

Salem Senators Sign Harvey Storey as Player-Manager

Ex-Vancouver Pilot Succeeds Hugh Luby

By C. A. JONES
The signature of Harvey Storey to a contract as playing manager for the Salem Senators was applied by the deposed Vancouver pilot in the cool recesses of Waters field Sunday afternoon.

That made it official that the Salem board of directors had chosen the bat-swinging third baseman to succeed Hugh Luby, retiring from 22 years of treading the base paths. Storey, 36 years old, hit .343 while managing Vancouver last year and led regular third sackers in fielding with a .939 percentage.

Storey's stay at Vancouver after starring for 13 years in the Pacific coast league was even more remarkable because with a team which was last in batting averages, .259, Vancouver finished fourth in the first half and third in the second half, just 2½ games out of first when September rolled around.

The new manager was chosen over other prospects who included Ray Perry of the Bakersfield, Calif., State league team and Mike McCormick of Wenatchee.

Entered Ball in 1936
The friendly Storey entered pro baseball with Portland in 1936, five years after Luby had broken into baseball in Nebraska in 1931. Storey went to Tacoma in 1937, to the San Francisco Seals in 1938 as shortstop for three years, then to Los Angeles as property of the Chicago Cubs in 1941.

The season of 1942 found him with Milwaukee and Tulsa and he spent three years in the Navy, coming out to play at Portland in 1946 to lead the PCL hitting circle with .326. The San Diego Padres had his services for four seasons from 1949 to 1952.

The Forest Grove resident is married and the father of three children, two boys and a daughter.

Man Mountain Jr. 'Smashes' Dan O'Sullivan
Silverton — Man Mountain Dean, Jr., threw his weight around a little too much here Saturday night in tossing 225-pound Irish Danny O'Sullivan in the feature wrestling event.

Not only did the giant 371-pounder pin O'Sullivan but fell on the lighter, prostrate man after the deciding fall, much to the dismay of the capacity house. Dean won the first and third falls to remain unbeaten in the Northwest.

Gerry Hunter, said to be women's middleweight champion, defeated Ruth Zbyszko in the best two of three falls. Della Menning won from Jerry Adams with a full nelson hold with her legs.

In a special tag team event, Miss Hunter and Miss Adams were disqualified for roughness, using a strangle hold on one of the girls tied up in the ropes.

Spokane Says Mize to Be Offered Job

Spokane (AP)—The owner of the Spokane Indians said Saturday he will offer Johnny Mize a job as manager of the class A Western International League baseball club.

Roy Hotchkiss, who has said he is ready to get out of baseball, said he will also try to interest Mize in buying a part or all of the team.

Mize was made a free agent by the New York Yankees on Friday. The veteran major league first baseman has indicated he is interested in hooking on as a minor league manager.

"I believe there would be a great future for him in Spokane," said Hotchkiss, who will leave for Atlanta Sunday to attend the National Association of Minor League's meeting. Mize will be there.

Spokane, once the best drawing team in Class B baseball, hasn't supported the game well in recent years. From a peak of 287,000 in 1947, the Indians dropped to a low of 80,873 in 1953.

The Indians had a former major league first baseman as the manager in 1948. Dolph Camilli took over in midseason when Spokane was nine games out of first place and won the pennant.

Don Osburn managed Spokane last year but has said he won't be back. Hotchkiss has been willing to sell the Spokane club but there haven't been any firm offers.

SMU Boss Says Mustangs Able To Whip Irish
Dallas, Tex. (AP)—It would be an upset if Southern Methodist beat Notre Dame but more far-fetched things have happened in football, Woody Woodward, coach of Southern Methodist, said Monday as he opened the final week of training leading up to a clash with the mighty Irish at South Bend, Ind.

"I always think we have a chance to beat anybody," Woodward declared, "and we'll be going up there with the idea of winning the ball game. Our record this season hasn't been up to expectations but we really were overrated in early season. But my boys never have let down and I think they have done well."

He admitted, however, that for some reason the SMU team never had been "fired up" for any game this season. Maybe they will be for Notre Dame, he mused.

Methodists always have reached that state when they play the Irish. Four time Notre Dame and SMU have met on the gridiron and some of the best teams the Irish ever had couldn't score a convincing victory.

Oregon Preps Limited to Eight Football Games
Portland (AP)—The Oregon School Activities association Saturday approved a new rule to forbid high school practice before September 1 and games before September 11.

The meeting also limited the number of regular season games to eight.

Henry H. Hartley, Nyssa, was elected to a five-year term on the board, and Lloyd A. Gooding, Gaston, and E. A. Carleton, Salem, were elected to positions on the board which they held by appointment.

