

Miss Wampole Is Bride

Woodburn—The First Presbyterian church at Woodburn was the setting for a beautiful wedding Sunday November 22, when Miss Gertrude Wampole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Wampole of Woodburn, was wed to Howard A. Lengele, son of Mrs. Marvin Lengele of Prineville, and the late Mr. Lengele.

Tall baskets of white chrysanthemums and candelabras entwined with ivy and white blossoms decorated the sanctuary, and pews were marked with ribbon bows and white flowers.

Mrs. Alfred Moon was organist and accompanied the soloists, Richard Moon and Miss Harriet Nisic. She also played the wedding march and the recessional. The candles were lighted by two of the ushers, Lyndon Lengele and Vernon Wampole.

The double ring service was read by the pastor, the Rev. Robert E. Van, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of a large number of invited guests and relatives.

Lester Wampole gave his sister in marriage. The wedding dress of the bride was of white lace and satin, fashion with a fitted bodice of lace, pointed in front and back; long lace sleeves, low scalloped neckline with sequin and pearl trim. The skirt of slipper satin extended into a long court train and the veil of net was fingertip length, held in place by a small cap with seed pearl trim. The bride wore her grandmother's bracelet and carried a white Bible topped with two large orchids.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Lester Wampole, sister-in-law of the bride. She wore orchid taffeta, fashioned similarly to the dress of the bride. She carried an old fashioned nosegay.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Peterson of Portland, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Kenneth Day of Roseburg, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Willard Begin of Gervais, all dressed alike in green taffeta and carrying old fashioned nosegays. Junior attendants were Janice and Jeanne Wampole in pink organdy and carrying nosegays. Ring bearers were Dennis Peterson of Portland and Jimmy Langdon of Aurora.

Ushers were Lyndon Lengele of Roseburg, Martin Lengele of Prineville, brothers of the bridegroom, and Vernon Wampole, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Wampole, mother of the bride, chose a blue crepe dress with white accessories with which she wore an orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Lengele, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gray dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

At the close of the ceremony the couple knelt at the altar as Richard Moon sang.

A reception in the church social room followed the ceremony. Mrs. Oscar E. Nelson of North Richland, Wash., aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake; Mrs. Darrell Wade of Roseburg presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Francis Lengele served punch. Mrs. Joseph Serres passed the guest book and at the gift table were Mrs. Harold Colgan and Mrs. Russell Blevans. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Roy P. Kuns, Mrs. Margaret Johnston, Mrs. Fred Miller and Mrs. Lillie Moberg of Salem. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Leo Schindler of Orchard, Wash., aunt of the bride, Mrs. Guy Engle and Miss Karen Kuns.

Mr. and Mrs. Lengele left for a wedding trip to the north. For traveling the bride wore a gray flannel suit, with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple will live at Aurora.

Visitors Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Christmas left Wednesday for their home in Bloomington, Ill., stopping at Seattle en route. They have been visiting here at the home of his brother, Henry Christmas, and with other relatives. They came to Salem from Los Angeles where they had been attending a convention, stopping at San Francisco en route north.

Monday afternoon, the visitors and Mr. Christmas were guests at the home of the latter's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Christmas, in Portland.

Sunday, Henry Christmas and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Byers, Jr., entertained at the Christmas home for the visitors, additional guests being Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christmas, a nephew and niece of Henry and Carl Christmas, and their son, John, from Tacoma; Mr. Byers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Byers, Sr., and daughter, Miss Bonnie Byers of Albany.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. William Byers, Jr., entertained at a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Christmas, Henry Christmas and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Christmas and son, Hank, of Portland.

For Bride-Elect

Honoring Miss Alma Birchell, who is to be married on December 11 to Duane Graham, Mrs. Fred Johnson was hostess for a shower Tuesday evening.

Feting the bride-elect were Mrs. Dale Olson, Mrs. Raymond Thies, Mrs. Orval Graham, Mrs. Eldon Lappin, Mrs. Steve Rosenbaum, Mrs. Thur Lindstrom, Mrs. Bud Merrill, Mrs. Wendell Brown, Miss Joella Brown, Miss Mary Hawkins, Miss Lucette Graham, Miss Viola Johnson and the hostess.

AT THE recent meeting of the Salem Button club at the home of Mrs. Leif Finseth in Dallas, officers for the coming year were elected.

Officers include: President, Mrs. F. E. Fralick; vice president, Mrs. F. A. Smith; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. L. P. Richey; historian, Mrs. Luke Johnston.

Plans were made for the Oregon state button show to be in Salem next year.
