

In The Valley

Edited by MIKE FORBES

Turner

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitehead have purchased part of the Peterson farm on the Turner-Aumsville highway near the "old Covered bridge."

Lloyd Credille, son of Mrs. John Miller and Johnnie Joyce Bailey, niece of Mrs. Bill Jones were married in Stevenson, Wash., Nov. 2. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peterson attended the young couple. They plan to live here.

Mrs. Grace Wolf, of Rathdrum, Idaho, is visiting her son and her families, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wolf.

Mrs. Harry Wolf and Mrs. Mabel Hitchcock are visiting their sister in Astoria.

Mrs. Harold Mott of Fall Creek, Ore., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Richard Chapman.

Mrs. Lulu Chapman is visiting this week in Fossil and Portland.

Mrs. Louis Petersen and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Petersen spent Wednesday in Ranier visiting Mr. and Mrs. Russell King and Mrs. Alice Syster.

Pvt. Leonard Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Manning recently arrived in Korea and is serving with the 7th Infantry Division. Men of the "Hour Glass" division are undergoing intensive training to maintain the peak combat efficiency displayed by the unit from Pusan to Yalu river. Private Manning, a member of the 31st Infantry regiment's company A, arrived overseas from Camp Roberts, Calif. He entered the army in April.

The fellowship dinner usually held the third Sunday of each month following the morning service has been postponed until November 29 when it will be held in the newly completed Methodist church annex.

Three Link club will meet in the IOOF hall Friday. A no-host dinner will be served at the noon hour. The members will tie a quilt for Mrs. Harry Barnett, and officers will be elected at this meeting.

Mrs. William Kite gave a family dinner Sunday honoring her husband on his birthday. Attending were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kite and Christine of Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. Don Stajger and Diane of Canby. Mrs. William Kite received word this week her sister, Miss Mary Huntsberger, left Okinawa, November 1, and will arrive in Seattle in a couple of weeks, on her first visit home in 3 1/2 years. She worked for the government in Japan before being transferred to Okinawa.

Mrs. Tom Webb will leave Sunday to join her husband in San Francisco, where he has a horse entered in the races.

Hubbard

Hubbard—The annual bazaar of the Hubbard Ladies Aid will be held Saturday, Nov. 21, at the Parish House. A chicken pie and ham dinner will be featured with serving beginning at 5:30 p.m. Aprons, pillowcases, fancywork, etc., will be offered for sale during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Munn attended the Golden Wedding anniversary reception of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Beshore of Mollalla at the VFW hall there Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Mann cut the four-tiered wedding cake. Following the reception the Manns were among guests at the Leonard Simi home in

HURRY BUTCH
ONLY 2 DAYS
LEFT TIL
"C's" Value Days

Holiday DANCES
"Gliding Your Way"

Special Introductory Offer
• Three Lessons •
4.00

Private Ballroom
"A chance to find out how your dancing goes on your own or on your partner's toes."
DON ALLEN'S BALLROOM
155 S. Liberty Ph. 27523

Buena Vista

Buena Vista—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wells of Gervais spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Graber.

Cecil Hultman made a business trip to Pass Robles, Calif. this week, going by car.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Graber, Lois and Raymond of Albany, spent Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Graber.

Sam Wilson left Saturday for Tillamook, Ore. Wilson is pastor of the Jefferson Church of God.

Jack Tyson of Bremerton, Wash., was renewing acquaintances in Jefferson Saturday. Tyson formerly was the proprietor of a restaurant here. He is now employed in the shipyards.

Mrs. Carrie Hochspeter returned home the past week after spending five months visiting relatives in Iowa at Alburnett where she was born and also in Leaf River, Ill.

The 4-H "Stitch and Sew" club members held their first meeting and elected officers. Judy Sims was elected president; Bonnie Kay Hart, vice president; Nancy Wilson, secretary; Linda Bell, song leader; and Kay Smith, reporter. Club colors are green and white.