Members rejected proposals which would have:

- Changed the title of the class B division to A-3.
- Required a team to play all other teams in its district or forfeit playoff rights.

NAMED TO BOWL
Jacksonville, Fla. (AP)—Auburn and Texas Tech. were selected Monday to play in the Gator Bowl football game here New Year's Day.

It's Official Harvey Storey (right) pens his signature to a contract as new playing manager for the Salem Senators as Hugh Luby (left), general manager, approves. Storey comes to the locally-owned baseball club from the Vancouver WIL team where he hit .343 last year. He replaces Luby, who resigned after 22 years as a pro.

Light Draft Choice Seen As Baseball Officials Meet

Atlanta, Ga. (AP)—Weather mild... talk windy... draft selections slim... trades brisk.

That was the forecast for the business at the 52nd annual baseball convention of the minor leagues that got under way here Monday.

One of the lightest draft selection in years was expected as the major leagues prepared to pick out the nuggets in the list of 4,140 eligible minor league players.

It was one observer's guess that no more than 10 players would be picked.

Orioles Get First Pick
Baltimore, which inherited the last place St. Louis Browns, had first pick. Who the Orioles would choose was a mystery but Art Ehlers, the club's general manager, indicated he would be either a third baseman, an outfielder or a pitcher.

Royce Lint, who won 22 and lost 10 at Portland, could be the pitcher.

Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees, the first of the big league managers to come to Atlanta for the meetings, was pessimistic about closing any deals for his Yankees.

"Nobody wants to trade with us," he moaned. "They are afraid if they do the league will blow up. I guess they want to penalize you for being successful."

Stengel, in an angry mood because of what he termed an "anti-Yankee" feeling around the American League, suggested an investigation of the general managers who he claimed were running their clubs into the ground.

The real business of the convention does not begin until Thursday at a closed session when 30 proposed amendments to the major-minor league codes will be discussed.

To Discuss Draft
Unrestricted draft, drafting of first year players, and television will be discussed. The minors' player draft will take place Tuesday and Wednesday. Also on Wednesday Commissioner Ford Frick will meet with representatives of the 16 major league clubs to discuss the pension fund and reform demands made during the all-star meetings last summer.

Look's 22-Man All-America Has Huskies' Bohart

New York (AP)—Look magazine's 29-man all-America football team, announced Sunday, includes five players from the West Coast.

They are: Milk Bohart, University of Washington, guard; Paul Cameron, UCLA, and Bob Garrett, Stanford, backs; Matt Hazeltine, California, center; Ken Buck, College of Pacific, end.

Grantland Rice, in selecting the honor team, named two men for each position without any attempt to rank one above the other.

Other backs named to the honor team were: Alan Ameche, Wisconsin; J. C. Caroline, Illinois; Paul Giel, Minnesota; David Johnson, Rice; John Lattner, Notre Dame; Jackie Parker, Mississippi State.

Hobbling Seixas Loses to Aussie

Melbourne, (AP)—The United States Davis Cup hopes were shaken again Monday when Wimbledon titlist Vic Seixas, hobbling from his knee injury, fell before Australia's George Worthington in the second round of the Victorian Tennis Championships.

The Philadelphian, playing cautiously so as not to risk further damage, was cut down in a stoutly-fought, five set battle 6-3, 6-0, 4-6, 6-8, 6-1.

Browns First Again, Whip Cards 27-16

By EARL WRIGHT
New York, (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, who may some day pop up in the dictionary as a synonym for success, have won their eighth straight pro football division title and their jinx opponent, the Detroit Lions, leads in the race for the other berth in the National League's 1953 championship game.

The Browns, victorious in the 10 games they have played this year, have won a division title each season since they were organized in 1946. After sweeping four championships in the all-American Conference, they entered the NFL in 1950 and won its Eastern Conference crown yesterday for the fourth time by defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 27-16.

Detroit UP One Game
Detroit posted a 34-15 victory over the Green Bay Packers Thursday and boosted its Western Conference lead to a full game yesterday without moving a muscle. The Los Angeles Rams had a chance to cut idle Detroit's lead to a half-game but were upset by the Chicago Bears, 24-21. The Rams now trail by 1½ games.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners moved into second place by defeating the Baltimore Colts, 24-21, but the Bear triumph allowed Detroit to increase its lead. Detroit is the only club with a perfect record against Cleveland, beating the Browns during the regular 1952 season and in the championship game.

New York Giants warmed up for its next Sunday "spiller" role against the Browns yesterday by snapping the Eagles' six-game winning streak, 37-28, while the Washington Redskins beat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 17-9, in the other game.
