Voice of Firestone will observe its 25th anniversary with a special program Monday, November 30.

The program which customarily presents one or two soloists, will offer six on this occasion. They are mezzo-soprano Rise Stevens, soprano Eleanor Steber, tenor Thomas Hayward, tenor Brian Sullivan, bass Jerome Hines and baritone Thomas L. Thomas. A feature of the 25th anniversary show will be the six, singing together for the first time, in the sextette from "Lucia di Lammermoor" by Donizetti.

Donizetti.

The soloists will be backed by a mixed chorus, and conductor Howard Barlow will wield his baton over a symphony orchestra augmented from the customary 48 to 58.

The "Voice of Firestone" not only is the oldest coast-to-coast network musical program in radio but also is a pioneer in combined TV-and-radio programming. It has been presented weekly on TV since Sept. 5, 1949.

Senator Praises Nepal 4-Point Work Washington (P)-Sen. Mans-fied (D-Mont), reporting on his impressions of Point Four ad-ministration in the Far East, has high praise for the work in Nepal but criticism for that in Indochina.

In a report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday, Mansfield said tech nical assistance personnel were doing a "remarkable" job in Nepal. But he said he found on his study tour that Indochina's mission has been a target for "widespread" charges of incompetence. He urged an investigation.