There are 12 girls in the beginners sewing group, with Mrs. Charles Hart, Jr., leader.

Each of the girls was escorted. The boys attending them were Wayne Helgerson, Billy Westfall, Jon Murray and Bert Cowan.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Alida Waggoner and Mrs. Lloyd Classon. Mrs. James Reed was master of ceremonies.

A Halloween party was held at the school gym on Oct. 21 under the leadership of Mrs. Walter Murray of the Grand Ronde Woman's club.

Approximately 200 children were in attendance. Judges for the evening were Mrs. Matt Shepperd, Ted E. Smith and Ray Ahee. A movie was shown which proved very enjoyable.

A sack of candy and an orange was given each child as they left for home.

Mrs. Ted Smith has been confined to her home for several days with a severe cold.

Miss Nina Hines, student at Willamette university, and two girl friends, visited this week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hines.

SEVEN DIE IN CRASH
—The Ft. Bragg, N. C. (AP)—The Army reported that a big C119 Globemaster troop transport plane crashed on the Ft. Bragg reservation Tuesday, killing at least seven.

The crash occurred in an Army parachute drop zone on this big military reservation.

Miss Anita Strubenraugh recently underwent an appendectomy at St. Vincent's hospital. Miss Strubenraugh, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Strubenraugh, is a freshman at St. Marys of the Valley at Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Schumacher and daughter Carol Ann are on a six weeks vacation which will take them to mid west states to visit relatives. From there they will journey to Florida to spend some time with their son Darrel who is with the U. S. Navy stationed there.

Miss Rosemary Minden spent the week end at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ted Minden. Miss Minden is a freshman at Mt. Angel academy.

Election for the staff of St. Boniface high school paper, "The Beacon Light", was held recently. Results of the election were Dick Sayre, editor; Marilyn Minden, assistant editor; Larry Silbernagel, business manager; Beverly Miller, exchange manager; Larry Reistera, Eileen Van Dusen and Annette Ripp, art editor; Ron Bentz, boys' sports editor; Mary Jean Ditter, girls sports editor. Class reporters being: Marilyn Minden, Bob Doerfler, Jim Lewis, and Doug Bradley. Typists are members of the Typing II class.

A hard time dance, sponsored by the junior class of St. Boniface high will be held November 20, with dancing from 9 to 12. It will be held in the gym. Tommy Kizziah and his orchestra will furnish the music. Just come as you are, for the theme is "hard time".

A new feature has been added to the annual bazaar, "a by-sitting". Volunteers from St. Boniface high school will fill the role of baby-sitters for children one year of age and younger.

On November 13, a twerp dance sponsored by the senior class was held at the gym. It was "the woman is requested to pay" nite, with the girls reversing their usual role. Mixers and other types of dancing were features. Music was furnished by records.

This week the St. Boniface Saints will begin in earnest hoop practice for the basketball jamboree in only a few weeks away. The first game will be played against Salem Sacred Hearts.

Grand Ronde—The Grand Ronde Woman's club held its annual bazaar and carnival Friday evening in the grade school gym.

The spotlight of the evening was turned on the crowning of the queen. Carol Westfall of the 6th grade won this honor. As attendants were her princesses, Janice Hill of the 5th grade, Patty Payant of the 7th grade and Judy Johnson of the 8th grade.

Each of the girls was escorted. The boys attending them were Wayne Helgerson, Billy Westfall, Jon Murray and Bert Cowan.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Alida Waggoner and Mrs. Lloyd Classon. Mrs. James Reed was master of ceremonies.

A Halloween party was held at the school gym on Oct. 21 under the leadership of Mrs. Walter Murray of the Grand Ronde Woman's club.

Approximately 200 children were in attendance. Judges for the evening were Mrs. Matt Shepperd, Ted E. Smith and Ray Ahee. A movie was shown which proved very enjoyable.

A sack of candy and an orange was given each child as they left for home.

