Distinguished Linn county covered bridge over the South Fork of the Santiam on Quartzville road is a true type structure built about 1936. Although covered in the conventional manner, Middle Fork bridge at Foster is not sided, a concession to traffic safety.

Chiropractors Gather For Three-Day Meeting

The annual convention of the Oregon Association of Chiropractic Physicians got started today at the Marion Hotel which will be the meeting place the remainder of the week.

Registration began early in the day and the convention was formally opened at 9:10 a.m. with invocation by Dr. Robert Elliott, chaplain for the organization. The welcoming address was by Dr. F. P. Rutz of Portland, president of the association.

Dr. J. LaMone De Rusha, dean of the Northwestern College of Chiropractic, Minneapolis, spoke on "Practical Neurophysiology Related to Chiropractic Analysis," and, after an intermission to view exhibits, gave a second address on "Chiropractic Care of Sclerous Anticus Syndrome and Cerebral Palsy." The exhibits are in charge of a committee headed by Dr. G. W. Burgess of McMinnville.

At the luncheon hour Russel Pratt, president of the Salem Chamber of Commerce, spoke. On the afternoon program Dr. L. P. Roberts of Los Angeles speaks on gynecology, and Dr. M. I. Higgins on the "Function of the National Chiropractic Association." A report from the state board of chiropractic examiners was followed by a round table discussion.

Dr. De Rusha gave a third technical discussion of the day and a general business session with committee reports is slated from 7 to 9 o'clock Friday night.

The Women's Auxiliary of the OACP is meeting also, starting its activities with a joint luncheon with the doctors Friday noon. At 2 p.m. a conducted tour of the Oregon State Hospital was arranged for the auxiliary, the group to start from the Marion Hotel.

The convention will continue through Saturday, adjourning Monday noon.

Captain Mack Goes to Yuma

A sudden change in the administration of the Salvation Army in Salem became known Thursday night when Captain and Mrs. Thomas Mack received their farewell orders.

Captain Mack is being sent to Yuma, Ariz., where he will be in charge of the USO center which is operated by the Salvation Army. He and Mrs. Mack leave Salem Saturday. He will be succeeded in Salem by Captain Ben Wold, now of Medford, who is expected to arrive here late next week.

World Affairs Forum Coming

Announcements are being circulated among several Salem women's organizations of a World Affairs Film Forum program planned by Salem YMCA for a December 7 start.

Chairmen of world affairs and similar committees for various women's groups are helping the YMCA set up the discussion group under a program developed by the Ford Foundation and the national YMCA. Following a theme, "World Affairs Are Your Affairs," this program will include a series of 10 weekly discussions on Monday nights at the YMCA. Each week's discussion will center on a single country or a general topic related to the theme and will follow an appropriate documentary movie. Background material for advance preparation can be found in a Ford Foundation-prepared book which all members of the group will have. A nominal fee will cover the cost of the book and all 10 movies.

Moderator will be Bill Ross, KSLM newscaster. The plan is for general discussion by all participants, without prepared speeches. Registration is requested by December 1, at the YMCA or with an organization's international relations chairman.

Snookie's Baby Hippos Snubs Food, Dies

Columbus, Ohio (AP)—Like its famous mother, Snookie's baby was too stubborn for its own good.

The 75 pound, 3 day old hippopotamus died of malnutrition yesterday after spurning Snookie's feeding attempts. It—Snookie wouldn't allow caretakers close enough to determine sex—was Snookie's third baby. One drowned, Mama—all 4,000 pounds of her—sat on the other. Snookie became famous a few years ago with an eight day sitdown strike while being transferred from Chicago to Columbus zoo.

DAY OF CONSTRUCTION on the FAMOUS 18th LOCKWOOD HOME!

We are doing fine with this interior painting—the walls and ceiling are completed and the woodwork has had one coat. The finish carpentry is completed and the cabinets have been installed.

Come out, one and all. See the high type of construction and materials that are going into this modern new home that's taking shape before your very eyes. We want you to know all about it. Ask the salesman any questions you want. He's right there on the property all day.

This is the model home that a veteran from Salem will get on December 25. With the help of the VFW in making a recommendation, we hope to announce the name of that veteran before long. In the meantime, come out! See the Lockwood Home in all phases of construction.
