East Salem

East Salem — The annual "Harvest Festival" sponsored by members of the Auburn Parents club at the school house Thursday night was considered a success both financially and as a social evening for residents of this community. It is planned as an annual event in the fall when schools are having open house programs. As in other schools each room had some project measured.

All year Miss Sadie Roth's first grade teacher has a corner of her class room which is the play corner, with dolls for the girls and suitable toys for the boys of six years. Thanksgiving murals and Pilgrim pictures with harvest time collections were featured in all four class rooms. Working in special booths and with different projects were: fancy work table, Mgs. Donald Griswood, Mrs. Jack Killinger and Mrs. Douglas Nelson.

Herman J. Gumbert is president of the association and Ed Norene is secretary-treasurer.
