Rhee, Chiang Call Parley of Asia Anti-Reds

Taipei, Formosa (AP)—South Korea's President Syngman Rhee called Saturday for a security conference of anti-Communist South-east Asian nations and hinted that his government and Nationalist China may sponsor such a conclave.

Rhee addressed a joint session of Nationalist lawmakers shortly after he and Chiang Kai-Shek announced in a joint statement that they "stand firmly united" in the fight against Communism and called for a united Asiatic front.

"Unless we are united and organized just as our enemy is united and organized we cannot be as strong," the South Korean president said in his speech. "The only way to fight it as you would cholera, smallpox or any other contagious disease."

erable noise knocking at the door of the woman's cabin. One witness noted that at first the woman inside wouldn't let him in, but after he said he had brought her some money he opened the door. The witness said he thought no witness said he thought no Mrs. Hardman had been living in the three-room Minnesota Motel cabin since the middle of September, police said. She had not been working recently and was in the process of getting a divorce. The crime investigated today is the first murder case in Marion county since the murder of Mrs. Susan Litchfield in June, 1952.

Suspension

"I believe that it is very important," the governor continued, "that the people be fully advised in this particular matter involving the milk marketing act and the reasons for this order. I think that all persons desiring to be heard should be given an opportunity so to do before any order becomes effective."

The governor closed his letter with the request for suspension of the order and said that in the interim he would appreciate being allowed to review the findings of the commission in the matter. He also called on the board to give a full opportunity, after 30 days notice can be given everyone to be heard on the merits.

"After this hearing and review a full and detailed report should be given on any future action," the governor concluded.

Compliance Expected

Although the governor said he was not unmindful of the difficulties confronting the board in administering the milk marketing act, there is little doubt but that members of the board will comply with the governor's request for suspension of the order.

Members of the board of agriculture are appointed by the governor and could be called upon to resign if they refused to comply with an executive request.

Marshall Talks On Nobel Prize

New York (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall said Saturday he regarded the Nobel peace prize, awarded him, as a tribute to the "whole American people."

He said the bi-partisan policies of the late Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R., Mich.) were responsible more than anything else for the success of the European recovery program, known as the Marshall Plan.

Marshall, who is convalescing from a flu virus, called Saturday for Europe to accept the Nobel award in Oslo. He flew here from his Pinehurst, N.C., winter home and boarded the Italian liner Andrea Doria for Naples.

Marshall said he hoped eight days at sea would be a "very fine convalescence" for him. He said he got up from a sickbed only two days ago.

He said he planned to fly from Naples Dec. 7 to Paris for a brief visit with North Atlantic Treaty Organization Commander Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther. He will fly from there to Oslo, then back to Naples, and return aboard the Andrea Doria in time to spend Christmas in the United States.

Holly Is Crowing Again

"Merry Christmas" all you fine people and a Merry one it will be if you will come in and let me help you. Yes, I mean you really need help. Take these snooty old "bucks" for instance, they wait until the little lady goes out of the house and then they tear into everything, go through every drawer and closet and clothes basket and wood pile trying to find out what they are going to get for Christmas. What chance does a little defenseless wife have with these buzzards? It's easy, just take advantage of my "keep it for me in your safe until Christmas" department. Just come in any time and make your selection. Pay part now and string the rest out if you like or pay the whole works, but in either event we will keep it out of his sight and away from his "shaky" hands.

cise of the emotion through religion, ethical and cultural activities. In this respect Salem has planned well and the result of this planning is evidenced in its outstanding growth in population, its modern business and industrial structures, economic stability, successful business men and its importance as the capital city, commercial and industrial marketing and supply center. Underlying this overall structure are the high moral standards, environment and major influences for right living that exist here today.

The churches of Salem and other major influences have been responsible for creating this environment which is conducive to right living. The church pays big dividends. A life of religious service exemplified in the home, the business, civic pride and enterprise, are the dividends on this investment.

Army Defeats Navy Score 20-7

Philadelphia (AP)—Pat Uebel, 19-year-old sophomore from Bellevue, Ky., scored three touchdowns, one on a 70-yard punt return, as the Army ended Navy's three year winning streak on the football field Saturday with a 20-7 victory before 102,000 at Municipal Stadium. Jack Garrow scored the Navy touchdown in the final minute of play.

First Period:

The sky was heavily overcast as the Stadium filled for the first. John Reister fumbled the kickoff on Navy's 27. Lowell Simon recovering for the Cadets. The Army promptly marched for a touchdown, scoring 15 yards in three plays and Pat Uebel bucking over from the five. Ralph Chesnutkas added the extra point.

Later in the period Pat Uebel intercepted a pass on Army's 40 and raced back 20 yards to the end zone. He tackled, stole the ball from the Army back and dashed down the sideline to the Army's 10. He was stopped by the end of bounds by Bob Mischak. The threat ended when Tom Bell intercepted George Walsh's pass on the one.

Second Period:

Neither team was able to set an offense rolling through the first half of the second period. The kickoff of Stinson kept the Middles deep in their territory.

A 47-yard pass from Vann to Don Hollender put the Army on the 18 and the Cadets promptly went for another score with Uebel casing off right tackle for the final three yards. Chesnutkas missed the try for the extra point. Navy, with three 19-yard runs, came back but Gerry Lodes intercepted one of Walsh's passes on the Army 25 and returned it 27 yards to the Navy 8. The Middles held and Chesnutkas missed a field goal from the 15 a minute before the half ended with Army leading 15-0.

Third Period:

A 30-yard pass from Vann to Mischak set up most of the ground as Army took the opening kickoff of the second half and moved deep into Navy territory. But this time the Middles intercepted another drive with Uebel's 23-yard return of the kick to the Cadets' 23 setting up an attack stopped by Navy on the 15 when the Middles held for downs.

Fourth Period:

Sparked by Craig's 23-yard run through the Army line, and a 12-yard pass from Walsh to Don Fuliam, the Middles moved to Army's 24 before losing the ball on downs.

But Army's Lodes fumbled and Navy took over at the same spot they had lost the ball. This time the Middles went to the six before Walsh was thrown for an upward loss. The Army took over on the 15.

The Middles opened up another drive from their 20 and went all the way with Jack Garrow carrying the ball the last seven yards after a pass from George Knotts to Craig had placed the oval within striking distance. George Foster added the extra point to make the final score Army 20 Navy 7.

But informed observers said that when President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Laniel meet with their foreign ministers in Bermuda next Friday, the United States' spokesmen will call for tight arrangements to be made against Soviet disruptive tactics.

Pre-conference arrangements could be tightened up either by getting the Russians to adopt a somewhat more limited agenda than they have proposed or by getting agreement among the Western powers that if the Berlin meeting developed as a mere propaganda battle they would wind it up after a reasonable time and get back to the business of building Western defenses.

Berlin is where the Soviets suggested the meeting take place, and first indications from Washington were that the Western Powers could accept that location.
