Aurora

Aurora—Airman 1/c Richard E. Brown, son of Mrs. Clarence Collins of Mackburg, is en route home from Guam where he has been on duty since June.

Mrs. L. Webert is recovering from a recent illness which confined her to her home for quite some time.

J. T. Smith who has been ill at his home for the past several months, is reported slightly improved.

John Struwe is convalescing at the home of his niece, Mrs. Clarence Collins, near Mackburg. Mr. Struwe suffered a heart seizure while at work at the Hurst sawmill near Aurora several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Aikin were honored at dinner, Saturday, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Miller at Beaverton.

Miss Norma Jean Hurst spent the weekend at her home here. Miss Hurst is a freshman at Maryhurst College.

A group of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schneider in West Aurora, at a farewell party for Harold Schneider, who was visiting his parents.

Donald

Donald — Mrs. K. Iverson of Donald has another great-grandson. A son was born on Tuesday, Nov. 17, at Hutchinson hospital in Oregon City to Mr. and Mrs. Merle E. Learfield (Marlene Gianella). The baby weighed 7 pounds, 1 1/2 ounces and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gianella of Learfield and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan K. Iverson of Needy. He also has two great-grandmothers, Mrs. Mary Gianella and Mrs. K. Iverson, both of Donald.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Feller are having a foundation put under their home in Donald.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Christopherson and children of Wasco, Oregon, are living in a new home in town, but it wasn't a planned move. Their young son, Neal, five, evidently was playing with matches while his mother was out napping yesterday, when she looked towards the house, she saw clouds of smoke coming out, fortunately the entire house wasn't burned, but they did lose their clothes, and the entire inside of the house was badly burned. Mr. and Mrs. Christopherson have been working on a ranch at Wasco for the past year. After their home burned, their employer rented them a house in town until their house can be repaired.

Barney Feller and his daughter "June-Bug" went on a goose hunting expedition over the weekend and brought a goose back with them.

Sgt. Krueckman is home on a nine-day leave. He expects to be released by the army shortly after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Ernie Yergen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yergen is home for the Thanksgiving holidays. He has to report back the day after Thanksgiving, at which time, he believes, she will be sent to Hawaii. He is with the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herlin and children from Astoria, were weekend guests of their father, John Pelto.

Mrs. William Biem of Mt. Angel, who had a lung operation last summer is now recuperating from pneumonia at the home of her sister, Mrs. Delbert Haener of Donald.

Ernie Pelto, son of John Pelto of Donald, left Monday morning for Parks Airbase in California. From there, it is believed, he will be sent to the large airbase in Japan, and he will probably be gone two years. His enlistment will be up in August of 1955. He has just been home on leave. He is a radar technician.

Last week, John Pelto and his son, Ernie, drove to Seattle, Wash., where they visited Mrs. Hilda Matka, a sister of John Pelto's.

Saturday evening, Nov. 21, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Haener celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary with a party attended by more than 40 friends and relatives.

Square dancing was the chief entertainment of the evening.

Guests came from Lebanon, Portland, Salem, Monroe, Broadacres, Mt. Angel, Independence, St. Paul, Newberg, Aurora, Donald and Virgil Haener of Long Beach, Calif., was here for the celebration.

Joan Mendenhall, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mendenhall, was honored with a party on her birthday last week. She received many lovely gifts, games were played and the usual cake and ice cream were served, and

Unionvale

Unionvale — Mrs. Orick Busick, a registered nurse of Unionvale in home training, is preparing to start two classes in home training Saturday, Nov. 28, at the Hopewell home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Terrill, where a room is especially equipped. One class will be for Grand Island and Unionvale and the other for Hopewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Donich of McMinnville, have a girl, Suann Lorraine, weight seven pounds 15 ounces, born Nov. 18 at McMinnville.

Mrs. Walter Diebel, who is in the McMinnville nursing home is slightly improved.

Victor Launer who received a broken right leg July 10, and was in McMinnville about four months, is at his home again.

Webfoot

Webfoot — The Webfoot Home Demonstration unit held an all day meeting with dinner served at 12:30 Wednesday.

"Cottage making" was the lesson with Mrs. Stephen Benedict and Mrs. John Hardy the project leaders.

Mrs. Gerald Hadley and Mrs. John Heffley were guests.

Attending were: Mesdames Benedict, Pete Ediger, Ray McManis, T. Lyman, Dale Massey, Archie Shafer, Howard Lovely, Gordon Graham, John Hardy, Harry Sherman, James Watts, E. R. Zinsal.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lovely in Dayton and making gloves will be the project with Mrs. Gordon Graham and Mrs. Lovely, the leaders.

Scotts Mills

Scotts Mills — Mrs. Henry Shilts is in Silvertown hospital where she underwent surgery Wednesday morning.

Mrs. James Nicholson was able to return to her home from the hospital recently.

A farewell dinner, honoring the Lawrence McCracken family, who are moving to Ontario, was given at the Friends church recently.

Honoring little Roger Mack, several young friends gathered at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mack, to celebrate his birthday.

Mrs. Almond Rich has been visiting her daughter's family who live in southern Oregon.

Scotts Mills—Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the residence of Kearney Robinson, early Friday morning.

Mr. Robinson, an elderly man, was awakened by smoke about 2 a.m. and ony had time to escape.

ACORNS FROM THE

Oak Room

WITH DEL MILNE

I've always talked a lot. My friends tell me. But today I'm going to go one better. I'm going to talk out of both sides of my mouth at once.

One side's saying—Thanksgiving's on Thursday.

The other side's saying that means Xmas is almost here.

Thanksgiving means turkey... lots of it... a big dinner... a homey atmosphere.

Xmas means clothes. Parties, dances... Clothes, clothes, clothes.

Cranberry sauce gliblet gravy... ah-h-h!

You gals can see 'em all at our monthly fashion luncheon presented by Johnson's on Tuesday, Dec. 1st in the Gold Room.

You can taste all of it at the Hotel Marion's Thanksgiving Day dinner. The whole family's invited and it's going to be some special dinner!

Make your reservations now! Phone 3-4123 today!
