WITH DEL MILNE

"Passat, Mac" possessed this character. I wasn't sure he meant me. I didn't look up. "Hey, you. With the funny face" said this character. He couldn't possibly have meant me. I shuffled some papers on my desk. "You, Hey, Mac. Lookie, Passat!" He voice broke. "My wife wants me to make a reservation. I pointed to the desk. I looked up quick. ... for the Xmas Fashion Luncheon ... I looked up quick. ... on Tuesday, Dec. 1st, in the Gold Room." I leaped over the desk. I grabbed his hand. Shook it heartily. We welcomed him to the hotel. Admired his tie. Handed him a card. Which said:
