

Vikings Outweighed 15 Pounds Each by Rams Tonight

Crowd of Near 7000 Expected at Stadium

A crowd of 7,000 is expected to see the Salem high Vikings and Central Catholic Rams meet at McCulloch Stadium tonight in the state A-1 finals.

The winner will play the strong Grants Pass eleven next Friday night at Portland in the finals. Gate will open at 6:30.

Lee Gustafson's Vikings are undefeated in ten games this year while the Rams have won neither club is given a commanding edge but the weather may have a lot to say.

The Vikings worked out under the lights last night in their final practice for the game. Gustafson, Gray and Hank Juran will have their boys in top shape and keyed up for the battle.

nine straight this year and twenty in two years. Harry Scarff's Central team is the defending state champion while Salem has never played in the state play-offs.

Line Outweighed by 19
The Central line averages 189 pounds to Al Gray's Salem line's 170. In team weight averages the Vikings have 166 and the Rams have 181. The Big Central Catholic line is anchored by center Hal Duffy at 221 and tackle Al Sodaro at 235.

Vince Althenhofen paces the Rams' passing attack with Matt Musulin and Nick Santangelo at the ends. Neither backfield has too much weight with the Vikings not having a man weighing more than 175 and Central has its heaviest at 175.

Both teams have come up with powerful running attacks in rolling through their seasons in undefeated style. Halfbacks John Vranizan and George Kane and fullback Chuck Withers spark the Ram backfield that has rolled up 267 points thus far while the Central defense was holding their opposition to just 13 points.

Salem's offense has been impressive as they have run up a total of 367 points in 10 games. Salem's defense has held the other teams to 58 points or an average of about one touchdown a game.

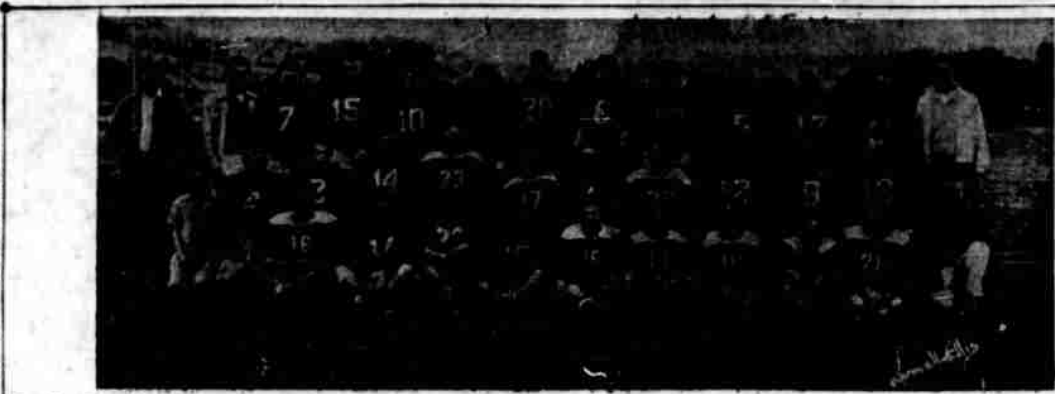

Field in Good Shape
Herb Triplett leads the Viking passing attack with Herb Juran taking a second string berth right behind him. The halfbacks for the Viks will be Ray Taylor and Neal Scheidel while Ken Rawlings will start at fullback but Terry Salisbury will see a lot of action at fullback.

McCulloch Stadium, the home of the Willamette University Beards, is in excellent playing condition and should allow the passing attack to be used at will. The field has not been played on for three weeks.

Ron Mather and Ray Holmquist will probably act as co-captains for the Vikings. Holmquist, who did well at Portland last week, may get a start as an end. The only change in the Salem line-up from last week is that Bob Goddard is replacing Jerry Walling at one tackle position.

The Rams have all their players in top shape and no player on the sidelines with the return of Duffy to the line-up. Duffy has recovered from a broken hand suffered earlier in the season. The Vikings have halfback Mike Campbell and tackle Jim Person on the sidelines for the remainder of the season. Neil Echeidel has stepped into Campbell's position.

Grants Pass Makes Finals

(By The Associated Press)
One state championship was decided and five teams won semifinal berths Friday night in the Oregon high school football playoffs.

Coburg defeated Halfway 58-13 to win the six-man title. Grants Pass, rated No. 8 in the Associated Press poll, beat Jefferson of Portland, ranked fifth, 32-7 to enter the finals of the 1-A division. Grants Pass will meet the winner of Saturday night's Salem-Central Catholic game for the championship.

Estacada Wins
Prineville and Estacada advanced to the 2-A final round. Prineville beat Coquille 21-7. Estacada, which fought to a 13-13 tie with St. Helens, earned its berth with a winning yardage margin.

