Unanimous Vote for UCLA Star

By BOB MYERS
 Los Angeles (AP)—The 1953 All-Pacific Coast Conference football team, as selected by the Associated Press with the cooperation of the conference coaches, features Stanford University's dazzling passing combination and a set of hard running backs led by Paul Cameron of UCLA.

Cameron, the 185-pound plaster from Burbank, Calif., was the lone unanimous choice by the coaches and their assistants.

PCC All-Stars
 Los Angeles (AP)—Here is the 1953 All-Pacific Coast Conference football team as selected by the Associated Press in cooperation with conference coaches:

Ends—Sam Morley, Stanford; John Steinberg, Stanford.

Tackles—Charles Doud, UCLA; Duane Wardlow, Washington.

Guards—George Timberlake, USC; Milt Bohart, Washington.

Center—Ron Pheister, Oregon.

Backs—Bob Garrett, Stanford; Paul Cameron, UCLA; Aramis Dandoy, USC; George Shaw, Oregon.

Stanford's star quarterback, Bob Garrett, and big two sparkling receivers, Sam Morley and John Steinberg.

Named with Garrett and Cameron in the backfield were Oregon's great all-around quarterback, George Shaw, and fleet Aramis Dandoy of the University of Southern California.

The all-PCC line boasts Charles (Chuck) Doud of UCLA and Duane Wardlow of Washington, tackles; George Timberlake of Southern California and Milt Bohart of Washington, guards, and Ron Pheister of Oregon, center.

The coaches' ballot is confidential with the AP, but it is easy to guess that the vote on most of the positions and candidates was close. The tabulation soon showed that some of the outstanding players would of necessity be squeezed out of the top 11 places.

Patera on 2nd Team
 The second team is no less star-studded. It leads off with backs Paul Larson and Al Talley of California, Wayne Berry of Washington State and Flip Kieffner of Idaho.

The line: Ends, Myron Berliner, UCLA, and Tom Nickloff, USC; tackles, Jack Ellena, UCLA, and Jack Patera, Oregon, and center, Matt Hazeltine, California.

The first team consists of eight seniors and three juniors, Dandoy, and Pheister and Shaw. As an aggregate, the team can boast of speed, size, deception and experience.

Doubtless the main surprise of the team was the fact that California, for the first time in many years, did not land a player on the first outfit.

Linfield Will Retire Rutschman's No.
 McMinnville (AP)—Football jersey number 32, owned and used for four years by Linfield fullback Ad Rutschman, has been retired by the athletic department.

Retirement of the number was by special consent of the student body and the letterman's club. This is the first time in the college's history that any athlete has been given this honor.

Bruins Sure of Bowl Bid As Coast Officials Vote

San Francisco (AP)—UCLA's mighty Bruins were almost assured of a Rose Bowl bid today as Pacific Coast Conference officials cast ballots for their representative at Pasadena against Michigan State.

The Bruins climbed to the top of the PCC standings on Saturday when they defeated USC, 13-0, and California's Bears held a strong Stanford eleven to a 21-21 tie.

Voting by the PCC representatives in the nine schools was expedited to be completed and the choice announced today. Each school will telegraph its nomination to the office of Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt in Los Angeles.

Bruins Ahead
 Saturday's victory over the Trojans gave the Bruins a league record of six wins and one loss while Stanford ended up with a mark of five victories, one loss and one tie.

Coach Red Sanders of UCLA said he considers Michigan State a fine choice as the Big Ten representative for the Rose Bowl. He said the Bruins "would rather face the best team in the Big Ten and we figure Michigan State is that team."

Eighty-three thousand fans jammed the Memorial Coliseum in Los Angeles Saturday to watch the Bruins in the crucial tilt that gave them the PCC crown.

Weekend Games
 California's fighting eleven came from behind to earn the tie with Stanford.

An upset was registered in the Northwest when Oregon State tallied in the opening quarter to down Oregon, 7-0.

In Seattle, Washington State came from behind to beat their traditional rival, Washington, 25-20.

Idaho lost its eighth game of the season when the Vandals fell before Utah State, 19-7.

Games this weekend:
 Notre Dame play USC in Los Angeles; Pepperdine vs. Whitties on the latter's field; Utah State and College of Pacific at Lodi, Calif.; Utah and Brigham Young in Salt Lake City; Denver and Wyoming at Denver; Colorado A&M meets Colorado at Fort Collins, and Arizona faces Arizona State at Tempe.

Browns Win Again 20-16, Favored to Gain 8th Title

By EARL WRIGHT
 New York (AP)—The undefeated Cleveland Browns, probably the most consistent team in the pro football history, will be heavily favored to win their eighth division title in as many tries when they entertain the Chicago Cardinals next Sunday.

