

In The Valley

Edited by MIKE FORBES

Pedee

Pedee — Mrs. Billy Smith and daughter, June, returned home Wednesday from Redmond, where they had spent the past month with her father, F. Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sheltenberger, Larry, Bonnie and Lonnie, of Monmouth, spent an evening recently at the home of her mother, Mrs. Thera Womer, who was honored with a birthday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ronco made a trip to Salem Friday. Mrs. Winnie Fletcher returned home with her mother and will visit her sisters, Mrs. W. T. Turner and Mrs. C. L. Burbank.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Smith left Saturday afternoon for Riverside, Calif. They are making the trip by car and trailer house.

A baby daughter was born Nov. 3 at the Dallas hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burbank. She weighed 7 pounds and 4 ounces and will be called Lola Christina. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Burbank of Cherry Grove district.

Mrs. Thera Womer visited several days the past week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Blair Douglas, near Albany, while Miss Nola Womer was a guest at the Edgar McNorris home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McCormack of Dallas spent Saturday in Pedee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burbank attended the turkey and ham dinner at the Bridgeport school Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Yost of Portland were week-end guests of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Burbank. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tharp of Sand Lake were Sunday guests of his son, Tom Tharp and family.

World Community day was observed Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. C. L. Burbank. Mrs. Burbank led the devotions.

Saturday was clean-up and work day at the new church. Those helping were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheythe, Mrs. Rottie Kerber, Mrs. Tom Tharp, Mrs. Billy Smith, Miss Nola Womer, Paul and Charles Ronco, Rev. Delbert Dow, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Kerber, C. L. and Gus Burbank. Mrs. Sheythe and Mrs. Rottie Kerber served a hot luck dinner to the workers.

Fairview

Fairview — Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stephens of Fairview, John Versteeg of Salem and Lester Versteeg of Monmouth returned home Sunday from 10 days vacation in the Wallowa mountains bringing home four elk.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephens and grandson, Lester Stephens spent Saturday with her aunt, Mrs. Will Branson, at Delake. Mrs. Branson has been seriously ill with pneumonia and a heart ailment.

HUBBARD PTA

Hubbard — The Hubbard Parent-Teacher association will meet Monday evening, Nov. 16, at 8 p.m., following the annual open house of the grade school from 7 to 8 p.m. All classrooms will be open for visitors and the teachers present in their home rooms. PTA meeting will include a consideration and vote on change of meeting date.

Those from St. Louis who attended the dinner at McMinnville last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Ferschweiler, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ferschweiler, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ferschweiler and Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Ferschweiler.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwinger and Mrs. R. P. Horning attended a district meeting of the VFW in Salem Monday evening.

The St. Louis Altar society will meet Thursday evening, Nov. 12, in the St. Louis hall instead of Tuesday.

R. P. Horning fell and hurt his arm recently but it is better at this time.

Mrs. Fred Raynor visited at the home of her mother last Friday. Mrs. Raynor is the daughter of Mrs. R. P. Horning.

Mrs. W. Welch and Mrs. Ross Wingard were hostesses to members of the Macleay Grange Home Economics club, Tuesday afternoon at the Grange hall.

During the business meeting at which Mrs. Cornelius Bateson presided, plans were made for the dinner to be served to members of the Marion County Livestock association, Dec. 1.

Work for the coming year was discussed and Mrs. Richard McKee was appointed as chairman of the year book committee.

Work for the coming year was discussed and Mrs. Richard McKee was appointed as chairman of the year book committee.

St. Louis

St. Louis — The St. Louis parish is sponsoring a card social Wednesday, Nov. 18. The committee chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Ferschweiler, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Enlund, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leith, Mr. and Mrs. William Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zelenki, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Jungwirth, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Belleque, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nibler, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Horning, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwinger, Mrs. Al Nolan, the Rubens family, Ed Manning and Theresa Manning.

Five-hundred and pinocle will be played. Lunch will be served. Card playing will start at 8 p.m.

At the card social Wednesday, Nov. 4, the pinocle prize was won by John Grassman. Mrs. Pete Schlechter took the 500 prize, and the special prize went to Mrs. George Rush.

The VFW had a social benefit at the St. Louis hall Thursday, Nov. 5. The special prize was won by Mrs. John Grassman.

A birthday dinner honoring William Aurand was held at the Aurand home Sunday, Nov. 8. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Barney Fellers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Schrette and daughters of Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Krawski and grandson of Portland, Mrs. Rose Potter and son of Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. John Grassman and sons, Mrs. Paul Eaton and children, and Jack Wait and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Aurand.

Mrs. Paul Eaton has gone to Portland to visit for a few days with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Norman Nibler is enjoying a vacation of two weeks away from her duties in the county clerk's office.

