Jefferson

Jefferson — The W. S. C. S. of the Methodist Church met Wednesday afternoon and committees announced for the annual bazaar to be held Friday Dec. 4 at the City Hall, beginning at 10 o'clock.

A snack bar will be selling coffee and cookies. There will be booths displaying candy, fancywork, canned fruit, Christmas novelties, Christmas corsages, and swags, cooked food and parcel post package gifts.

Committees are Christmas novelties, Mrs. George Mason; canned fruit, Miss Adelle Libby; corsages and swags, Mrs. Helen Caywood; snacks, Mrs. G. A. Lensman, Mrs. W. F. Gulvin; candy, Mrs. Earl Phelps; and Mrs. O. A. Hall; fancywork, Mrs. Roland Wall and Mrs. Lester Shields; cooked food, Mrs. E. C. Hart, Mrs. Eric Fitzsimons, Mrs. Robert Smith.

Mrs. W. F. Gulvin presided during the business meeting. Mrs. Mason was devotional leader; Mrs. Hart gave the lesson. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. A. B. Hinz and Mrs. Helen Caywood.

Enjoying a day and night at Depoe Bay were Mrs. Lydia Englund and her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jacobson of St. Paul, Minn., on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Erb are parents of an eight pound fourteen ounce son, Michael Cleon, born Nov. 13 at the Salem General Hospital. This is their fourth child.

Dry arrangements were the topic for the "Jefferson Friendly Garden Club" at the Monday night meeting. Mrs. Helen Caywood and Mrs. Frank Martin made arrangements of dry materials. Arrangements also were made by Mrs. Virgil Bailes and Mrs. Arthur Harris.

Roland Wall presided at the business meeting and introduced Mrs. Hatlie Paris of Stayton who presented a 48 cup electric coffee urn, two burner electric plate and kettle for heating water, to the city hall to be used by all organizations using the hall. The urn was presented in memory of the Gunnalus family, who spent their first night on the City Hall property 100 years ago.

Members reported ill were Mrs. Glen Cobb, Mrs. Earl Lynes, Miss Louisa Miller and Earl Phelps.

Hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Looney and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Wynd. The Dec. 21 meeting will be a gift exchange of plants and bulbs. Holiday arrangements will be made and displayed by members. The hospitality committee includes Mrs. Wesley Barnes, Mrs. Hart Barnes, Miss Mary Donohue, Mrs. Claude Overholser, and Mr. and Mrs. George Mills. Mrs. Ernest Powell will have on display a Christmas wreath and Mrs. Roland Wall a door swag. Mrs. M. H. Gilderalee was introduced at a new member. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hart Sr. were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jacobson of St. Paul, Minn. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Broxon and Englund the past week. They left Thursday for San Diego, Calif. to visit their son stationed there. Mrs. Jacobson and Mrs. Broxon are sisters and had not seen each other for nearly 18 years. Mr. and Mrs. Broxon entertained with an early Thanksgiving dinner in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Falls City

Falls City—Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Gish were Mrs. Gish's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Montey Heppner of Pleasant Hill, near Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Earle of the Oakdale community had the misfortune to lose their house and all contents by fire recently.

Only a chest of drawers, a pair of blankets and two boxes of canned fruit were saved.

A shower was given them Wednesday evening and gifts of clothing, canned fruit and some bedding was received.

Mr. Earle had just purchased a large bill of groceries for the winter, which were all lost.

Anyone having a gift of furniture or anything to donate may leave the articles with the John Cook family or get in touch with the Earles at the Senior Earle's home in Dallas where they are now staying.

They have a 6-year-old girl and a baby boy a few months old.

Leonard Westbrook is able to be out of the house again following a severe recent illness.

Mrs. Dora Glaze of Dallas visited her daughter, Mrs. Claude Allen a few days the past week.

Mrs. Fred Hughes of Salem also visited Mrs. Allen recently and the two ladies called upon Mrs. Jessie Moyer at the Evans Rest Home in Dallas, and found her to be quite happy and as well as usual.

Jerry Livingston has arrived home from Japan where he has served in army duty for the past two years.

Mr. Livingston was a friend and house guest of Mrs. Moyer for several years before entering the service. She was delighted by a visit from him last Sunday.

The Oakdale Ladies club will hold its next meeting at the home of Jennie Evans and it will be an all day affair as they will pack a "Care" package for Korea and one or more packages for old folks homes.

A pot luck dinner will be served at noon by the hostess, and Mrs. W. K. Cummings as co-hostess.

A grab-box will provide fun for the entertainment hour as it will be the club's Christmas party.

Mrs. Cecil Carey took advantage of their day off at the store Wednesday by doctoring a heavy cold which she contracted earlier in the week.

Gertrude Hotchkiss treated the teacher and pupils of the Oakhurst school to elaborately decorated cup cakes and ice cream, Friday, as it was her daughter, Loni's birthday.

Loni becomes 7 years old Nov. 22, and is a second grader.

Rosie Sweitzer and Gertrude Hotchkiss had lunch together in Salem one day recently while Mrs. Sweitzer was in town on business.