Otto Graham's passes, Lou Groza's place kicks and good defensive play enabled Cleveland to defeat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 20-16, yesterday for its ninth 1953 victory. The Philadelphia Eagles made it six in a row by shutting out the Cardinals, 38-0, Saturday night but they trail by 2 1/2 games with only three games to go and another Cleveland triumph will end the National League's Eastern Conference title race.

A Tight West Race
 The positions of the three leaders in the tight western race did not change as the Detroit Lions rallied to beat the Chicago Bears, 20-16, and keep a half-game lead over the runner-up Los Angeles Rams. The Rams also rallied to beat the Baltimore Colts, 21-13, and the San Francisco Forty-Niners remained a game behind Detroit by defeating the Green Bay Packers, 37-7.

The Washington Redskins scored 17 fourth-period points for a 24-21 victory over the formed the game was over. Lightner ruled the Oregon goal worth one point, throwing the game into an overtime—"probably the only time two points became one," Kolb added.

Oregon State won eventually.

15 Service Clubs To Honor Viking Gridders Dec. 11
 About 15 Salem service clubs will join in honoring the Salem high school football team at a noon banquet Dec. 11 at the armory.

The Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce, which initiated plans earlier, appointed Bill Byers as chairman. Byers said a hot meal will be served at 12 noon, with the program lasting from 11:45 to 1:15.

The high school pep band will play during the program. Other details will be announced later today.

Referees Tell Duties To S.B.C.

Football and basketball officials don't work games as a vocation, but as an avocation and for "personal satisfaction," the Salem Breakfast club was told this morning by guest referees.

George Sirnio remarked that 99 1/2 per cent of officials are former athletes or coaches with an interest in the sport and he asserted that "officials make fewer mistakes than players or others associated with the game." Nineteen of 20 coaches themselves don't read the rules, he claimed.

Written rules don't always mean what they say, he continued, which is one reason why the Salem Officials association was organized in 1947 to seek uniform interpretation of rules and standard qualifications for officials. Sirnio explained that the association requires apprenticeship for new referees until they prove themselves.

Not Policemen
 Al Lightner, veteran of 12 years of whistle tooting in football and basketball, including Pacific Coast league games, said "We are not policemen but believe the game belongs to the kids and the schools."

"The basketball games won't be as rough as some claim" under a policy to discourage too much whistle blowing. Lightner told the Senator hotel gathering. "We work on the theory that if contact doesn't affect the play we won't call it. We don't want players to use elbows, knees or hips when going after the ball and we will draw the line between 'getting someone' and playing straight basketball."

There isn't one major rule change for this year, Lightner said, with the one-and-one foul shot still in effect with two shots on all fouls in the last three minutes.

John Kolb, the third guest official, related incidents of the past, one involving an Oregon-Oregon State game in Portland. Oregon, trailing one point, shot a field goal at about the same time the final gun fired, unheard in the uproar by anyone but the timer, who wouldn't venture to say if the shot was in time.

Two Points Become One
 Oregon State took the ball down court and shot again before Referee Lightner was informed the game was over. Lightner ruled the Oregon goal worth one point, throwing the game into an overtime—"probably the only time two points became one," Kolb added.

Oregon State won eventually.

Man Chalks 159 Miles in 8 Hours
 Molspur Park, England (AP)—Wally Hayward, 45-year-old South African, set a world record for running Saturday—covering 159 miles, 582 yards in 24 hours.

Hayward had to be assisted off the tiny Molspur Park cinder track. He flopped exhausted on a dressing room bench and scarcely seemed interested as aides told him he had smashed every known record from eight hours up. During the monotonous jogging around the oval track he lost seven pounds.

Late Train Delays 'Cats' Return From 52-7 Loss

Return of the Willamette university football team from its 52-7 Saturday night defeat at San Luis Obispo, Cal., was delayed today by a slide on the tracks of the Southern Pacific railroad.

Scoring the 52 points according to custom was California State Polytechnical college, final opponent of the Bearcats this season, giving the Bearcats a season's record of five losses, two victories and a tie. For Cal Poly it was victory No. 9, making it one of the few western colleges with perfect records.

The host Mustangs scored 20 points for a 20-7 halftime lead before beginning to submerge a stubborn Bearcat defense. Four TDs came in the fourth quarter.

The Salem delegation crossed the goal line in the second quarter when Quarterback Harvey Neffendorf passed three times to Dean Benson, end, the final one for 25 yards. Ray Chaipuzio, guard, converted.

fourth period avalanche, followed by Alex Bravo on a 25-yard scoring jaunt, Bob Hawkins from the 4 and Jeter on a diving run after another pass interception.

HOOP OFFICIALS TO MEET
 The Salem Basketball Officials association will meet at 7:30 tonight at the Salem YMCA. Al Wickert, secretary, said that rules interpretation will be the major business to be transacted.