Mrs. Ted Smith has been confined to her home for several days with a severe cold.

Jefferson

Irving Miller, superintendent of Jefferson schools, spoke on "The Relationship Between Community and School" at the meeting of the Jefferson Woman's club Wednesday.

Guests for the afternoon were Mr. Miller, Mrs. W. O. McCaw, Miss Virginia Mason and Miss Mervine McCaw.

Gilbert Hoefel presided at the city council meeting the past week, Mayor Ivan Sutton being ill. Members of the city council present were Frank Jones, Bert Person, Howard Broxson, Jasper Turnidge and Arnold Epps, Recorder Paul McKee and Marshal George Armstrong.

Beer sales applications were approved for the Terminal, Town Tavern and package license to Ernie Fletchers Market.

A demonstration party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Harper on Friday night with Mrs. Carolyn M. Schildmeyer, demonstrator.

Mrs. J. A. Wise won the prize. Following the demonstration refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Holt, Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel, Mrs. J. A. Wise, Mrs. Neva Kester, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Riggins, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bilyeu and Anna Klampe.

Sam Wilson left Saturday for Tillamook, Ore. Wilson is pastor of the Jefferson Church of God.

Jack Tyson of Bremerton, Wash., was renewing acquaintances in Jefferson Saturday. Tyson formerly was the proprietor of a restaurant here. He is now employed in the shipyards.

Mrs. Carrie Hochspeter returned home the past week after spending five months visiting relatives in Iowa at Alburnett where she was born and also in Leaf River, Ill.

The 4-H "Stitch and Sew" club members held their first meeting and elected officers. Judy Sims was elected president; Bonnie Kay Hart, vice president; Nancy Wilson, secretary; Linda Bell, song leader; and Kay Smith, reporter. Club colors are green and white.

There are 12 girls in the beginners sewing group, with Mrs. Charles Hart, Jr., leader.

Each of the girls was escorted. The boys attending them were Wayne Helgerson, Billy Westfall, Jon Murray and Bert Cowan.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Alida Waggoner and Mrs. Lloyd Classon. Mrs. James Reed was master of ceremonies.

A Halloween party was held at the school gym on Oct. 21 under the leadership of Mrs. Walter Murray of the Grand Ronde Woman's club.

Approximately 200 children were in attendance. Judges for the evening were Mrs. Matt Shepperd, Ted E. Smith and Ray Ahee. A movie was shown which proved very enjoyable.

A sack of candy and an orange was given each child as they left for home.

Mrs. Ted Smith has been confined to her home for several days with a severe cold.

Miss Nina Hines, student at Willamette university, and two girl friends, visited this week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hines.

SEVEN DIE IN CRASH
—The Ft. Bragg, N. C. (AP)—The Army reported that a big C119 Globemaster troop transport plane crashed on the Ft. Bragg reservation Tuesday, killing at least seven.

The crash occurred in an Army parachute drop zone on this big military reservation.

Miss Anita Strubenraugh recently underwent an appendectomy at St. Vincent's hospital. Miss Strubenraugh, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Strubenraugh, is a freshman at St. Marys of the Valley at Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Schumacher and daughter Carol Ann are on a six weeks vacation which will take them to mid west states to visit relatives. From there they will journey to Florida to spend some time with their son Darrel who is with the U. S. Navy stationed there.

Miss Rosemary Minden spent the week end at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ted Minden. Miss Minden is a freshman at Mt. Angel academy.

Election for the staff of St. Boniface high school paper, "The Beacon Light", was held recently. Results of the election were Dick Sayre, editor; Marilyn Minden, assistant editor; Larry Silbernagel, business manager; Beverly Miller, exchange manager; Larry Reistera, Eileen Van Dusen and Annette Ripp, art editor; Ron Bentz, boys' sports editor; Mary Jean Ditter, girls sports editor. Class reporters being: Marilyn Minden, Bob Doerfler, Jim Lewis, and Doug Bradley. Typists are members of the Typing II class.

