

Willamette Has Long Scrimmage for Cal Poly Game

Bearcats End Slate Saturday

A full hour of scrimmage risked injuries to the Willamette university Bearcats Tuesday but Coach Ted Ogdahl said he needs all the time he can get to ready his team for California Poly.

The Polytechnics will host Willamette Saturday night at San Luis Obispo, Cal., in what is expected to be victory No. 9 for Poly. To date the hosts have averaged 44 points against Fresno State, San Diego State, Santa Barbara, San Francisco State, Pepperdine, Whittier, Los Angeles State, and Redlands.

Willamette will entrain at 8:55 p.m. Thursday for the final game for both teams.

Ogdahl said that Gerald Kangas and Norm Dversdal, reserve ends, are out of action with injuries, but that Lou Lofland, a halfback who missed the Linfield game with a knee injury, will see action.

Dorence Noteboom, tackle, and Dave Anderson, the other starting tackle, both will be starting. Bobby Zoelch, halfback with a broken hand in a cast, is pronounced okay.

The Willamette traveling roster announced today includes 24 players:

Ends—Dean Benson, Phil McCallister, Bruce Harding, and Mike Hovis.
Tackles—Dave Anderson, Dorence Noteboom, Bob Dyer, Dale Greenlee and Byron Sittler.
Guards—Andy George, Rube Menashe, Ray Chapuiso, Lynn Zumwalt and Detzer Hanks.
Centers—Cliff York and Ken Cooper.
Backs—George Bardsley, Windy Sequira, Harvey Neffendorf, John Kent, Chuck Colling, Judson Jones, Lou Lofland, Bob Zoelch, Volney Sigmond and Bob Baltimore.

Jim Rock Returns As OSC Fullback

Corvallis, Ore. (AP)—Reserve tackle John Hall is expected to draw a starting assignment with the Oregon State Beavers in Saturday's game with Oregon.

Others scheduled to see action include tackle Jim Luster, guard Art Keith and fullback Jim Rock. Rock has missed the last three games because of injuries.

The Beavers drilled behind closed gates here Tuesday.

Amity to Face Monroe Offense At McMinnville

Amity — The Amity high school football team appears to be minus hobbling injuries this week as it approaches the state semi-final playoff in Class B against Monroe.

The game will be played at the Linfield gridiron in McMinnville at 8 o'clock, the winner to enter the finals against the Moro-Union winner.

Coach Ray Stephens said that Monroe probably will have a weight edge, particularly in the backfield where the opposition has a 195-pound back. A pair of hard-running backs will make Monroe a difficult foe, he noted. Monroe, District 3 champion, defeated Oakland 38-20 last week. Monroe coach is Don DeLay.

The District 3 team uses a variation of the T. Stephens said, more like a winged T, in which the quarterback doesn't handle the ball and in which a short flanker is used occasionally.

Official Results, Payoff Of City Pin Tournery Told

By BENN VALDEZ
Complete results of the annual city bowling tournament held at the University Bowl this year have been received from the city secretary, Jay Gould, and once again there isn't one champion from last year repeating.

Trailways Cafe, sparked by Sponsor Floyd McNeill's big 600 series and supported by Art Upston, annexed the team championship with a 2706 scratch series. They also won the handicap title with 3042. Bowling on the first squad of the tournament, they wrapped up the title before any of the so-called "hot-shot" teams even made an appearance. They succeed Brennan Tree Service who failed to frighten anyone this year.

Jack Olney showed everything that a good rolling straight ball and accuracy can pay off as he walked off with the singles championship with a 615 series based on games of 198, 202, and 215. Kidded for years about his "nothing ball," Jack had the last laugh this year as one after another of the entries generally conceded to have the best chance to win the singles failed to knock over enough pins to threaten his position. Jack succeeds Don "The Old Pro" Poulin, last year's champion and holder of the state all-events record for many years.

Stanford-Cal Scrap to Give U.S. New Offensive Leader

New York (AP)—As if the possible clinching of a Rose Bowl berth and the renewal of a historic series which stands all square after 55 games weren't enough, Saturday's Stanford-California clash at Palo Alto is going to produce the nation's major college individual offense leader.

Stanford's Bob Garrett and California's Paul Larson will face each other in a unique meeting between the country's No. 2 and No. 3 yardage producers. Because Wyoming's Joe Mastrogianni, the leader, is only 24 yards ahead of Garrett and 27 ahead of Larson, and will be idle until Thanksgiving, one of the Californians is almost certain to be No. 1 by Saturday night.

Mastrogianni has made 1,395 yards running and passing, official NCAA service bureau statistics show, while Garrett has piled up 1,371 and Larson 1,368. All have one game to go.

Garrett the Hottest
Garrett, however, is the hottest one of the lot and he's also the No. 1 man in passing with 106 completions. Larson is fourth in that department, behind Washington's Sandy Lederman, who has 80 completions and 7 touchdowns. In rushing, Illinois sophomore, J. C. Carolino has the title all wrapped up with 1,158 yards, 354 yards more than Ohio State's Bobby Watkins, each has one game left.

Stanford, to be assured of at least a tie for the Pacific Coast conference title will be relying on Garrett, who in the last five weeks has produced one of the greatest sustained hot streaks any passer has ever enjoyed in college football.

In those five games he has completed 75 out of 115, a 65.2 per cent accuracy rating, for 1,100 yards and 13 touchdowns, while having only two intercepted.

To top things off, Garrett will be shooting at a national record Saturday. He's well within reach of the completion percentage standard of 80.9 per cent, for 150 or more attempts, set by Washington's Don Heinrich in 1950.

Shaw Rates No. 20
Lederman of Washington, Don Rydahl of Utah, Paul Cameron of UCLA, Tom Heath of Montana and George Shaw of Oregon are ranked by the NCAA among the leaders in total offense.
Lederman is No. 12 with 998 yards; Rydahl, No. 14, 959 yards; Cameron, No. 15, 946 yards; Heath No. 18, 863 yards, and Shaw, No. 20, 847 yards.

Lindsey, Pederson Lose Bouts by Disqualification

Disqualifications of over-eager stars brought victories last night for Carl Engstrom over Eric Pederson, and for Hardy Kruskamp over Luther Lindsey.

Lindsey, given the nod to challenge World Champion Lou Thez here next week, had the capable Kruskamp groggy but slugged Referee George Drake three times, flooring the official who had warned him about slugging Kruskamp out of the ring. Hence the disqualification.

Lindsey won the first fall by slugging his opponent, dropping him, then throwing a full nelson on Kruskamp. Kruskamp came back with toe holds and a half crab for a quick second fall decision.

Engstrom, not holding the Pacific coast junior light heavy title, lost the first fall to Pederson with a full nelson following a toe hold. Engstrom used body slams in a wild flurry but fell into the full nelson.

Engstrom rallied from a wicked corner attack by Pederson in the second fall to slug and body slam the blond one, then with an arm swipe that had Eric yelling uncle.

Engstrom used three body slams, then tossed Pederson out of the ring, kicked him out a second time and slugged him again. Pederson, finally inside, wouldn't break a full nelson and was disqualified, only to slug Referee Drake.

Danny McDonald won from Red Vagnone in 12 minutes of their preliminary using a jack knife hold.

4. All-American off tackle. No. Injury must be severe since he has been held out of tight game this long. Let him be a decoy.
3. Fullback pass. Takes a little time to develop.
2. Reverse. Play can be run fast but that eight-man line is tough.
1. Fullback straight in. Has the best chance for one yard. Left half will be watched and hole opens quick.