Those honoring Mrs. Eichelberger were Mrs. Arthur Sorenson, Mrs. Ted Girod, Mrs. Arthur Evans, Mrs. L. W. Jones, Mrs. Jack Chapin, Mrs. W. A. Smith, Mrs. Everett Whelan, Mrs. Delbert Bair, Mrs. Louis Adams, Mrs. George Landrith, Mrs. L. J. Chapin, Mrs. Arnold Fast, Mrs. Ferd Zeeb, Mrs. John Guy, Mrs. Clara Johnson, Mrs. Kenneth Seely, Mrs. T. C. Mason, and Mrs. Mills.

Eighteen women were served a buffet luncheon as part of the project on Buffet Meals when the extension unit met Friday at the home of Mrs. John E. Guy. Leaders were Mrs. Arthur Evans and Mrs. Ted Girod. Mrs. Girod also introduced the study of Hawaii by reading a letter from an extension agent in the islands.

During the discussion on program planning for next year, led by Mrs. Walter Oldenburg, interest was expressed in growing house plants, nutrition, dry cleaning, and dyeing. The next meeting will be in January at the home of Mrs. T. C. Mason.

The Christian Service Guild of the EUB Church is sponsoring a carnival Saturday, Nov. 28. It will be held in the school house beginning at 7 p.m. There will be a fishpond, cakewalk, pie throwing and various games with prizes.

Those having articles to donate to the white elephant sale are requested to call Mrs. Delbert Bair or leave them at the schoolhouse on Friday. Proceeds from the carnival will be used in redecorating the Sunday school room of the church, which is the Guild's project for the year.

Detroit

Detroit—The E. R. Firestone family are spending the holiday in Portland, where they will visit Mrs. Firestone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, and be the guests of Mr. Firestone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Firestone, for the Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Waters arrived Monday from Bremerton, Wash., to spend the holiday with the Ray Sophys. Mr. Waters is a brother of Mrs. Sophy.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kite and children, Sandy and Michael, will drive to Canby, Thursday, to be dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Kite's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Keubler.

Despite the wet weather, tree planting continues in the Detroit district of the Willamette National Forest, District Ranger S. T. Moore announced, and the work should go on for the next three weeks.

A week long forest service project to poison rodents, particularly the white-footed mice, in the Parkett Creek sale area ended recently. The purpose of the operation was to insure germination of an unusually heavy seed fall in that area in a year of generally poor seed conditions. Poisoned grain was the bait used.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Moore were Mrs. Moore's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Johnson of Portland.

Hopewell

Hopewell—Homecoming service was held at the Hopewell EUB church on Sunday, Nov. 22, with a good attendance. Rev. C. L. Harris of Portland preached. Miss Dorothy Brown of Salem sang a solo, and Mrs. John Widmer of Woodburn was guest pianist.

Following a potluck dinner at noon, a motion picture was shown.

Out of community guests were Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cornely, Miss Marlene Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cornely, all of Portland; Rev. F. E. Fisher of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. John Widmer of Woodburn, and James Bennett of St. Helens.

The Hopewell home extension unit will hold its December meeting at the Hopewell EUB church Dec. 1 at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Clarence Legg and Mrs. Frank Mersha are the project leaders for "Glove Making" and Mrs. John Fuqua, chairman, will be in charge of the business meeting. Potluck dinner will be served at noon.

The Hopewell Community club will hold its next meeting Dec. 3, at 8 p.m. at the Hopewell school. Mrs. Glen Harris, president, will be in charge of the business meeting, and A. A. Anderson of McMinnville will show the motion pictures of Hawaii which he took in his visit there last winter. Refreshments will be served.

The Red Cross home nursing classes which were to start Nov. 30 have been postponed until after the new year, due to illness in the families of both instructors, Mrs. E. J. Terrill and Mrs. Orlick Busick.

Mrs. Stephen Tarter is with her daughter, Mrs. Marvin DeReave, near Amity caring for her and the children. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin DeReave are the parents of twin daughters, Joni Lou, 5 lbs. 7 oz., and Jodi Sue, 5 lbs. 8 oz., born Nov. 19, at Salem General hospital. The little twins are still at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Tarter are the parents of a daughter, Teresa June, 8 lbs. 11 oz., born at the Salem General hospital Nov. 21. Mrs. Tarter was formerly Miss Phyllis Meeker of Amity.

Mrs. Tom Mulloy and cousin, Pete Mulloy, of Sherwood were Wednesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Pearse.

Hopewell—Homecoming service was held at the Hopewell EUB church on Sunday, Nov. 22, with a good attendance. Rev. C. L. Harris of Portland preached. Miss Dorothy Brown of Salem sang a solo, and Mrs. John Widmer of Woodburn was guest pianist.

Following a potluck dinner at noon, a motion picture was shown.

Out of community guests were Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cornely, Miss Marlene Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cornely, all of Portland; Rev. F. E. Fisher of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. John Widmer of Woodburn, and James Bennett of St. Helens.

The Hopewell home extension unit will hold its December meeting at the Hopewell EUB church Dec. 1 at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Clarence Legg and Mrs. Frank Mersha are the project leaders for "Glove Making" and Mrs. John Fuqua, chairman, will be in charge of the business meeting. Potluck dinner will be served at noon.

The Hopewell Community club will hold its next meeting Dec. 3, at 8 p.m. at the Hopewell school. Mrs. Glen Harris, president, will be in charge of the business meeting, and A. A. Anderson of McMinnville will show the motion pictures of Hawaii which he took in his visit there last winter. Refreshments will be served.
