zenner, O.S.B.

Members voted their approval in a change in the club constitution to include any woman interested in the welfare of Mount Angel seminary to become a member of the Mothers club.

The club voted the purchase of a set of dishes for the students' dining room, and also contributed $25 for the students' annual Christmas party. Members will solicit subscriptions for the St. Joseph's magazine, and also undertake the selling of the seminary choir records, with the profits to be added to their general treasury.

Mrs. Fred Baumgartner reported on the success of the annual seminary ham dinner served October 25.

The Mount Angel group reported meetings the first Tuesday of each month, with the November meeting at the home of Mrs. Emil Zack. The ladies began sewing articles for the fancy work booth for the annual Lally Day the first Sunday in May.

A social hour followed the business meeting, with a program of entertainment furnished by the students of the seminary.

Hutcheson-Anderson
Gates — Mrs. Margie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Edwin Kadine and Richard Parker, son of Mayor and Mrs. W. B. Hutcheson, were married at a simple ceremony, Saturday, November 7, in Vancouver, Wash. Their only attendants were the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Major and Mrs. Jack Brown.

Following a short honeymoon trip the couple will be at home in Gates, where Mrs. Parker is a teacher in the local grade school. Mr. Parker is engaged in the contracting business.

Ruzic-Walli

Idanha — The chapel of the Christian church, in Bend, Oregon, was the scene of the recent wedding of Miss Alice Walli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Patterson of Idanha, and Dean Ruzic of Idanha, the Rev. W. Hart officiating. Mr. Patterson gave his daughter in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Russell were the couple's only attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruzic are now at home in Idanha, following a honeymoon in eastern Oregon.
