Animal Lab At Willamette

A new phase in psychologi-cal research was introduced on

A new phase in psychological research was introduced on the Williamette university campus this week with the addition of an experimental animal laboratory.

Housed in the basement of Eaton hall, the laboratory is under the direction of newly appointed assistant professor of psychology, Dr. Frank J. Bauer. The young director was a research psychologist last year at the Roscoe B. Jackson Memorial laboratory in Bur Harbor, Mich.

Stockmen Offer Workers Dig Out Benson Plan

Hayden, Colo. (P)-A formula designed to supplant "impractical and dangerous" price sup-ports for cattle has been sub-mitted to Agriculture Secretary Benson by a group of cattlemen from three states.

The cattlemen, headed by Farrington R. Carpenter of Hayden, wrote Benson their "concern over the present market's disastrous effect on many opertors" led them to discuss a substitute plan for aiding ranchers and stabilizing the cattle market. cattle market.