Those from St. Louis who attended the dinner at McMinnville last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Ferschweiler, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ferschweiler, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ferschweiler and Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Ferschweiler.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwinger and Mrs. R. P. Horning attended a district meeting of the VFW in Salem Monday evening.

The St. Louis Altar society will meet Thursday evening, Nov. 12, in the St. Louis hall instead of Tuesday.

R. P. Horning fell and hurt his arm recently but it is better at this time.

Mrs. Fred Raynor visited at the home of her mother last Friday. Mrs. Raynor is the daughter of Mrs. R. P. Horning.

Mrs. W. Welch and Mrs. Ross Wingard were hostesses to members of the Macleay Grange Home Economics club, Tuesday afternoon at the Grange hall.

During the business meeting at which Mrs. Cornelius Bateson presided, plans were made for the dinner to be served to members of the Marion County Livestock association, Dec. 1.

Work for the coming year was discussed and Mrs. Richard McKee was appointed as chairman of the year book committee.

Work for the coming year was discussed and Mrs. Richard McKee was appointed as chairman of the year book committee.

Independence

Independence — Sunday dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Boomer and family were Rev. Vernon O. Eggebraten from Spokane, Wash., the former pastor of the First Baptist Church, and C. F. (Grandpa) Hotchkiss.

Also visiting the Boomer family Tuesday and Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dickson and their two children, Darrel and Dona, from Cook, Wash., where Mr. Dickson is connected with the United States fisheries. Mrs. Dickson is a niece of Rev. Boomer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pyles, 759 D St., Independence, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Monday, Nov. 8 at the Salem General Hospital.

Independence — Members and guests of the Monmouth-Independence unit of the Republican Council of Oregon Women held their first fall meeting in the Monmouth City Hall Club Rooms, with Mrs. H. Kent Farley presiding.

Mrs. H. D. Bradrick of Brush College was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Mrs. H. D. Burns and Russel Hicks of Lincoln Lucky Livestock club arranged and directed games for the group.

Hula dances were presented by Lorene and Loretta Hopkins of Popcorn, followed by a skit in pantomime under the direction of Leonard Kinkaid.

Pins were awarded 4-H clubbers by county agent John Grimes and Mrs. Malon Reichert, county home extension leader, showed slides of the State Fair and 4-H summer school at OSC.

Mrs. Bradrick's 4-H sewing club, Tiny Thimbles, gave an old-fashioned style revue, with clothes dating back to 1895.

Brush College — Brush College Grange held election of officers at the meeting at the school house Nov. 6, with Grange Master Phillip Peterson re-elected for the coming year.

Others elected were: Treasurer, Theodore Burns; overseer, Emory Biggerstaff; steward, A. E. Utley; assistant steward, Harry Phillips; chaplain, Mrs. Audrey Ewing; treasurer, Charles Glaze; secretary, Mrs. Harry Phillips; gatekeeper, Oscar Poe; Ceres, Mrs. Phillip Peterson; Pomona, Mrs. Emory Biggerstaff; Flora, Mrs. R. C. Shepard; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Theodore Burns.

On the executive committee were named R. C. Shepard, Glen Adams and Don Blake.

The organization voted to change the meeting date from the first Friday in the month to the fourth Friday night, to become effective Jan. 1.

Jefferson — Mr. and Mrs. John Hartley of Mountain View, Calif., spent two weeks at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hartley. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hartley of Newberg were Sunday guests of Mrs. Hartley.

Honor roll students in high school for the first six weeks who have a grade point average of two with citizenship grade averaged in, are:

Senior class, Betty Barcom, Eleanor Chilcote, David Neiss, Darlene Vasek, John Wright, and Karon Kelly.

Junior class, Lyle Adams, Thomas Daulton, Helen Freshner, Olen Loftis, George Marlat, Claude Meyers and Patricia Nymen.

Sophomores, Joyce Chilcote, Sue Daulton, Delbert Erb, Martha Harris, Neil Spencer, Darlene Tetloff, Joan Turnidge, Anne Wilson.

Freshman class, Mamie Lea Bostrack, Sandra Dawson, Jerry Marcum, Francis Marlatt, Nancy McDaniel, Jeanie Super, Kenneth Wharton and Gerald Zehner.

Karl Gibson and his father are now enjoying television in their home installed by Linden Curl Saturday.

Members of the Wedding Ring club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Martin Stephenson at Scio Wednesday afternoon. A covered dish dinner was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

Independence

Independence — Sunday dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Boomer and family were Rev. Vernon O. Eggebraten from Spokane, Wash., the former pastor of the First Baptist Church, and C. F. (Grandpa) Hotchkiss.

Also visiting the Boomer family Tuesday and Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dickson and their two children, Darrel and Dona, from Cook, Wash., where Mr. Dickson is connected with the United States fisheries. Mrs. Dickson is a niece of Rev. Boomer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pyles, 759 D St., Independence, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Monday, Nov. 8 at the Salem General Hospital.