A hard time dance, sponsored by the junior class of St. Boniface high will be held November 20, with dancing from 9 to 12. It will be held in the gym. Tommy Kizziah and his orchestra will furnish the music. Just come as you are, for the theme is "hard time".

A new feature has been added to the annual bazaar, "a by-sitting". Volunteers from St. Boniface high school will fill the role of baby-sitters for children one year of age and younger.

On November 13, a twerp dance sponsored by the senior class was held at the gym. It was "the woman is requested to pay" nite, with the girls reversing their usual role. Mixers and other types of dancing were features. Music was furnished by records.

This week the St. Boniface Saints will begin in earnest hoop practice for the basketball jamboree in only a few weeks away. The first game will be played against Salem Sacred Hearts.

Grand Ronde—The Grand Ronde Woman's club held its annual bazaar and carnival Friday evening in the grade school gym.

The spotlight of the evening was turned on the crowning of the queen. Carol Westfall of the 6th grade won this honor. As attendants were her princesses, Janice Hill of the 5th grade, Patty Payant of the 7th grade and Judy Johnson of the 8th grade.

Each of the girls was escorted. The boys attending them were Wayne Helgerson, Billy Westfall, Jon Murray and Bert Cowan.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Alida Waggoner and Mrs. Lloyd Classon. Mrs. James Reed was master of ceremonies.

A Halloween party was held at the school gym on Oct. 21 under the leadership of Mrs. Walter Murray of the Grand Ronde Woman's club.

Approximately 200 children were in attendance. Judges for the evening were Mrs. Matt Shepperd, Ted E. Smith and Ray Ahee. A movie was shown which proved very enjoyable.

A sack of candy and an orange was given each child as they left for home.

Mill City

Mill City—A large number of parents and friends attended the November 11 meeting of the Mill City PTA, with President A. Nesbitt conducting the business meeting.

The budget for 1953-1954 was read and accepted. The membership chairman, Mrs. Roger Nelson, announced that there were 82 paid-up members to date.

The December meeting of the PTA will feature a white elephant gift exchange; similar to that held last year which was highly entertaining.

Donald Patch, president of the Marion County PTA council, was present to introduce two students from Willamette University who spoke to the group.

The Mill City Toastmistress Club held its regular meeting last week at the Bank Cafe, with the president, Mrs. Gwen Jones, conducting the business meeting. The invocation was given by Mrs. C. W. Stewart; Topicmistress was Mrs. Lee Ross; Toastmistress was Mrs. Howard Means.

Book reviews were presented by Mrs. Vincent Palmer and Mrs. Floyd Jones. Mrs. A. E. Nesbitt was another speaker for the evening. Critics were Mrs. Gale Lowery, Mrs. Kenneth Crosier and Mrs. Ed Yarnell. Evaluator was Mrs. Vernon Todd and Mrs. Arthur LeCours was timer.

Mrs. Sue Mikkelsen, a former member, of Richland, Wash., was guest of the club for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Nelson spent the week-end at the Cline Cottage at Waldport, along the Oregon coast. Sunday they went to Portland to bring Mr. Nelson's father, William Nelson, home from the Veterans' Hospital, where he underwent a check-up following a recent hip injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Johnson and family, from Silverton, spent Armistice Day at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bruder.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Berry and son from Tillamook were week-end guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haynes, who observed their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house Sunday from 2 until 6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph of Silverton spent the week-end at their summer home on the Saniam River above Gates. They also visited their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Smith and attended the Three Link dinner Saturday evening.

Mill City Three Link club held their November meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Claude Bruder with Mrs. Irl Plymale, co-hostess. It was decided to have a Christmas party at the IOOF hall Tuesday evening, Dec. 8, with a gift exchange.

