Plans for Smorgasbord Outlined

Planning for the eighth annual smorgasbord sponsored by the YWCA and YMCA began this week with the announcement of committee assignments by co-chairmen Mrs. Harold O. Schneider and Gus Moore. The winter event, a highlight among Salem gourmets, will be at the YMCA main gymnasium Tuesday, December 8, from 5 to 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Oscar Liudahl and Mrs. Theron Hoover will be in charge of assembling, preparing and serving the quantities of food required to feed the 600 or more expected to attend. Because of the popularity of the event arrangements are being made this year to serve continuously from 5 to 8 o'clock. The program of entertainment will be repeated throughout the evening so that all may enjoy it no matter what hour attending.

Dave Hoss will be master of ceremonies, assisted as program coordinators by Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Anderson. The theme will be a "Festival of Nations," suggested by the world fellowship and service programs of the YWCA and YMCA for which proceeds of the smorgasbord are used. Food, music, decorations and entertainment will carry out the theme.

Other committee assignments are: Decorations, Miss Gloria Kainu, Mrs. James Armon and Ardo Tarum; entertainment, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone; tables, Mrs. Willard Thompson; publicity, Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Brandt, Jr.

Members of the Y boards will act as hosts and hostesses, while tickets will be sold by the Y's Men's club. Y-teens will serve the famous pastry desserts, and the Campus Y group will serve as busboys.

Norblads Home

Congressman and Mrs. Walter Norblad returned Tuesday from a month's sojourn in the Hawaiian Islands. They made the trip by ship with several other congressional couples.

Meeting them in Portland were their son Albin and Congressman Norblad's secretary, Mrs. Charles Woodring.

MAJOR AND MRS. Scott A. Bishop, San Jose, Calif., visited last week-end with Major and Mrs. James L. Scott at the Haselhof apartments. Major Bishop recently retired from the U. S. army air force. He returned to the states after an extended tour of duty with the air force in England. Mrs. Bishop is a niece of Major Scott.

Plan Dinner

Officers of Court Capital, Independent Order of Foresters, met this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Miller. Final plans were made for the Christmas dinner planned for December 4 for all members and their immediate families, the event to be at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

WITH Mrs. Gladys VanDeWalker for the holiday dinner will be her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sherman and their children, Sara and Kay.

GUESTS of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Heltzel for the Thanksgiving dinner will be her mother, Mrs. W. W. Gabriel, and her nephew, Dick Gabriel, of Portland.

WORD COMES from Fort Belvoir, Va., that Mrs. Robert Graf (Mary Evelyn Parke), formerly of Salem, recently starred in the play "Three's a Family," presented at the post theater. Captain Graf is stationed at Fort Belvoir.