Independence — Members and guests of the Monmouth-Independence unit of the Republican Council of Oregon Women held their first fall meeting in the Monmouth City Hall Club Rooms, with Mrs. H. Kent Farley presiding.

Mrs. H. D. Bradrick of Brush College was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Mrs. H. D. Burns and Russel Hicks of Lincoln Lucky Livestock club arranged and directed games for the group.

Hula dances were presented by Lorene and Loretta Hopkins of Popcorn, followed by a skit in pantomime under the direction of Leonard Kinkaid.

Pins were awarded 4-H clubbers by county agent John Grimes and Mrs. Malon Reichert, county home extension leader, showed slides of the State Fair and 4-H summer school at OSC.

Mrs. Bradrick's 4-H sewing club, Tiny Thimbles, gave an old-fashioned style revue, with clothes dating back to 1895.

Brush College — Brush College Grange held election of officers at the meeting at the school house Nov. 6, with Grange Master Phillip Peterson re-elected for the coming year.

Others elected were: Treasurer, Theodore Burns; overseer, Emory Biggerstaff; steward, A. E. Utley; assistant steward, Harry Phillips; chaplain, Mrs. Audrey Ewing; treasurer, Charles Glaze; secretary, Mrs. Harry Phillips; gatekeeper, Oscar Poe; Ceres, Mrs. Phillip Peterson; Pomona, Mrs. Emory Biggerstaff; Flora, Mrs. R. C. Shepard; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Theodore Burns.

On the executive committee were named R. C. Shepard, Glen Adams and Don Blake.

The organization voted to change the meeting date from the first Friday in the month to the fourth Friday night, to become effective Jan. 1.

Jefferson — Mr. and Mrs. John Hartley of Mountain View, Calif., spent two weeks at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hartley. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hartley of Newberg were Sunday guests of Mrs. Hartley.

Honor roll students in high school for the first six weeks who have a grade point average of two with citizenship grade averaged in, are:

Senior class, Betty Barcom, Eleanor Chilcote, David Neiss, Darlene Vasek, John Wright, and Karon Kelly.

Junior class, Lyle Adams, Thomas Daulton, Helen Freshner, Olen Loftis, George Marlat, Claude Meyers and Patricia Nymen.

Sophomores, Joyce Chilcote, Sue Daulton, Delbert Erb, Martha Harris, Neil Spencer, Darlene Tetloff, Joan Turnidge, Anne Wilson.

Freshman class, Mamie Lea Bostrack, Sandra Dawson, Jerry Marcum, Francis Marlatt, Nancy McDaniel, Jeanie Super, Kenneth Wharton and Gerald Zehner.

Karl Gibson and his father are now enjoying television in their home installed by Linden Curl Saturday.

Members of the Wedding Ring club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Martin Stephenson at Scio Wednesday afternoon. A covered dish dinner was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

Independence

Independence — Sunday dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Boomer and family were Rev. Vernon O. Eggebraten from Spokane, Wash., the former pastor of the First Baptist Church, and C. F. (Grandpa) Hotchkiss.

Also visiting the Boomer family Tuesday and Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dickson and their two children, Darrel and Dona, from Cook, Wash., where Mr. Dickson is connected with the United States fisheries. Mrs. Dickson is a niece of Rev. Boomer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pyles, 759 D St., Independence, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Monday, Nov. 8 at the Salem General Hospital.

Independence — Members and guests of the Monmouth-Independence unit of the Republican Council of Oregon Women held their first fall meeting in the Monmouth City Hall Club Rooms, with Mrs. H. Kent Farley presiding.

Mrs. H. D. Bradrick of Brush College was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Mrs. H. D. Burns and Russel Hicks of Lincoln Lucky Livestock club arranged and directed games for the group.

Hula dances were presented by Lorene and Loretta Hopkins of Popcorn, followed by a skit in pantomime under the direction of Leonard Kinkaid.

Pins were awarded 4-H clubbers by county agent John Grimes and Mrs. Malon Reichert, county home extension leader, showed slides of the State Fair and 4-H summer school at OSC.

Mrs. Bradrick's 4-H sewing club, Tiny Thimbles, gave an old-fashioned style revue, with clothes dating back to 1895.

Brush College — Brush College Grange held election of officers at the meeting at the school house Nov. 6, with Grange Master Phillip Peterson re-elected for the coming year.

Others elected were: Treasurer, Theodore Burns; overseer, Emory Biggerstaff; steward, A. E. Utley; assistant steward, Harry Phillips; chaplain, Mrs. Audrey Ewing; treasurer, Charles Glaze; secretary, Mrs. Harry Phillips; gatekeeper, Oscar Poe; Ceres, Mrs. Phillip Peterson; Pomona, Mrs. Emory Biggerstaff; Flora, Mrs. R. C. Shepard; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Theodore Burns.

