

Hell's Canyon Group Meeting

Lebanon — A speaker from the national Hell's Canyon association will address a Linn county audience meeting Friday, Nov. 20, at 8 p.m. in Wilshire hall, Lebanon, for the first meeting of a local Hell's Canyon club.

A color-sound movie, "Look to the River" will be presented showing the Northwest's major dams and the transmission lines used for the inter-connecting and pooling of the public power projects' resources.

W. E. Miles will preside at the meeting to which all interested persons are invited. Officers for a permanent organization will be elected.

Ellsworth Lauds GOP's Achievements

Lebanon—Rep. Harris Ellsworth, speaking Tuesday night at a chamber of commerce dinner, lauded the achievements of the first quarter of President Eisenhower's administration, citing the end of the Korean war, the Czechoslovakian prisoner release, withdrawal of the Seventh fleet from protection of the Red China coast, and a 14 billion dollar reduction of the national budget.

The congressman also pointed to the repeal of the excise profit tax which he described as a "vicious penalty on new businesses," and added that a 10 per cent reduction on personal income taxes would go into effect next year.

Rep. Ellsworth had high praise for Secretary Douglas McKay, pointing out his splendid executive ability in administering the laws of Congress in respect to natural resources in all matters pertaining to the interior department.

Richards Supervises Service in Research

Joe B. Richards, third year Willamette university law student, has been named supervisor of the Willamette Legal Research Service for 1953-54. John Paulus, faculty advisor, states.

Richards, the son of J. A. Richards of Ontario, is a graduate of the University of Oregon. He is president of the campus chapter of Phi Delta Phi, honorary legal fraternity and was named to the dean's high scholastic list in 1952.

The Willamette Legal Research Service, one of six such student operated activities in the country, is free to practicing lawyers, who, by reason of limited library facilities, are not equipped to obtain authorities on questions of law.

Brush College

Brush College—Brush College Grange home economics club will entertain husbands of its members at a no host supper Thursday, Nov. 19, at the home of Mrs. Archie Ewing and son Ralph.

Brush College Community club will meet at the school house for an election of officers Friday night at 8 o'clock.

EXTRA FOR CREW CUTS

Chicago (AP) — The Master Barbers Assn. will vote on a proposal to charge extra for crew cuts. They say it's harder to give them, and, besides, the barber gets hair all over his shoes.