Amity and Union will clash next week-end for the Class B championship. Amity edged Monroe 21-20 and Union defeated Moro 21-7. Bob Woods and Don Korn paced the winners scoring attack in the big game of the night at Grants Pass.

Woods scored two touchdowns, one on a 43-yard run in the second quarter and the other on a four-yard plunge in the final period. Korn, Gary Bollinger and Jerry Yosten scored the other three Grants Pass touchdowns.

Jefferson's touchdown came in the second quarter after a 55-yard fumble recovery run by tackle Jimmy Wiersom. Grant Jackson scored on a short plunge.

Grants Pass made good use of its big weight advantage on a muddy field which hampered speedy Jefferson's running and passing game.

Loser Favored
Biggest upset of the night was the tie at Estacada. St. Helens was favored to win but Estacada advanced to the championship game with a yardage to tal of 304 to 207 for St. Helens.

Duane Marshall scored both St. Helens' touchdowns. He ran 38 yards to the end zone in the final minutes of the first half and leaped over the goal line from one yard out in the final quarter.

Jerry Wallace scored Estacada's first touchdown, climaxing a 65-yard drive from the second half kickoff. Jim Vickerman broke over left tackle for the final Estacada tally.

At Coos Bay, Prineville posted its 23rd straight victory in downing Coquille. Mel Gillett led the attack for the winners with two touchdowns. Bob Klaus scored the other on a pass from Ron Parrish. Coquille's touchdown came in the second quarter when John DeMain circled left end to score.

Prineville, ranked No. 6 in the AP poll, is defending 2-A champion.

Gene Ehlers provided the game's winning point with a line plunge conversion in a class B thriller at McMinnville. Ehlers also scored for Amity in the third quarter and threw a 22-yard pass to Jerry Lenhardt for another touchdown in the final period. Phil Kaltenbach ran over the first conversion and Edler passed to Merle Steven for the second extra point. Harry Smith, Nelson Duke and Ray Joyner failed on one try for a conversion.

Bill Kates, Bill James and Al Jensen got touchdowns for Union at The Dalles. Danny Duncan scored for Moro.

The victory at Eugene gave Coburg its third six-man title and its 30th consecutive victory. Frank Littlejohn was leading scorer of the game with three touchdowns. Clint Crownover got two more for the winners.

Phil Kreighbaum scored both Halfway touchdowns.

Beaver Bowmen At Dallas Have Annual Dinner

Dallas — The Beaver bowmen held their 4th annual "Wild Game Dinner" at the Chamber of Commerce hall, Sunday afternoon, November 15, attended by 45 members and their guests. During the meeting 15 guests became members of this archery club.

The president, Wes Nairn, opened the meeting by presenting the Beaver Bowmen's perpetual trophies to the following: Dick Lanyon, men; Irene Siefert, women; Milo Nelson, junior boys; Sharon Pitzer, junior girls; Jimmy Conatser, Jr., junior boys; and the Pee-Wee trophy going to Dorothy Koop. Four other Pee Wees, Lynn Ritner, Johnny Humphrey, Jimmie rown, and Janet Grant received special prizes.

The tri-monthly grand awards went to the following: Jimmy Workman, Jr., junior boys; Sharon Pitzer, junior girls; Milo Nelson, junior boys; Irene Siefert, women; and Dick Lanyon, men. These awards were leather emblems, hand toolled by the president, Dick Lanyon.

The following were elected for the coming year: President, Dick Lanyon; vice-president, Don Siefert; secretary-treasurer, Irene Siefert; two-year director, V. G. Brown; and one-year director, Pete Koop. The O. B. H. field governor will be Dick Smith.

The president, Wes Nairn, gave a short talk on "The History of the Beaver Bowmen," and called on the following members who had killed their deer by bow and arrow: Milton Choquette, Milo Nelson, Wes Toevs, Harry Fast, Don Siefert, and V. G. Brown who substituted for Richard Pillier, who is serving with the Air Force in Texas.

The "Big Game Trophy" was awarded to Richard Pillier by proxy for killing a 225 pound buck with horn spread of 36 inches. The horns were displayed and admired by all present.

After the meeting Dick Lanyon and Dr. Robert Brinker entertained the group with movies and colored slides. The outgoing officers of the club thanked the members for an enjoyable year, and wished a successful year ahead to the new officers.

Rich Man Pours Oil on Houston's Untroubled Water

Houston, Tex. (AP)—A school whose chief benefactor apologetically explained his gifts had amounted to only 25 million dollars, not 210 million, had another $2,225,000 from him today for a football victory.

The school is burgeoning University of Houston and the oilman philanthropist with football fever is Hugh Roy Cullen.

The oilman, pleased with the school's football win over Baylor last week, announced his gift yesterday at a campus pep rally for today's game with Texas Tech.