Final plans were made for the benefit dinner held at the IOOF hall Saturday evening. Mrs. Walter Olmstead was general chairman. Members present were Mesdames Charles Stewart, Arnold Syverson, Fred Duffy, Walter Olmstead, Stanley Vail, Walter Brisbin, Phillip Heas, Ann Crook, John Swan, Al Yankus, Richard Thomas, W. E. Davis, Mel Robinson, George Veeto and the hostesses.

Home Owned
HOLLYWOOD
Starts Today Regular Prices Plus 15c for Viewers

3D
with STEREO SOUND!
INFERNO

TECHNICOLOR
ROBERT RHONDA WILLIAM RYAN FLEMING LUNDIGAN

—COLOR CO-HIT—
SWEETHEARTS ON PARADE
TRUCOLOR BY CONSOLIDATED

RAY HOBLETSON LOUILLIE HOBMAN EILEEN CHRISTY BILL SHIRLEY ESTELITA

See This Show On Our NEW WIDE SILVER SCREEN

DANCE
TONITE
CRYSTAL GARDENS
OLD TIME & MODERN
Music by "Pop" Edwards

EL SINORE NOW PLAYING
3-5798

H.G. WELLS
THE WAR OF THE WORLDS
COLOR BY TECHNICOLOR

—2ND BIG HIT—
Victor Mature—Jean Simmons
"AFFAIR WITH A STRANGER"

Dallas

Dallas—A joint dinner meeting of the Dallas Women's club, Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Rotary club was held Friday evening at 7 p.m. in the Chamber of Commerce rooms of the city hall.

Betty Star Anderson, of Salem, was guest soloist. Dorothy Davis Lee, also of Salem, was her accompanist.

Kenneth Shetterly, president of the Chamber of Commerce, introduced C. L. Marsters, toastmaster. Mr. Marsters, past president of the Chamber of Commerce, presented Rev. Omar Barth, minister of Calvary Baptist Church of Salem, who showed slides and moving pictures of his world travels on a recent trip abroad.

Mrs. Harry Dempsey of Rickreall was in charge of the musical part of the program. Mrs. Allie Hennagan and Mrs. Cecil Meeker were in charge of the decorations.

The dinner was prepared and served by Mrs. C. T. Smith and her attendants.

Wives and husbands who are non-members of the organization were invited to attend the affair.

Mrs. Mars Slack, president of the Woman's club, and Kenneth Shetterly, president of the Chamber of Commerce, were in charge of arrangements for the dinner and meeting.

Johnnie Ray, an ex-Dallas boy now in radio and TV, was on the Jack Benny TV program Sunday at 7 p.m.

Receiving second class badges will be Douglas Colgan, Argy Shrock, Gary Barrett, Lloyd Dominick, Jr., Rickie Lamb, Russell Colgan and Kenneth Graham.

Tom DeArmond is secretary-treasurer of the group.

Unionvale—Mrs. Silas E. Johnson of Dayton, her daughter and grand-daughter, Mrs. Ray Warren and Miss Ann Warren of Shedd were Saturday afternoon guests of Mrs. Clarence L. Fowler in Unionvale district. Mrs. Warren is a former Home Economics teacher in Dayton high school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Strawn and son, George Jr., of Unionvale; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Trunk of Dundee, attended the annual Thanksgiving benefit turkey dinner of St. Peter's Catholic church of Newberg held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in Newberg Sunday.

Talbot—Sidney Talbot Farmers Union met in the Talbot School house Friday night for their monthly meeting.

Local President Enos Nelson being absent, Vice-President Ethel Blinston presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Jake Gilmour acted as pianist and Jake Gilmour led the singing.

Delmer Davidson and Jake Gilmour reported on legislative matters.

A round table discussion was held on livestock.