On the executive committee were named R. C. Shepard, Glen Adams and Don Blake.

The organization voted to change the meeting date from the first Friday in the month to the fourth Friday night, to become effective Jan. 1.

Jefferson — Mr. and Mrs. John Hartley of Mountain View, Calif., spent two weeks at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hartley. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hartley of Newberg were Sunday guests of Mrs. Hartley.

Honor roll students in high school for the first six weeks who have a grade point average of two with citizenship grade averaged in, are:

Senior class, Betty Barcom, Eleanor Chilcote, David Neiss, Darlene Vasek, John Wright, and Karon Kelly.

Junior class, Lyle Adams, Thomas Daulton, Helen Freshner, Olen Loftis, George Marlat, Claude Meyers and Patricia Nymen.

Sophomores, Joyce Chilcote, Sue Daulton, Delbert Erb, Martha Harris, Neil Spencer, Darlene Tetloff, Joan Turnidge, Anne Wilson.

Freshman class, Mamie Lea Bostrack, Sandra Dawson, Jerry Marcum, Francis Marlatt, Nancy McDaniel, Jeanie Super, Kenneth Wharton and Gerald Zehner.

Karl Gibson and his father are now enjoying television in their home installed by Linden Curl Saturday.

Members of the Wedding Ring club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Martin Stephenson at Scio Wednesday afternoon. A covered dish dinner

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

The club is planning a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, with Mrs. Ned Stephenson and Mrs. Leonard Marcum hostesses.

Hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Lester Colgan and Mrs. H. K. Farley. Mrs. Clifford R. Glasson will

was served at the noon hour, and a social time was enjoyed. During the business session the club voted to buy several gifts for elderly people in the Albany nursing homes for Christmas gifts. The club also will have several representatives at the well child conference in the grade school twice a month to assist the nurses.

Independence

Independence — Sunday dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Boomer and family were Rev. Vernon O. Eggebraten from Spokane, Wash., the former pastor of the First Baptist Church, and C. F. (Grandpa) Hotchkiss.

Also visiting the Boomer family Tuesday and Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dickson and their two children, Darrel and Dona, from Cook, Wash., where Mr. Dickson is connected with the United States fisheries. Mrs. Dickson is a niece of Rev. Boomer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pyles, 759 D St., Independence, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Monday, Nov. 8 at the Salem General Hospital.

Independence — Members and guests of the Monmouth-Independence unit of the Republican Council of Oregon Women held their first fall meeting in the Monmouth City Hall Club Rooms, with Mrs. H. Kent Farley presiding.

Mrs. H. D. Bradrick of Brush College was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Mrs. H. D. Burns and Russel Hicks of Lincoln Lucky Livestock club arranged and directed games for the group.

Hula dances were presented by Lorene and Loretta Hopkins of Popcorn, followed by a skit in pantomime under the direction of Leonard Kinkaid.

Pins were awarded 4-H clubbers by county agent John Grimes and Mrs. Malon Reichert, county home extension leader, showed slides of the State Fair and 4-H summer school at OSC.

Mrs. Bradrick's 4-H sewing club, Tiny Thimbles, gave an old-fashioned style revue, with clothes dating back to 1895.

Brush College — Brush College Grange held election of officers at the meeting at the school house Nov. 6, with Grange Master Phillip Peterson re-elected for the coming year.

Others elected were: Treasurer, Theodore Burns; overseer, Emory Biggerstaff; steward, A. E. Utley; assistant steward, Harry Phillips; chaplain, Mrs. Audrey Ewing; treasurer, Charles Glaze; secretary, Mrs. Harry Phillips; gatekeeper, Oscar Poe; Ceres, Mrs. Phillip Peterson; Pomona, Mrs. Emory Biggerstaff; Flora, Mrs. R. C. Shepard; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Theodore Burns.

On the executive committee were named R. C. Shepard, Glen Adams and Don Blake.

The organization voted to change the meeting date from the first Friday in the month to the fourth Friday night, to become effective Jan. 1.

Jefferson — Mr. and Mrs. John Hartley of Mountain View, Calif., spent two weeks at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hartley. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hartley of Newberg were Sunday guests of Mrs. Hartley.

Honor roll students in high school for the first six weeks who have a grade point average of two with citizenship grade averaged in, are:

Senior class, Betty Barcom, Eleanor Chilcote, David Neiss, Darlene Vasek, John Wright, and Karon Kelly.

Junior class, Lyle Adams, Thomas Daulton, Helen Freshner, Olen Loftis, George Marlat, Claude Meyers and Patricia Nymen.