"The great spirit and determination shown by the Cougars last Saturday in defeating Baylor fills me with enthusiasm and prompts me to do something for our great university," Cullen said. Nobody doubted his enthusiasm when he said a few minutes later:

"I have decided to give the university $2,225,000 in oil payments."

Scouting reports show that Maryland has blocked three punts in two previous games by employing an 8-1-2 defense (eight men on the scrimmage line, one linebacker, two halfbacks) when opponents are in punt formation deep in their own territory.

Alabama has prepared an "automatic" for such an occasion. It is Alabama's ball on their own 14-yard line, 18 yards from the left sideline, third down and nine, midway in the third quarter. Maryland leads, 7-6.

Alabama goes into a huddle and calls a punt, but the quarterback advises his team to listen for the automatic signal if the defense lines up 8-1-2. The "automatic" is called.

Rate these plays 1, 2, 3 and 4 as choices for the automatic: Pass to the right flat (short pass to the side)

Fake punt and Statue of Liberty (runner goes behind punter to take ball)

Pass behind the linebacker

End run to strong side with guards pulled out

Woodburn Golf Stockholders Elect

Woodburn — The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Woodburn golf club was held Wednesday night at the library. New directors elected were O. J. Adkinson and John Schmid, replacing Edgar Tweed and Tony Painter.

Directors holding over are George Jones, Howard Nelson, Ray Glatt and Mrs. L. J. Plank. Officers will be elected at a board meeting to be December 2 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Plank.

Al Napoleon To Change Into Khaki

Honolulu (AP)—Al Napoleon, Stanford football player recently involved in a draft board mix-up, will wear the Stanford red jersey today in the traditional "big game" with the University of California, but may exchange it for army khaki Monday.

Napoleon will report for induction at the San Jose, Calif., draft board Monday.

The hassle over Napoleon's draft status started last Wednesday when U. S. Attorney A. William Barlow filed a complaint against Napoleon here, charging violation of the selective service act. Stanford fans immediately sent up cries of foul on the part of UC— which remained silent throughout.

Napoleon surrendered the next day to the FBI and appeared before U. S. Commissioner Joseph Karesh in San Francisco. Karesh released Napoleon on his own recognizance and gave him a two-week delay.

However, Barlow said yesterday that Napoleon's attorney, James M. Richmond of Honolulu, said Napoleon would report for induction Monday.

To Dismiss Complaint
"If Napoleon reports immediately—meaning Monday—we will not prosecute and the complaint will be dismissed," Barlow said.

Meanwhile, Napoleon, whose chief claim to fame is catching a touchdown pass which upset UCLA, 21-20, Oct. 17, has maintained his innocence:

"It's all a mix-up! I've never received a draft induction notice," Napoleon said, "and I'm not trying to hide from anyone."

France's Langlois To Fight Turner

St. Louis (AP)—Pierre Langlois of France, ninth-ranked among the middleweights, takes on hard-punching Jesse Turner of St. Louis in a scheduled 10-round boxing bout at Kiel auditorium Saturday night.

Langlois expects to weigh in at about 156 pounds while Turner may go at 155.

Both fighters have equal records this year—five wins against two defeats—but Turner has scored four knockouts. Langlois, who employs a fast, moving-in-style, has not scored a kayo this year.

The fight will be televised nationally.

Amity Warriors Battle Way to Class B Finals

McMinnville — The Amity Warriors earned their way into the Class B finals opposite Union high with a 21-20 win over Monroe here Friday night. The Warriors earned the win on a sleeper play in the final quarter.

Center Ken Bantsari recovered a Monroe fumble on the 24 late in the game. The first time after the fumble Amity attempted the sleeper they fumbled and the play went unnoticed. They tried it again with halfback Jerry Lenhardt standing far to one side and grabbed the pass from Gene Ehlers to score the tying touchdown. Ehler's tallied the conversion and Amity had their winning margin.

The Warriors scored their first touchdown in the opening quarter with Ehlers climaxing a 21 yard drive by going over from the four. Ehlers passed to Merle Stephens for the extra point and Amity led 7-0 at the quarter.

Ray Sitphen's Warrior's went behind 20-7 in the second period as the Monroe eleven scored three times. Their first came on Harry Smith's run and then the other two were tallied by Ray Joyner and Nelson Duke. Two of the conversions were good.

The Warriors came back with a touchdown in the third quarter on Ehler's short plunge. The drive started on the Monroe 28 after Bob Engelland had intercepted a pass and run to the 28. It took seven plays for Amity to score and then they added the all important extra point with quarterback Phil Kaltenbach going over.

Monroe had the edge on statistics but didn't have the punch when they needed it. The game was played on a muddy field with a driving wind hampering play. Amity 7 0 7 7—21