Plans were made for a tur-

CAPITOL
HELD OVER!
MOGAMBO

Greater than King Solomon's Mine!
CLARK GABLE
and
JAVA GARDNER
TECHNICOLOR

—Also—
Colorful Short Subject
"North of the Sahara"

Pro-Football Game Thrills
L. A. Rams vs. S.F. 49ers

GRAND
PHONE 3-3487

Continuous Daily!
STARTS TODAY!
JOHN WAYNE

Warner Bros.
Island in the Sky

—2nd BIG HIT—
"ABBOTT AND COSTELLO MEET DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE"
starring BORIS KARLOFF

Other Models $209.95 from

369.95

Ask about our LIBERAL TRADE-IN OFFER!

Good Housekeeping, Inc.
467 Court St.
Ph. 3-9611

Marion Electric
2715 Portland Rd.
Ph. 3-6672

Hogg Bros.
260 State St.
Ph. 3-9148

Wills Music
432 State St.
Ph. 3-4959

Hubbard Scout Honor Court

Hubbard—Boy Scout troop No. 58 of Hubbard will hold a Court of Honor at the Hubbard city hall Thursday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m. Parents of the boys are urged to attend, especially the mothers.

According to Leon Graham, scoutmaster, the following boys will be honored: Receiving Tenderfoot badges will be Stephen Fisher, Gordon Lee Ross, James Morrison, Lawrence Strawn, Ronnie Cooper, Erick Ross, Jerry Cooper, Dale Graham, Laurie Dourava, Gary Luckey, Ronald Sargent, Larry Reed, Kenneth Hostetler and Tommy DeArmond.

Receiving second class badges will be Douglas Colgan, Argy Shrock, Gary Barrett, Lloyd Dominick, Jr., Rickie Lamb, Russell Colgan and Kenneth Graham.

Tom DeArmond is secretary-treasurer of the group.

Unionvale—Mrs. Silas E. Johnson of Dayton, her daughter and grand-daughter, Mrs. Ray Warren and Miss Ann Warren of Shedd were Saturday afternoon guests of Mrs. Clarence L. Fowler in Unionvale district. Mrs. Warren is a former Home Economics teacher in Dayton high school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Strawn and son, George Jr., of Unionvale; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Trunk of Dundee, attended the annual Thanksgiving benefit turkey dinner of St. Peter's Catholic church of Newberg held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in Newberg Sunday.

Talbot—Sidney Talbot Farmers Union met in the Talbot School house Friday night for their monthly meeting.

Local President Enos Nelson being absent, Vice-President Ethel Blinston presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Jake Gilmour acted as pianist and Jake Gilmour led the singing.

Delmer Davidson and Jake Gilmour reported on legislative matters.

A round table discussion was held on livestock.

Plans were made for a tur-

CAPITOL
HELD OVER!
MOGAMBO

Greater than King Solomon's Mine!
CLARK GABLE
and
JAVA GARDNER
TECHNICOLOR

—Also—
Colorful Short Subject
"North of the Sahara"

Pro-Football Game Thrills
L. A. Rams vs. S.F. 49ers

GRAND
PHONE 3-3487

Continuous Daily!
STARTS TODAY!
JOHN WAYNE

Warner Bros.
Island in the Sky

—2nd BIG HIT—
"ABBOTT AND COSTELLO MEET DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE"
starring BORIS KARLOFF

Other Models $209.95 from

369.95

Ask about our LIBERAL TRADE-IN OFFER!

Good Housekeeping, Inc.
467 Court St.
Ph. 3-9611

Marion Electric
2715 Portland Rd.
Ph. 3-6672

Hogg Bros.
260 State St.
Ph. 3-9148

Wills Music
432 State St.
Ph. 3-4959

Roberts

Roberts—A fire in the green house of Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. Johnson Monday morning was caused by an over-heated stove. Considerable damage was done to the green house and the joining woodhouse. The potted plants and flowers are almost key dinner to be served to members and their families at the next meeting, Dec. 11, at 6 o'clock. Those who plan to attend may make reservations with Mrs. Ethel Blinston several days before the meeting night.

Mrs. Nelson Gilmour and Mrs. John Zehner were appointed to arrange the table. Ernest Freeman read the exchange board.